ABOUT THE "BAD BOY."

It would be difficult to imagine anything funnier than Mr. George W. Peck's book, "The Bad Boy and His Pa," but a funnier creation does not exist than Mr. Pidgin's play of the same name. This is because word painting, no matter how clever, cannot be as vivid as actual action. You laugh when you read the Bad Boy's tricks, but you roar when you see the same boy, in flesh and blood, perform those tricks. "Peck's Bad Boy" is a famous work. For the benefit of the many who are acquainted with the piece, it may be stated that the cast is much improved, and that the play has received additions which are decidedly side splitting and surprising. Opera House, Monday March 23.

Instantly Killed.

On Friday last Ambrose Biddle, a well known resident of White Hall, met with an accident by which he lost his life. In the afternoon he went to his stable and while harnessing the horses one of them kicked him on the neck. He was picked up and Dr. Shuman, of Jerseytown, sent for, who found that death was instantaneous, due to a broken neck. The deceased leaves a wife and two small children.

S. of A., which has been delayed owing to the tardiness of a number of subordinate camps in sending in their reports to the State Camp, will be issued during the coming week and will contain the following items of interest: Number of members initiated during the year ending December 31, 10,182; admitted by card, 209; reinstated, 1,221; total membership, 53,061; amount paid out benefits during the year, $112,826.87; total receipts, $355,193.36; expenses, $208,302.23; total amounts in subordinate camp treasuries, $153,459.94; invested in real estate, bonds, etc., $539,831.69; value of paraphernalia, $209,149.01; total valuation, $902,446.64.

Mrs. J. B. Martin, of West Second street, left last Wednesday for Kendall Creek, McKean county, where she will make her home. Mr. Martin is employed by an oil company and has been stationed in that section for a long time, and is now permanently located. Their household goods were sent out last week, and Mrs. Martin will be met by her husband at Bradford. Their friends in this section wish them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

F. U. Sweppenheiser, of Centre, lost a valuable horse on Sunday. It appears that about three weeks ago the animal, while tied at a post was bitten by a mad dog said to belong to Joseph Fausey, the same dog that bit the Kline girl and colored boy at Espy. Mr. Sweppenheiser was very careful and watched his horse closely to discover, if possible, any symptoms of madness. All seemed right until Sunday when the animal became mad and could not be controlled. All was done for it that they could possibly think of, but of no avail, and as a last resort it was shot.

For printing paper books, catalogues or pamphlets of any kind, the COLUMBIAN office is the best equipped of any establishment in this section. All kinds of job printing neatly and promptly done, at prices that compete with city work. When other offices cannot do your work, come to us and we will get it out for you.

Judge B. M. Peck of Towanda was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday, and there is no hope of his recovery. His death will leave a vacancy on the bench of Bradford county to be filled by the Governor, and it is probable that Hon. James H. Coddling will be appointed.

Senator Cochran of Williamsport will sail for Europe next week.

"TAKEN IN."

"I used often to read the newspaper aloud to my wife," said Bert Robinson, "and once I was fairly 'taken in' by a patent medicine advertisement. The seductive paragraph began with a modest account of the sea-serpent, but ended by setting forth the virtues of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which, it was alleged, was a cure for all Bronchial, Throat and Lung troubles, and would even cure Consumption, if taken in time. The way I was taken in was this: I had lung disease, and I bought a bottle of the remedy; I was a stranger to it, and it took me in—and cured me." Robinson's experience is identical with that of thousands of others. So true is this, that after witnessing, for many years, the marvelous cures of Bronchial, Throat and Lung affections wrought by this wonderful remedy, its manufacturers feel warranted in saying that this remedy will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. This may seem like a bold assertion to those familiar only with the means generally in use for its treatment; as, nasty cod liver oil and its filthy emulsions, extract of malt, whiskey, different preparations of hypophosphites and such like palliatives. The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. You can then write those cured and learn their experience. Address for Book, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

MARRIED.

McHenry and Fausey.—On the 14 inst., at the Reformed parsonage in Orangeville, by Rev. A. Houtz, Mr. Percy McHenry of Stillwater, and Miss Hattie Fausey of Bloomsburg.

On Saturday night last Fred Ikeler Esq., delivered his lecture on "Agitators," under the auspices of the Berwick Literary Society in the Y. M. C. A. hall before a large and delighted audience. The address is very highly spoken of by the Berwick people.

Married.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Barber, on Wednesday evening, occurred the pretty quiet wedding which united Miss Betsey Robison Barber and Charles W. Bachelor. The home was beautifully decorated and brilliantly lighted.

The bride was dressed in a simple cream silk, the simplicity of which tended to accent the natural dignity and grace of her carriage. Promptly at eight o'clock the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, she was met at the north end of the parlor by the groom and Rev. Barrett. Standing under a beautiful floral bell the vows were exchanged. After the ceremony dainty refreshments were served in the dining room.

"Miss Bessie" had hosts of friends and admirers in the city where she has passed so many years of her girlhood and all join in good wishes for her future. Though only relatives and most intimate friends of the bride were bidden to the wedding, the gifts were many and valuable, testifying to the high regard in which the bride is held.

Mr. Bachelor is one of our prominent business men and stands well in the esteem of all. Mr. and Mrs. Bachelor left for their new home in the west side in the midst of a shower of rice and good wishes.—McPherson (Kansas) Republican March 9th.

The bride is a niece of Capt. J. B. Robison of this place.

Death of Mrs. Dr. J. C. Mather.

Irène, wife of Dr. J. C. Mather, of Rohrsburg, died on Sunday morning at half past eleven o'clock, at the residence of her father, W. W. Eves, in Millville. The deceased had not been in good health for a long time but for a while seemed to improve, and about three weeks ago went on a visit to her father's and grew worse before being able to return home. She was aged twenty-one years and is survived by a husband. Funeral services at the Friends Meeting House Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock.

Eliza Webb, a maiden lady who with her sister resided above Afton for many years, died Sunday morning aged eighty-three years. The funeral services and interment were held today.
