July!

The year is half gone.

The fire crackers crack.

What has become of Trilby?

June went out most graciously.

Sun-burned noses are on exhibition.

Water melons and green corn are in market.

A new floor has been laid in the County Treasurer's office.

Nervous people are looking forward with horror to the glorious Fourth.

Don't be backward, but bring your job work to the COLUMBIAN office.

The early bird gets—to Catawissa in time for the monster parade July 4.

Why is it that the pretty girls are never bright, and the bright ones never pretty.

Improvements have been made to the dry house of the School Furnishing Company.

Raspberry bugs are unpleasant to the taste, and are less desirable than even the seeds.

We never saw a woman who was satisfied with her weight. She either wants to be stouter or thinner.

Woman has no aim in life. If you don't believe it, get her to throw a stone at something.

Opening a political convention with prayer is like casting bread upon the waters. It is wasted.

Farmers say that raspberries will be scarce this year. We wonder if that means that the seeds are increasing in size.

It is said that every time the clock ticks a child is born into the world. People who have had triplets want to stop the clock.

James Ferguson and family are now temporarily residing at East Nanticoke where Mr. Ferguson is engaged in the manufacture of brick.

The 'Columbia Herald' says that they saw a Marietta woman chew a piece of calico ten minutes to see if it would wash.

Insist on having just what you call for when you go to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, the One True Blood Purifier and nerve tonic.

Hanna would be a very cross Mark if perchance, there should not be enough X marks to carry his man through in November.

Don't swallow cherry seeds. If one lodges in your vermiform appendix, it's sure death—from either appendicitis or the operation.

FOR SALE. A boy's bicycle suitable for boy 7 to 10 years old. In good condition. Cost $20. Will be sold cheap. Inquire at this office. If

The first thing to learn in swimming is to strike out. The same thing, however, doesn't apply to base ball.

The contract for the erection of the addition to the Third street school building has been awarded to Thomas Gorrey.

A concrete pavement is being laid in front of the property of E. A. Rawlings on Centre street. The work is being done by O. B. Mellick.

A church society recently discussed the problem, "how to hold the young men." We wonder how hammocks would do, with a pretty girl incidentally thrown in.

Not long ago the chappie turned

His trousers up, the aping top;

But since to ride the wheel he's learned,

He turns his stockings down from top.

Information for the the romantic:

It is just fourteen days from the night the new moon first appears until it is full. We might add that it doesn't take humanity quite that long.

A. P. Kitchen and Chas. H. Sharpless rode from Harrisburg to this place last Tuesday morning on their bicycles in seven hours and forty minutes.

There will be a dance at Oak Grove to-morrow and Saturday evening by the May Club. Excellent music, and good order will be maintained. You are invited to attend.

E. B. Tustin has sold the large brick house which he recently erected on Market street, to L. E. Waller, Esq., and has purchased a lot from the Sloan estate on the opposite side of the street, upon which he will build a handsome residence.

Some of the country fairs propose to add to their attractions walking races for country horses. It is a good idea, as it is important for the farm horse to cultivate a fast walk as a fast trot.

Among the charters granted by the State Department last Monday was the Bloomsburg Elevator and Machine works, Bloomsburg, Pa., for the manufacture of elevators and doing general foundry and machine work; capital, $50,000. Directors, A. Z. Schoch, C. C. Peacock, L. E. Waller, W. S. Moyer, Fred. Richards, J. L. Dillon, Bloomsburg.

"To learn to swim," says the State Board of Health, "is of as much value to a boy or girl as 13 weeks in French or higher algebra, or even a term in a modern business college. It is one of the things that should not be neglected.

Miss Annie, daughter of David Savage, of Iron street, and Alfred H. son of B. F. Edgar, of Fishingcreek township, took passage on the 10.49 train on the D. L. and W., rail road Tuesday for Elmira, where their lives were joined in matrimony.

The proposed "meet" of the Bloomsburg Wheelmen will be held at this place sometime between the first and tenth of August. There will be a lantern parade the previous evening, and as extensive preparations are being made, a great time is expected.

Prof. L. P. Sterner has been commissioned a member of the Permanent Certificate Committee of this county, by State Superintendent N. C. Schaeffer. This is not only an important position, but one of honor as well, and his friends congratulate him upon the fact that his ability as an educator has been recognized by the State Department.

A club to be called the Bloomsburg Wheelmen was organized on Monday evening, at the Exchange Hotel. The following officers were elected: W. S. Rishton, President; Frank Ikeler, Secretary; G. M. Tustin, Treasurer. Arrangements will be made for a race meet in the near future. Persons desiring to join the club should call on G. P. Ringler, W. H. Eyer or W. H. Slate.

Yes, that pesky, irritable and contemptible nuisance is here; the fly, we mean. And what is more, it is evident that he has brought all his sisters, his cousins and his aunts along, and they have come to stay for several months. For the sake of comfort to humanity—especially the bald-headed portion of it—we wish the whole brood of flies were at the bottom of the sea.

Since the Water Company has purchased the Irondale property they have decided to beautify the same by the removal of the old ruins and buildings and have employed John Cadman to superintend the work. The stone building erected by Wm. Pease will be completed, and it is proposed to start an industry in the same. The appearance of the property will be entirely changed, which will greatly enhance its value.

The Twin Comet lawn sprinkler is the best thing of the kind now on the market. It is nickel plated, and can be adjusted to cover a circle eighty feet in diameter, or less if desired. It not only does effective work, but is as pretty as a fountain, when in operation. We have one at our residence which can be seen at any time by calling at this office. THE COLUMBIAN has the agency for Bloomsburg. If

A far-seeing editor in a neighboring town says: We may not live long enough but we expect our descendants to see the time when the farmer sits in his easy chair and by merely pressing the button set the machinery in motion that will feed his stock, do the milking, till the soil, and in short "relieve him of the most of the other hard work that now makes a farmer truly earn his bread by the sweat of his brow.

The band gave an open air concert last Saturday evening in front of the Court House and the following programme was rendered: March, American Prize, by Hauschild. Medley Overture. . .
