TAXING FOREIGNERS.
The Full Text of the Legislative Act, Few pieces of work done by the State Legislature, which has just adjourned, is of greater interest or importance than the act imposing a tax of 3 cents a day on all foreign-born, unnaturalized male persons over 21 years of age who are employed in Pennsylvania. The act went into effect Friday. The following is an exact copy of the act:— An act regulating the employment of foreign-born unnaturalized male persons over 21 years of age, and providing a tax on the employers of such persons, and prescribing a penalty for violation of the provisions of said act, and directing the manner of collecting the same, and providing that the amount of such tax may be deducted from the wages of persons affected by the provisions hereof.
Whereas, It is the duty of the Government to enact such laws as shall protect the citizen laborers of America against the laborers of foreign nations who are brought in direct competition with our own workmen in nearly all the different branches of employment.
And Whereas, Thousands of foreign laborers come to this State for the purpose of obtaining employment, without any intentions of becoming citizens, and who disclaim any allegiance to this State or nation, very few of whom ever pay any taxes for the maintenance of local, State or National Government, and are thus brought into unjust competition with the tax-paying American laborers, and greatly impair their welfare by depriving them of their employment, or preventing them from receiving fair compensation for their labor; therefore, Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., That all persons, firms, associations or corporations employing one or more foreign-born unnaturalized male persons over 21 years of age within this Commonwealth shall be and are hereby taxed at the rate of 3 cents per day for each day each of such foreign-born unnaturalized male persons may be employed, which tax shall be paid into the respective county treasuries: one-half of which tax to be distributed among the respective school districts of each county, in proportion to the number of schools in said districts, the other half of said tax shall be used by the proper county authorities for defraying the general expenses of county government.
Section 2. That it shall be the duty of all persons, firms, associations and corporations in this Commonwealth to ascertain whether any of their employees are foreign-born un-naturalized male persons over 21 years of age, and if there be any such to keep a true and correct record of the number of such persons employed, their names, places of birth, together with the exact number of days such persons are employed during each month, which record shall be kept and be subject to examination by the County Commissioners, or any one designated by them for that purpose.

further duty of such persons, firms, associations and corporations who may give employment to such foreign-born unnaturalized male persons to make a quarterly report, under oath, on the first day of January, April, July and October, in each year, to the County Commissioners of the county in which employment is given, which report shall contain a detailed statement of the number of such persons employed during the quarter immediately preceding the day on which the report herein provided for is to be made, together with the names, birthplace, and the exact number of days, each of such persons shall have been so employed during such preceding quarter, which report shall be accompanied with the amount of the tax money due the proper county as provided by the first section of this act: Provided, That in case of associations or corporations the duty of keeping the records, making the reports, and paying the tax as provided in this act shall devolve upon the president and vice-president, secretary, treasurer, managers, members of the board of directors, or other persons connected with the management thereof.
Section 4. Any person whose duty it is to keep the record of employment of such foreign-born unnaturalized male persons, or to make the reports and pay the tax as provided in this act, who shall fail to comply strictly with its provisions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined for each offense not less than $200, nor more than $1000, at the discretion of the court before which conviction shall be had, which fine is hereby made payable to the respective County Treasurers. It shall be the duty of the District Attorney of the respective counties to proceed against any person violating any provisions of this act, and to collect any fines which may be imposed, in the same manner as other debts are now collectable by law.
Section 5. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to furnish blanks to all persons, firms, associations, or corporations employing two or more foreign-born unnaturalized male persons over twenty-one years of age, free of cost, to make out quarterly returns, and the said persons, firms, associations, or corporations (shall be paid) a reasonable compensation for rendering such reports. This act to take effect on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven: Provided, That all persons, firms, associations, and corporations shall have the right to deduct the amount of the tax provided for in this act from the wages of any and all employees, for the use of the proper county and school district as aforesaid.

Altgeld Talks to 2000.
Ex-Governor John P. Altgeld of Illinois addressed over 2000 people at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn, on Monday. The meeting was held under the auspices of King's County Democratic League. He was loudly cheered, and at the mention of Bryan's name the applause was deafening.
Among other things he said:
"To-day the most wonderful nation on earth is in distress. Its children are suffering, and its foundation stones are slipping away. Why? All progress and growth has come from below, evolution works from the bottom and never from the top. In society and in government there is constantly forming at the top a crust which tends to repress all there is beneath. Established wrongs and legalized justice are always imbedded in this crust.
Reform is simply an effort to improve a condition or right a wrong, and every reform carried out had to force its way through this crust."
"In Illinois we have just had a carnival of official debauchery such as the world has rarely seen. The living have been robbed; the unborn have been defrauded of their rights and saddled with unjust burdens; public property, privileges and franchises, worth untold millions, have been given to monopolies; laws striking down liberty have been passed, and the people are helpless."
"Had corruption burned fifty cities a free people would have rebuilt them in ten years, but the destruction of institutions blunts the hopes of man and must increase the sorrows of the world."
"The people see the black flag of hunger floating over some of the richest sections of God's earth, and they are crying for justice. The Benedict Arnold of 1780 sleeps on English soil.
Let the Benedict Arnolds of this age make their graves beside him."

Democratic State Delegates Chosen.
The Democrats of the Third Legislative District at Wilkesbarre on Tuesday elected W. H. Loughrey, Dr. D. F. Smith and J. H. Oplinger delegates to the State Convention.
State Chairman Garman was present, and the Chicago platform was indorsed.

The Difference.
As a sort of companion, or rather opposition query to "What is the difference between a Cleveland panic and a McKinley boom?" it is now asked "What is the difference between a 'calamity howl' in 1892-3 and a 'calamity howl' in 1897."
There is a very big difference. In 1892-3 there was a pretty good share of business activity and commercial prosperity in this country. But it was about to be turned over to Democratic management with the probability of the passage of a Democratic low tariff.
This was not altogether satisfactory to those statesmen who had been endeavoring to scare the people into the belief that Democratic success at the polls meant commercial disaster. They decided to destroy confidence and kill industry and arraign the Democratic party as the murderer. They did this.
They began the calamity howling against live industries and continued it four years.
When prosperity had vanished they prepared for the new presidential campaign and succeeded in electing their candidate. Now, while trying to pass a tariff quite as unjust and harsh as the McKinley law, they misrepresent the true condition of affairs, chronicle untruthful rumors and monthly firing of furnaces as great industrial revivals due to the influence and effect of the new bill. Any honest effort to show the true condition of industry is, by the aforesaid statesmen, labeled a "calamity howl." To refrain from telling untruths about business conditions and thus prevent the unsuspecting from investing money in precarious enterprises is by them denominated "pessimism."
That is the difference between the "calamity howls." The first was based on untruth; the second is a publication of the truth.—Ex.

HINTS ABOUT MOURNING.
To be in good taste deep mourning demands lustreless materials and garnitures.
Diamonds and jewelry are not permissible with first mourning. Some women do it, but it is not in good taste.
Crape, of course, always indicates the heaviest mourning, and more or less of this tends to make your first gown handsome.
Lustreless jet and lustreless cord passerouterie jackets and girdles all come especially for mourning wear.
There need be no difference in the fashion of making; many of the deepest mourning gowns have exact reproductions of the short jackets, basque bodices, guimps effects, inserted vests, bretelles, revers and collarettes seen on the collared gowns.
Except for a widow white worn over black or with black garnitures is considered quite proper for warm weather mourning.
The widow's veil is the longest ever worn and is always accompanied by the crepe lisse "widow's cap" in the front of the bonnet. Unless for a husband or a mother, when the wearer is of middle age, the short veil with crepe folds at the edge is much more worn of late years.
For still another stage for just before putting on colors lovely twills in gray, gray and white and mauve and white come. A gray grenadine seen lately, striped with violet made up over violet moire, was exquisite. A white Swiss dotted in black over violet taffeta would be pretty and in keeping.

Nerves
Are the Messengers of Sense—the Telegraph System of the human body.
Nerves extend from the brain to every part of the body and reach every organ.
Nerves are like fire—good servants but hard masters.
Nerves are fed by the blood and are therefore like it in character.
Nerves will be weak and exhausted if the blood is thin, pale and impure.
Nerves will surely be strong and steady if the blood is rich, red and vigorous.
Nerves find a true friend in Hood's Sarsaparilla because it makes rich, red blood, do their work naturally and well, the brain is unclouded, there are no neuralgic pains, appetite and digestion are good, when you take
