

LOST LETTERS.

Many Misdirected Missives Get Into Postoffices.

Every day about 9,000 letters are received at the New York postoffice addressed incorrectly.

Don't mail any letter until you are sure that it is completely and properly addressed.

Don't fail, in the hurry of business, in addressing a letter, write the name of your own state upon it instead of that of the person addressed—a very common error.

Don't fail to make certain that your manner of writing the name of an office or state may not cause it to be mistaken for one similar in appearance.

Don't fail, if you are in doubt as to the right name of the office for which your letter is intended, to consult the postal guide, which any postmaster will be pleased to show you.

Don't fail to give the street and house number of the person for whom mail matter is intended in addressing it to a city or large town.

Don't fail to place the stamp on the upper right-hand corner.

Don't fail to bear in mind that it is unlawful to inclose matter of a high class in one that is lower—e. g., merchandise in newspaper.

Don't fail to mail any letter unless your address, with a request to return, is upon the face of the envelope, so that in case of non delivery it will be returned directly to you.

Don't fail to give your correspondents your full address, so that a new postman cannot fail to find you.

Don't fail to inform your postmaster of any change in your address.

Don't fail to inform your postmaster of any change in your address.

Don't fail if you intend to be away from home for any length of time to inform your postmaster what disposition shall be made of your mail.

Don't fail to sign your letters in full, so that if they reach the dead letter office they may be promptly returned.

Don't fail when you fail to receive an expected letter, charge the postal service with the loss until you have learned from your correspondent of all the facts in regard to the mailing, contents, etc.—New York Press.

A Bad Horse Market.

According to the Chambersburg Spirit, Philadelphia is a bad horse market at present. One dealer from Franklin county took a car load of horses down last week and one of the horses that he paid $40 for and freight, sold for $30.

Pennsylvania added more largely to her population from 1870 to 1880 and from 1880 to 1890 than any other State in the Union.

The department of public instruction is preparing a revised edition of the school laws of Pennsylvania, which will contain all the laws pertaining to the public schools enacted by the legislature since the foundation of the system.

the food for all such.

How many pale folk there are! People who have the will, but no power to bring out their vitality; people who swing like a pendulum between strength and weakness—so that one day's work causes six days' sickness!

The food for all such men, women, or children is Scott's Emulsion. The hypophosphites combined with the oil will tone up the system, give the blood new life, improve the appetite and help digestion.

COTTON STATES AND INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, ATLANTA, GA., VIA THE SEABOARD AIR LINE. VESTIBULED LIMITED TRAINS Upon Which no Extra Fare is Charged.

Leave Washington, D. C., daily, at 8:40 P. M., upon arrival of the "Congressional Limited" from New York, and reach Atlanta at 4:00 P. M. the next day.

A second train, with through sleeping cars from New York, leaves Washington at 4:30 A. M., arriving at Atlanta 5:20 A. M. the next day.

Both trains leave from the Pennsylvania railroad station and land passengers in the Union Depot at Atlanta—as near the Exposition grounds as through passengers via any line are landed. At Portsmouth and Norfolk, Va., the Seaboard Air Line has other connections equally as important as those at Washington, namely: From New York and Philadelphia, the Cape Charles Route; from Baltimore, the Bay Line steamers; from Washington, the Norfolk and Washington steamers; from New York, the Old Dominion steamships and from Boston and Providence, the Merchants' and Miners' steamships.

These trains are composed of the hand-somest Pullman Drawing Room, Buffet Sleeping Cars and Day Coaches. The 8:40 P. M. train ("The Atlanta Special") is vestibuled from end to end and is operated solely from Washington to Atlanta without change.

POINTS OF INTEREST ALONG THE LINE. The route from Washington is through Fredericksburg, Richmond and Petersburg, Virginia, Weldon, Raleigh and Southern Pines, North Carolina, Chester, Clinton, and Abbeville, South Carolina, and Eliberton and Athens to Atlanta, Georgia.

RATES. Excursion tickets will be sold to Atlanta and return, via the Seaboard Air Line, as follows: On Tuesdays and Thursdays, September 17th to December 24th, inclusive, at $14.00 from Washington and $12.60 from Portsmouth and Norfolk, limited to ten days from date of sale.

Daily, September 16th to December 15th, inclusive, at $19.25 from Washington and $17.35 from Portsmouth and Norfolk, limited to twenty days from date of sale; and at $26.25 from Washington and $23.65 from Portsmouth and Norfolk, good until January 7, 1896.

THE EXPOSITION surpasses in some respects, any Exposition yet held in America. Here you find, side by side, exhibits from Florida and Alaska, California and Maine, the United States of America and the United States of Brazil, Mexico and Canada, and so on until nearly every civilized nation on the globe is represented.

Ask for tickets via "THE SEABOARD AIR LINE." Pullman Sleeping Car reservations will be made and further information furnished upon application to any Agent of the Seaboard Air Line, or to the undersigned.
