WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, March 5th, 1897.

The inauguration of the millionaire's President was pulled off in a manner gorgeous enough to be in keeping with the cost of electing him, which is said to have exceeded $16,-000,000. Everything was conducted on the most lavish scale, from the personal escort from Cleveland, Ohio, with their black horses, for which $10,000, was spent, to the ten thousand electric lights of variegated colors used in illuminating the costly decorations for the inaugural ball in the big court of the Pension building. It was a millionaire's event from start to finish, and the talk of the millionaire's agent, otherwise known as King Hanna, indicates that it is to be a millionaire's administration, notwithstanding the platitudes of McKinley's inaugural address. Never before were there so many private railway cars in Washington at one time and never before was so much money spent at and upon an inauguration. It is very evident that the millionaire's expect McKinley's administration to bring them prosperity, what-ever it may do for the poor. When they invest their money they always expect, and they usually get, return in dollars and cents.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan, who spent two days in Washington this week, divided his time between conferences with leading democrats and social intercourse with his extensive circle of personal friends, but declined to remain for the inauguration of his successful rival, said to those who proffered him their support for that he was not thinking so much about the next Presidential campaign as about the condition of the people, between now and then. He also expressed his sincere regret that the promised "McKinley Prosperity" had not come to the country. It is a remarkable fact about Mr. Bryan that his hold upon Democrats has increased since his defeat, instead of diminishing, as is usual in the case of defeated candidates of all parties.

The silver men are not surprised at the failure of the Fifty fourth Congress to admit Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma as states, and they expect no better from the Fifty-fifth Congress as the edict has gone forth from the Republican bosses that none of the territories shall be admitted, because it is known that they would all send silver senators But the silver men expect to control the House that will be elected in November 1808, and as they will certainly retain control of the Senate, to have the territories all admitted to statehood before the opening of the campaign of 1900.

Cooking Small Fish.

Mrs. Rorer Tells How to Best Prepare Them for the Table.

In the March Ladies' Home Jourburg. nal Mrs. S. T. Rorer, in telling how to fry the small fish, quotes the old saying : "Small fish should swim twice of Bloomsburg. -once in water, and once in oil.' "Smelts, trout, whitebait, perch and catfish," she says, "are, perhaps, more palatable fried than broiled. Small fish may be stripped-that is, the intestines may be pushed out under the gills, so that the fish may retain their shape. Wash and dry, then dust with salt and pepper, dip in egg and roll in breadcrumbs, or they may be rolled in commeal. Have ready a goodis impure. sized pan with sufficient oil to cover. Put the fish in a frying basket, then into the oil at a temperature of 360° Fahrenheit, and cook for about minutes. Drain on brown paper and Where a small quantity of fat is used, and the fish cooked on one side and then turned and cooked on the other, the method is really not frying-it is sauteing ; the result is more indigestible than real frying. Catfish are frequently fried in this way without being dipped in crumbs. Sunfish may be rolled in flour or commeal and carefully fried in dripping, oil or lard. A mixture of dripping and lard makes better frying material than lard alone. A pure vegetable oil is freer from danger of disease germs than either. Never use butter for frying fish; it boils at a low temperature, consequently burns quickly: the buty-

THE "FAST" YOUNG MAN. The Duty of Fathers to Portray Him in What Has Occurred There Since Our His True Light.

In the March Ladies' Home Jour nal Edward W. Bok writes of the " fast " man, and the duties of fathers Henrie, since those published last to their daughters in placing him where he belongs and warning them against him. Mr. Bok believes that Byron Getkins of Catawissa, to if it is said of a man that "he has Miss Anna Driesbach of the same seen the world," in other words, is " fast," there is instantly a singular George S. Jones of Scranton, to glamour about him in the eyes of Miss Ella Henrie of Lime Ridge Pa. *C. O. Yeager of Cleveland town-ship, to Miss Anna S. Musner of the as were ever created. There is a scent of danger about such a man, and there are girls for whom danger, William Gable of Cleveland town ship, to Miss Caroline Weary of the even of this sort, has a singular fascination. "The girls know that these men are bad. But so long as they respect me and treat me as a lady H. Miller of Mifflin township, to Miss Jennie I. Smith of the same where's the harm ?' says the young woman when she is called to account I. J. Hess of Lime Ridge, to Miss for her company.

" As a matter of fact, the exact things which a man does to earn the reputation of being ' fast ' are neither known nor dreamed of by the girls for whom such a reputation has this Miss Jennie Parker of the same glamour. The trouble lies in the fact that our girls are brought up under a system which hesitates to call a spade by its right name. We are afraid of offending or of shocking certain fancied sensibilities, whereas, in reality, we make the greater mistake of making diamonds out of spades and Harry Townsend of Light Street, to Miss Minty O. Kuehn of Bloomsgiving our girls a wrong idea of actual things. * * It is all very well Frank V. Kistler of West Nantis to be tender in our regard for the coke, to Miss Gertrude Rhodomoyer feelings of our girls, but there is a limit, a point at which discretion becomes a crime. And that point has been reached when girls are allowed

When every mother or father, or person with should take a medicine which cures whom the duty may rest, classes the 'fast' man where he belongs, and portrays him in his true light, it will be is the best medicine for the blood ever better for our girls. Increasing Towing Power.

With a view to increase the speed of the tug, a system of magnetic adhesion has been devised by M. Bovet and has recently been tested on the Seine. It consists essentially in combining in the hauling pulley a magnet. the upper sides of the groove forming powerful pole pieces, which are short circuited when the chain engages in the groove. By this means the pull on the chain and therefore the speed of the boat are increased. One of the towing companies on the Seine is said to have adopted this system.---Detroit Free Press.
