AWFUL EXPERIENCE WITH HEART DISEASE.—That Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart works like magic, and cures is proven by the testimony of Mr. L. J. Law, Toronto, Can. "I was so sorely troubled with heart disease that I was unable for 18 months to lie down in bed lest I smother. After taking one dose of Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure, I retired and slept soundly. I used one bottle and the trouble has not returned." Sold by C. A. Kleim.

LITERARY NOTES.

GIBSON'S NEW ENGLISH GIRL. Charles Dana Gibson, in illustrating a short story that narrates the romance of a Princess, for the March Ladies' Home Journal, has created what he regards as his typical English girl. She is said to be as distinctive and striking as his famous American girl, and while essentially different she is quite as interesting. The drawing will illustrate Robert C. V. Meyers' story, "The Morning After the Servia Got In."

OLGA NETHERSOLE TO WRITE. Olga Nethersole, the actress, has turned her attention to writing, and will give advice of a practical nature to "The Girl Who Aspires to Elocution." Her contribution will appear in an early issue of the Ladies' Home Journal.

NOVEL SHOWING OF EASTER HATS AND BONNETS. A novel method of presenting the newest and freshest Eastertide creations of Paris milliners has been adopted by the Ladies' Home Journal for March. In that magazine the new French hats and bonnets will be pictured as they are worn. This unique display is useful, therefore, in pointing out clearly not only Fashion's decree, but the styles in headdress best suited to several contrasted types and faces.

To restore gray hair to its natural color as in youth, cause it to grow abundant and strong, there is no better preparation than Hall's Hair Renewer.

A Printer's Philosophic Death.

Paid His Way Through Life and Wandered in Many Lands.

A letter left by J. F. Pearson, a printer who committed suicide last week by inhaling gas, was received at the coroner's office on Thursday. It contained the following: "To die or not to die is the question. I heard a minister say that what happened God permitted and what God permitted He destined. Hence the die being cast I die, being permitted.

"I am ready for Nature's rest. I've had my day, though, for a workingman having by my own earnings as a printer paid my passage always—never tramping it or beat my way—and traveled in Europe, Asia, Africa, New Zealand and well over America. "Thus I spent my money, and now, being without money, I may as well be out of the world. Sixty-four years old last June, always sober and saving but a rover from the word go."

Hood's Sarsaparilla is known to be an honest medicine, and it actually cures when all others fail. Take it now.

Single Standard

only is possible, whether as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantities, time or values; and

The... Philadelphia Record

after a career of nearly twenty years of uninterrupted growth is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A Perfect Newspaper.

To publish ALL THE NEWS promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elision or partisan bias; to discuss its significance with frankness, to keep AN OPEN EYE FOR PUBLIC ABUSES, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its DAILY EDITIONS of from 10 to 14 PAGES, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of ONE CENT—that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "THE RECORD."

The Pioneer

one cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still LEADS WHERE OTHERS FOLLOW.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation exceeding 160,000, and an average exceeding 120,000 copies for its Sunday editions, while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

The Daily Edition

of "The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3.00 per year or 25 cents per month.

The Daily and Sunday editions together, which will give its readers the best and freshest information of all that is going on in the world every day in the year including holidays, will be sent for $4.00 a year or 35 cents per month.
