How Grant Was Named Ulysses.

The story was curious. As related by the father afterward, it appeared that the common difficulty of choosing a name for the babe arose, says Hamlin Garland in McClure's Magazine. Multitudes of suggestions only confused the young parents the more, until at last it was proposed to cast the names into a hat.

mother favored Albert, in honor of Albert Gallatin. Grandfather Simpson voted for Hiram, because he considered it a handsome name. The drawing resulted in two names, Hiram and Ulysses.

" Ulysses," it is said, was cast into the hat by Grandmother Simpson, who had been reading a translation of Fenelon's " Telemachus," and had been much impressed by the discription of Ulysses given by Mentor to Telemachus.

Ring Giving In Spain.

It is a dangerous thing for a Spanish lover to present a lady with a ring unless he desires soon to marry her. The Spanish courts have, over and over again, held that such a present was the same as a betrothal, and that a ring which had been presented by a man is sufficient evidence of an engagement having existed between them.

Spanish brides have a deep superstition against removing the wedding ring from the finger after it has once been placed there. The only occasion upon which they can be induced to do this is when guests at the wedding feast desire to pass pieces of the wedding cake nine times through the ring. These pieces of cake are afterward taken home to be put under pillows, and the young girl who does this is supposed to dream of her future husband .- Philadelphia Times.

Plucking Fowls.

Plucking fowls may be easily and quickly accomplished in this way : As soon as the bird is dead immerse it in a pail of very hot water, the water to cover all the teathers. One minute is usually long enough to keep the fowl under hot water. Too long soaking is liable to discolor the skin. After this hot bath the feathers are so loosened that they can be almost rubbed off. The bird is then rinsed in cold water and wiped with a soft cloth. It should then be put into a cotton bag kept for this purpose and hung in a cool place. When fowls

BEAR ADOPT A LITTLE GIRL

Little 4 year-old Helma Wesler wandered away from her home near Snow-shoe, Pa., Oct. 22 last, she was swallowed up by the wilderness of the Alleghany Mountains. A large searching party turned out but were unable to find her. Late in the afternoon one day last week four lumbermen found the child about a mile and a This was finally done. A romantic half from her home in the dense aunt suggested Theodore. The woods, playing happily with two hear woods, playing happily with two bear cubs. The men were taking Helma away when a 300 pound female bear dashed out from the underbrush. After a desperate struggle the beast was killed with axes. One of the mens' arm was terribly lacerated and

Lippincott's Magazine For February 1897.

The complete novel in the February issue of Lippincott's is " Under the Pacific," by Clarence Herbert New. It takes the reader to a part of the world he probably never heard of before, where two extremely enterprising Americans conduct a search for long-lost treasure under the most unusual circumstances.

The two "Old Friends " of whom Edith Brower writes were far apart in age, and one of them was musical ; in fact, music and friendship are the key-notes of the tale.

"Old Tom of Nantucket," celebrated by Joseph A. Altsheler, was an old man-o'-war's man in the hands of Algerine pirates, on whom he played a judicious and most Christian trick. M. S. Paden, in "A Forestry Idyl," gives a reminiscence of the great Chicago Fair.

" South Florida since the Freeze is another of R. G. Robinson's eminently fair-minded and instructive and stable. articles. Albert G. Evans handles a Doughty writes on " The Southern Side of the Industrial Question."

Emily Baily Stone supplies a second amusing paper on "Marrying in the Fifteenth Century. "A Vanished Civilization "-that of the Jesuits in South America-is described by Henry Granville.

"The Dignity and Humor of Signs" are discussed by Agnes Carr Sage, and "Gloves" by Elizabeth Ferguson Seat. Dr. Charles C. Abbott has a quaint essay on "Overdoing the Past."
