

AMERICAN GIRL'S HIGH HONORS.

Mary F. Winston a Doctor of Philosophy Cottingham University.

Another American woman has invaded the exclusive and conservative universities of Germany, and carried away the highest honors. A cable-gram has been received by the parents of Miss Mary F. Winston, residing at No. 6109 Monroe Avenue, Chicago, that their daughter had passed the examination for the degree of doctor of philosophy at the Cottingham University, magna sum laude.

Miss Winston has many friends at the University of Chicago, where she was a fellow in mathematics during the scholastic year of 1892-93. Miss Winston comes from a family of scholars, and has two brothers and two sisters in the university at the present time. Her younger brother has achieved fame in athletics as well as in scholarship, and has been the crack third baseman on the 'varsity baseball team for two years.

Mary F. Winston.

The recipient of the high honors at the hands of the Cottingham faculty has had a remarkable success in her collegiate career. She graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1891 with high honors in mathematics and was offered a fellowship at Bryn Mawr College the same year. After studying a year at the University of Chicago, she was awarded the private fellowship of Mrs. Fabian Franklin, of Baltimore, and immediately entered the University of Gottingen. From the very start she made rapid strides toward recognition, and last year Miss Winston held the foreign fellowship of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. She fled Germany for home August 13, and expects to arrive in Chicago about September 1.

Baby Card Etiquette.

It is satisfactory to know that there has been a reform in the style of "baby cards." When the son of the house of Watkins arrives it is not necessary to place anything more on the card than the baby's name—as soon as he has one. This card is attached to the parents' card by a bow of narrow white satin ribbon or silver cord. When the baby's name has been announced there is nothing else to be placed on the card. It was the custom to give the young gentleman's weight—usually the lying figures of ten pounds, or even fifteen pounds, when the father thought it would look better. There have been baby cards containing a biography of the parents, a dozen branches of the genealogical tree, and sometimes where the father worked and how much salary he received. But all this is regarded as superfluous nowadays. It simplifies the composition of the inscription and saves printer's ink.

Hints About Jewelry.

One of the newest hair ornaments is a bird set on a flexible mount and which sways with every movement of the wearer. Another is an exact imitation of the tail of a lyre bird. A lovely necklace of three rows of pearls is caught together at intervals with swallows incrustated with diamonds. In their beaks they hold pear-shaped pearls and their eyes are of rubies. A bracelet for a lady bicyclist consists of a curb chain, in the middle of which is a powerful whistle set with the nozzle upward, so that the wearer is enabled to use it without detaching the chain from the wrist. These are made in gold and silver.

The Ruling Passion.

The latest effort of the modiste is known as the "speaking" gown, but as far as can be learned the name does not imply either hidden mechanism or any fresh achievement on the part of the magician. The prosaic truth, stated in prosaic English, reveals only the fact that the dressmaker who prepares her patron for the platform has a doubly difficult task. Women who make up audiences have not ceased, as yet, to indulge in criticisms concerning the costume of the lecturer; and, as the gown in question is liable to be under inspection for a considerable period of time, it behooves the artist to make it ideally perfect, that both it and she may endure the ordeal.

A Hint for the Laundry.

Never let the laundress, in her commendable desire to give a gloss to table linen, starch it. To produce a high, satiny polish on damask it should first be thoroughly dampened and then ironed with a heavy flatiron until it is absolutely dry. Tablecloths and napkins should never leave the ironing board in a limp condition. If they are at all moist, they will not only look dull and lustreless in the beginning, but they will soon lose the shape and firmness without which they are untidy and slovenly looking, says an exchange.

For Summer Freckles.

A preparation for summer freckles, recommended by a celebrated physician, follows: Borax, 15 grains; lemon juice, 1 oz.; sugar candy, 1/2 dr. Mix the powders with the juice and let them stand in the bottle, shaking occasionally until quite dissolved. Touch the spots with this lotion.

Plowed Up a $1,200 Cent. J. D. Thurber, of East Aurora, N. Y., recently purchased for 50 cents a cent bearing the date of 1804 from a farmer near this village, who had plowed up the coin. He wrote to a Boston collecting firm to ascertain its value, and received a reply a few days ago stating that it was worth $1,200 if in a good state of preservation. There is but one other such coin known to be in existence. On one side is a head, with the word "Liberty" in the margin over it, and under it is the date 1804.

The remarkable number of cures of gout and rheumatism which have followed the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, point conclusively to the fact that this remedy comes nearer being the specific for complaints of this nature than any other medicine in pharmacy.

Unconscious Humor.

It is not always safe to resort to set phrases when wishing to compliment. A story is told of a certain lawyer, extremely studious, but in conversation notoriously dull, who was showing off his newly built house. The bookworm prided himself especially on a sanctum he had contrived for his own use, so secluded from the rest of the building that he could pour over his books in private, quite secure from disturbance. "And this is capital," exclaimed the visitor with unconscious irony. "You can read and study here all day, and no human being be one bit the wiser."
