

Tour to California via Pennsylvania Railroad.

In Southern California is found the realization of a dream of the ancient. Here are the "Golden Apples of the Hesperides," ripening beneath a sky more beautiful than that of Rome, and in a climate more perfect than that of Athens.

The last of the Pennsylvania Railroad tours to California will leave New York and Philadelphia March 27, stopping at Chicago, Omaha, Denver, Colorado Springs and the "Garden of the Gods," and Salt Lake City.

Apply to ticket agents, Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York, or Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, stating return route desired.

All For a Cent.

"I should give up housekeeping or family keeping, I believe," laughed a woman recently, "if it were not for the 'little penny store around the corner.'"

"And there is so much else to attract the coins that they are reconciled to the high class 'so little-for-a-cent' bonbons of the druggist. Twenty evenly cut squares of beautiful satiny paper in every color and tint for a penny!

To prevent the hardening of the subcutaneous tissues of the scalp and the obliteration of the hair follicles, which cause baldness, use Hall's Hair Renewer.

Old Virginia Taverns.

Here in Virginia we have some famous hostleries. The old Raleigh tavern at Williamsburg lives in romance and history. It must have been well kept, for contemporaneous writers speak of it so very respectfully.

The Eagle tavern was of later date and was a grander house than the other two. In it Lafayette was entertained in 1824.

Fire destroyed it early in the forties and from the city's need for another good hotel the Exchange arose.

The Exchange, the Ballard House, the Columbian Hotel, the Powhatan (Ford's) hotel, the Monumental (St. Claire) and the St. Charles and the Spotswood were all in operation here at one time.—Richmond Dispatch.

He Got the Information.

Peter Bunda, who has been married only two weeks, has left his wife. Bundy is a little man, and his wife weighs two hundred and forty pounds, and was the relic of the late Seth Potts.

"Last night I dreamed I was single, and as I walked through a well-lighted street I came to a shop where a sign in front advertised husbands for sale.

Thinking to console her, B. placed his arm lovingly around her, and asked: "And did you see any men like me there?"

"Oh, yes," she replied, "lots like you; they were tied up like asparagus, and sold for ten cents per bunch."

Bundy got up, and went to ask his lawyer if he had sufficient ground for a divorce.
