DEMOCRATS

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION AT CHICAGO.

Senator Daniel of Virginia Elected Temporary Chairman. Senator Hill of New York, Recommended by the National Committee, but the Report was not Adopted. Senator White Permanent Chairman. A Free Silver Platform Adopted.

The Democratic National Convention at Chicago was called to order on Tuesday July 7, at one o'clock p. m. by W. F. Harrity, chairman of the National Committee. After prayer by Rev. E. M. Stires of Grace Episcopal Church, the report of the committee on temporary organization was announced by the chairman. This included Senator D. B. Hill of New York, as temporary chairman. Clayton of Alabama, nominated Senator Daniel of Virginia for the position. Then followed a number of speeches by the friends of the two candidates. Daniel was the choice of the silver men, and Hill of the gold men. A vote was taken by states, and Daniel received 556 votes, and Hill 349, and the former was declared elected. On being escorted to the chair Senator Daniel expressed profound gratitude for the honor conferred upon him and expressed his regret that his name should have been brought in even the most courteous competition with his most distinguished friend. Senator Hill would readily recognize the fact, however, that there was no personality in the matter. It was solely due to the principle which the great majority of Democrats stood for, he (Mr. Daniel) standing with them. As the majority of the convention was not personal in its aims, neither was it sectional. It began with the sunrise in Maine, and spread into a sunburst in Louisiana and Texas. It stretched in unbroken lines across from Virginia and Georgia to California. It swept like a prairie fire over Iowa and Kansas and it lighted up the horizon in Nebraska. Mr. Daniel continued: "Do not forget that in the last national convention of 1892 you proclaimed yourselves to be in favor of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country and for the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal or charge for mintage, and that the only question left open was the ratio between the metals.

"Do not forget that just four years ago, in that same convention, the New York delegation stood here solid and immovable for a candidate committed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the ratio of sixteen to one; and that if we are for it still it is in some measure from your teachings. That we owe you much is readily and gratefully acknowledged, but are not our debts mutual and not one sided to each other? "Bring us, we pray you, no more makeshifts and straddles. Vex the country with no more prophecies of smooth things to come from the British Republican gold propaganda. We maintain that this great nation, with a natural base (as Gladstone said) of the greatest continuous empire ever established by man, with far more territory and more productive energy than Great Britain, France and Germany combined, without dependence upon Europe for anything that it produces and with Europe dependent upon us for much that we produce, is fully capable of restoring its constitutional money system of gold and silver at an equality with each other, and as our fathers in 1776 declared our national independence, so now has the party founded by Thomas Jefferson, the father of that declaration, met here to declare our financial independence of all other nations and to invoke all true Americans to assert it by their votes and to place their country where it ought to belong as the freest and foremost nation of the earth."

"There are a number of delegates in the Pennsylvania delegation who are said to be for free silver. They are the following: John S. Killing, Erie; John T. Lenahan, Luzerne, delegates-at-large; Frank B. Rhoades, Sixth district; Howard Mutchler and Frank P. Searkey, Eighth district; W. Oscar Miller, Richard M. Reilly, Joseph O'Brien, Eleventh district; John A. Garman, Twelfth district; William A.

Marr, Thirteenth district; Joseph A. Gray and Americus Enfield, Twentieth district; W. A. McCullough and John B. Kennan, Twenty-first district; Frank Thompson and A. F. Silvens, Twenty-fourth district; Robert R'tchie Twenty-fifth district; William H. Gaskill, Twenty-sixth district; Charles O. Layman, Twenty-seventh district; James K. P. Hall and Matt Savage, Twenty-eighth district. Of these Savage, Keenan, McCullough, Garman, Miller, Gaskill and Silvens are outspoken, and the rest have expressed themselves in such a manner as to indicate that they are for silver. Under the unit rule the whole delegation voted for Hill.

At 4.45 p. m. the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock on Wednesday.

The convention was called to order on Wednesday morning at 10.45. Senator White of California was elected permanent chairman, and a platform was adopted. The following is the money plank:

Recognizing that the money question is paramount to all others at this time, we invite attention to the fact that the federal constitution names silver and gold together as the money metals of the United States, and that the first coinage law passed by congress under the constitution made the silver dollar the monetary unit and admitted gold to free coinage at a ratio based upon the silver dollar unit. We declare that the act of 1873, monetizing silver without the knowledge or approval of the American people, has resulted in the appreciation of gold and a corresponding fall in the price of commodities produced by the people; a heavy increase in the burden of taxation and of all debts, public and private; the enrichment of the money lending class at home and abroad; paralysis of industry and impoverishment of the people.

We are unalterably opposed to monometallism which has locked fast the prosperity of an industrious people in the paralysis of hard times. Gold monometallism is a British policy, and its adoption has brought other nations into financial servitude to London. It is not only anti-American but anti-American, and it can be fastened upon the United States only by the stifling of that indomitable spirit and love of liberty which proclaimed our political independence in 1776 and won it in the war of the revolution.

We demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of sixteen to one, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard silver dollar shall be a full legal tender, equally with gold, for all debts, public and private, and we favor such legislation as will prevent the demonetization of any kind of legal tender money by private contract.

Up to the hour of going to press, two o'clock, no nomination has been made. Whether it will be Bland or Boies, or McLean, or Stevenson, or somebody else, cannot be predicted.

Why Because

Do people buy Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to any other,—in fact almost to the exclusion of all others?

They know from actual use that Hood's is the best, i. e., it cures when others fail. Hood's Sarsaparilla is still made under the personal supervision of the educated pharmacist who originated it.

The question of best is just as positively decided in favor of Hood's as the question of comparative sales.

Another thing: Every advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla is true, is honest.

A Hot Bath Will Bring Sleep. Suppose a person be tired out by overwork of any kind, to feel nervous, irritable and worn, to be absolutely certain that bed means only tossing for hours in an unhappy wakefulness. We all know this condition of the body and mind. Turn on the hot water in the bathroom and soak in the hot bath until the drowsy feeling comes, which will be within three minutes; rub yourself briskly with a coarse Turkish towel until the body is perfectly dry, and then go to bed. You will sleep the sleep of the just, and rise in the morning wondering how you could have felt so badly the night before. The bath has saved many a one from a sleepless night, if not from a severe headache the next day.—Dr. Cyrus Edson in June Ladies' Home Journal.

Married. KELLER—IMBODEN. The home of Miss Grace Imboden at Luthersville, Pa., was the scene of a very pretty home wedding on Tuesday, June 30, when the ceremony was performed which united her for life to Mr. Charles J. At Buckhorn on the eve of July 4th, 1896, Jacob Robbins and Dora Dewald, both of White Hall, were united in marriage by Rev. W. H. Hartman. Personal. If any one who has been benefited by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will write to THE COLUMBIAN, Bloomsburg, Pa., they will receive information that will be of much value and interest to them. 6-18-96.

WARM WEATHER WEARABLES. Nothing Like This Before!! ARE YOU GOING TO BE IN IT? We mean in a new dress made from new wash fabrics. The makers are over stocked—they lay it all to a backward season. Capes, new, cool summer fabrics are now being sold at one-half early season's prices. Hits the consumer just right. You'd wonder at these prices if not explained. Don't delay, but get in the swim and come while a good thing lasts. 12 1/2 c. Dimities and Lawns AT 6c. the yard.

P. S. Have you seen the pickled lamb tongues and clams we are showing in our grocery department? Pursel & Harman, BLOOMSBURG, PA. WANAMAKER CLOTHING

Somewhere between $100,000 and $125,000 Summer Clothing selling at a clear loss of one-fourth all round—just as if we'd never have another summer to sell clothes. We shan't be believed until you see the goods. Not a half-dozen times in all our years that we sold without getting even somehow. Can't this time; aren't trying; we're losing on black suits, gray suits, thin clothes—every sort except Thibets and serge. We sell Thibets at $5 and they cost it. We sell Serges at $7.50 to $18; if we asked $10 to $25, we'd please the stores and waste our advertising. The rest of the stock like this: Black worsted and crepe, $30 suits for $13.50. Black worsted fine diagonal, $20 suits for $10. Coat and vest (fine as in $30 suits) for $10. Homespun—have been $12 for $7.50. Boys' clothes same way, $3 suits for $2.25; $10 for $6.75. Same sort of clothes we always sell: better made this year, perhaps—no, certainly; everything the same except this plunge in prices. Explanations don't explain: the times are bad; the clothes are good; the prices are broken—broken on all our summer clothes: doesn't happen in ten years. Harris cassimeres included. The best and the worst of them from our great clearing-out-Harris-mill-buy go down like all the rest—$15 suit meant to sell for $12—now $8.50. Nobody else in the business doing anything like we are. We think we're sharp to lose the money while we can sell the goods. What summer clothes do you want? Pay your carfare, too—on a reasonable purchase. WANAMAKER & BROWN, Sixth and Market Streets, Philadelphia.
