

The Oldest Man.

The oldest man now living in the United States is said to be Alexander Freeman, an inmate of the Sailor's Snug Harbor on Staten Island. He was born December 22, 1786, and will, accordingly, have lived 110 years next Christmas.

Sound as a Dollar.

Orbisonia, Pa., April 15, 1896. "I had the grip very badly and took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured me sound as a dollar. Hood's Sarsaparilla has all the praise for my cure. I believe I never felt so badly in my life as I did before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." Howard Leonard.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills.

At the session of the Odd Fellows grand lodge in Pittsburg, some changes were made in the conduct of the order that are of interest to the membership in Columbia county, as well as in all parts of the state. Hereafter an assessment of twenty-five cents a year will be levied on each member of the order for the support of the Odd Fellows orphanages—the amount to be divided in proportion to the number of inmates in each home.

CUSTOMER—I want a remedy for catarrh.

DRUG CLERK—All right, sir. Here's a blood tonic that is advertised to build up the constitution.

CUSTOMER—Young man, do you think I'm going to dose myself with a blood tonic for months, just on the chance of it doing me some good? Not much! I want immediate relief; besides, catarrh is a local affection, and no tonic or blood purifier ever made, can cure it. Here's 50 cents. Let me have Ely's Cream Balm. It's the only thing I know of to cure an attack of catarrh.

Did you ever notice the difference between a lady and a gentleman in mounting a bicycle?

The lady stops, adjusts her skirts, puts her foot upon a pedal, gives a little spring, settles lightly upon the saddle, and away she goes! The man grabs the handle bars, stretches himself out behind the machine, puts one foot upon the step, hops along on one leg like a lame ostrich, gives a jump, lands "ker plunk" in the saddle, kicks about to find the pedals and then goes wobbling along for a rod or so before he gets his centre of gravity located.

Some light witted folk have again sprung that silly question as to whether the nineteenth century ends with the year 1899 or with the end of 1900. Does 99 make 100 ever? Well, no. Just the same, then, 1899 does not make 1900. The nineteenth century began with the year 1801. It ends the 31st day of December, 1900.
