Berwick is no sooner out of one calamity, until it is in another. The epidemic of diphtheria which has been raging there for some time has about subsided, and now a sudden desire to marry seems to have taken hold of the people. Some one has said it is difficult to tell which is the greater calamity.

Owing to the rapidly increasing business at Whary's China Bazaar, it has become necessary to put in new shelving. New goods are being constantly received. A few days since an agent, who called there with four trunks filled with samples, after looking at their stock said, "there is no need of my opening my samples as I have nothing better than you display."

The following persons were elected officers of the Land Improvement Company at a meeting held last Monday evening. Directors—B. F. Sharpless, J. L. Dillon, A. G. Briggs, Dr. McReynolds, C. W. THE OLD RELIABLE
SWEET CAPORAL CIGARETTE
Has stood the Test of Time
MORE SOLD THAN ALL OTHER BRANDS COMBINED

BEAUTIFUL AND USEFUL.

Robbins and Peacock, recently shipped an order for the Paul E. Wirt fountain pen to John Wanamaker at Philadelphia. The quality of the pens were, as they all are, the very best, and they were most handsomely finished with solid silver and gold mounting. The chasing on the cases was exquisite. It was the handsomest lot of pens we ever gazed upon and undoubtedly will greatly please the purchaser. They also shipped orders to London, Tasmania, Australia, Germany and India. It is meeting all the requirements of a perfect fountain pen.

CLOTHING ON FIRE.

Mrs. John Welliver who resides at the corner of Main and Leonard Street narrowly escaped death from flames last Thursday. She was assisting with the butchering, and a spark flew from the fire under the kettle igniting her dress. In less time than it takes to write it, the entire back of her dress was in flames. Fortunately however, her husband was present, who ran to her aid, and successfully smothered it before she was severely injured. As it was, she was considerably burned and Mr. Welliver's hands and arms were blistered.

ATTENTION EVERYBODY.
