

Address of the Executive Committee of the Democratic Societies of Pennsylvania Adopted July 25, 1896.

The eighth annual general assembly of the Democratic Societies of Pennsylvania is hereby called to meet in the city of Erie, on the 26th day of August, 1896.

We are entering upon one of the most important campaigns in the history of the party or the country. Our brethren, in all parts of the Union, are moving in the good cause of Democracy, which is nothing more than government by the people and for the people.

This tremendous movement by the common people of America for the reclamation of popular rights, for redress of popular grievances, for the restoration of popular rule, and for the correction of long standing and intolerable abuses for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many, is right and just, and as the wisest observers now believe absolutely irresistible.

It is true that some persons and some newspapers of note, hitherto professing support of Democratic principles, have seen fit to sever their late slender relations with the party of the people.

What shall be the part of the Democracy of Pennsylvania in the lawful, peaceful, but not less glorious, political revolution which is so plainly in progress?

Now that the issues are clearly presented, is there any just reason to doubt the patriotism of the voters of this state more than of others? We do not think so.

We are not in the least disturbed by the brutal sneers which are cast upon us and upon the representatives of the plain people lately assembled at Chicago. No better convention than that ever sat in America. It was composed of typical representatives of the land owners, the land tillers, the workmen, the unpretentious but substantial citizens, in other words, the producing classes of the United States.

But now these men, delegates of the millions of Democratic voters, together with the farmers, laborers and the great multitude of the industrious well-to-do people of our country, transacting their business in regular form according to the rules and traditions of the oldest political party in the Union, are denounced by the organs of entrenched monopoly as a fortuitous assemblage of ignorant fanatics and red-handed anarchists.

It is well to recall at this close of the century the similar ravings of the "monocrats" when Thomas Jefferson led the people back to the possession of their own in 1800. At that time Jefferson, Madison, Gallatin and the honest and sturdy Republicans, who stood for constitutional liberty, were reviled almost as bitterly as are the Democrats of to-day.

What shall be the part of the Democracy of Pennsylvania in the lawful, peaceful, but not less glorious, political revolution which is so plainly in progress?

Now that the issues are clearly presented, is there any just reason to doubt the patriotism of the voters of this state more than of others? We do not think so.

We ask the Democrats in every locality in the commonwealth to organize themselves in home clubs—the Democratic Societies of our forefathers, "the nurseries of sound republican principles," as Jefferson pronounced them.

CHAUNCEY F. BLACK, President.

TWO MILES A MINUTE The Wonderful Speed Attained by a Runaway Freight Car.

A runaway freight car that had become detached from a train caused a flurry early the other morning on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad.

It started from the main line at great speed. The express for Philadelphia was about due, and the trainmen were horrified over the thought of a possible collision. A telegraph operator was summoned. He sent a message to Shamokin, and the track was cleared. The car shot by at the rate of two miles a minute.

The distance from Alaska to the latter place is 22 miles, and was covered in 16 minutes by the runaway.

If You Will Use a Little Reasoning and not be influenced by the claim that catarrh is a blood disease, you can easily prove that catarrh is climatic. Have you not the severest catarrhal attacks during winter and spring, and have you but little evidence of catarrh during the summer?

The Twin Comet lawn sprinkler is the best thing of the kind now on the market. It is nickel plated, and can be adjusted to cover a circle eighty feet in diameter, or less if desired.

A MOTHER'S DUTY.

Your daughters are the most precious legacy possible in this life. The responsibility for them, and their future, is largely with you.

As you care for their physical well-being, so will the woman be, and so will her children be also.

Compound is the sure reliance in this hour of trial. Thousands have found it the never-failing power to correct all irregularities and start the woman on the sea of life with that physical health all should have.

Womb difficulties, displacements and the horrors cannot exist in company with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
