recently cooped fifteen tramps in the lockup. In the morning they were given the liberty of the town and told to hunt themselves something to eat, They skirmished around and were soon filled up with victuals and bug juice. The average tramp likes a liquid refreshment.-Exchange. If the tramp was made to travel on an empty stomach, he would not follow the business of tramping very long. It appears to be a serious question of how to remedy the tramp evil. Stop feeding them and you solve it. with an army of men and boys, who soon learn that they are not compelled to work for a living, but that they can live off those who do work. Refuse them victuals and they will be compelled to seek an honest living.
