PEARLS OF THOUGHT.

Every man is a king in his own back vard

Every lie has other sins hiding be hind it.

The cornerstone of discontent is ingratitude.

If good resolutions were horses everybody would ride.

If we have to do a certain work, the best thing we can do is to best learn how to do it best.

The man who goes to Heaven on flowery beds of ease will not create any stir when he gets there. The man who sits down to wait for a golden opportunity to come along never has a comfortable seat.

If your son never learns anything from mistakes, it is hardly worth while to send him to college. No mother should suffer her daughter to go into life as Ignorant of its dangers as a lamb among wolves.

Every home ought to be made so much like Heaven that the children will not think of Heaven as being far you spoke." away.

If parents would be more careful about their walk before their children, their talk to them would have more weight.

The man who begins every day with praise and ends it with thanksgiving, will not backslide, because so much of this world's good seems to go to the godless .- Ram's Horn.

A Catastrophe-

The train was roaring along about forty miles an hour, and the conductor was busily punching tickets full of holes, when a little thin old man who sat in one of the corner seats plucked his sleeve.

" Mister conductor, you be sure and let me off at Speers Station. You see, this is the first I ever rode on steam cars, and I don't know anything 'bout them. You won't forget it, ch i

"All right, sir ; I won't forget." The old man brushed back a stray lock of hair and, straightening himself, gazed with increasing wonder at the flying landscape, every now and then exclaiming.

"Gracious !" " By gum !" etc. Suddenly there was a crash, and after a number of gymnastic moves that made him think of his school days, he found himself sitting on the grass of the embankment alongside the track.

Seeing another passenger sitting a short distance away, patiently supporting various parts of the splintered car across his legs, he inquired. " Is this Speers Crossing ?"

The passenger, who was a drummer, and not altogether new to such happenings, replied, with a smile, although in considerable pain. " No; this is catastrophe."

" Is that so, " he irritably exclaimed. "Now I know that conductor S. Olmstead, LeRoy, N. Y. would put me off at the wrong -Harper's Round Table.

It was about the same the next fight and worse than ever in the third. Men are not their better selves in battle, no matter how brave they may be. They do things and they say things that they could not be induced to do that they could not be induced to do or say in the ordinary walks of life. I Hummer, acting administrator of John D. The Snow Melting Ohinook.

In the northwestern states a peculiarly warm, dry wind, called the Chinook, which has a wonderful power of "eating up" snow, occasionally prevails, and a remarkable visitation of this wind occurred in Oregon and Washington last December. Prof. Ward, writing in Science, calls attention to the close resemblance between the Chinook winds of the Cascade and Rocky mountain regions and the celebrated toehn winds of the Alps. Both blow down from the mountain ranges, and both produce effects, in the sudden liquetaction of snow, that are almost marvelous. There is no mystery about them, although they require particular conditions of atmospheric pressure, combined with certain effects arising from the position of the mountains with respect to the isothermal lines, or lines of equal temperature.

An Arcadia.

Perched high among the Swiss Alps is the abode of a small and interesting community, the name of the place being Abland Schenen, which, being interpreted, signifies an out of the way locality. Its people have no standing army and therefore go to war. They have no fleet, being hundreds of miles from the sea in every direction. They have no political bosses or wire pullers, and consequently such elections as they have are pure. They have no doctors, and, as a rule, only die of old age, There is no news and no need of a newspaper, the post comes only once a week, there are no trades and there is little industry.

There is no shopkeeper, blacksmith, wheelwright or public baker, no notary, advocate or policeman. Once a week a cheap Jack comes, bringing them all the goods they want, and their herds, flocks and poultry yards supply them with the rest. Having little money, they require no bank, but they have a church, with a bell, which, besides its Sabbath summons, rings for births and fun'erals and festivals.

It is or was a New Andorra in its primitiveness, but with a run of tour. ists thither its Arcadian simplicities would vanish in a season.-New York Tribane.
