MUST PAY MEROANTILE TAX.

Judge Mitchell Dismisses the Appeal of Swift & Co. in Important Case.

Judge John I. Mitchell on Monday at Wellsboro handed down an opinion in the case of the appeal of Swift & Co. of Blossburg, against the mercantile tax of $30 imposed upon them by the commonwealth. He dismissed the appeal and held that they must pay the tax.

Some forty witnesses were sworn in the case, about thirty in behalf of the commonwealth. Much interest was manifested in the question involved in this appeal, which is raised for the first time in this state, for if the commonwealth succeeds in maintaining its tax upon this company, the Armour, Swift and similar companies throughout the state will be subject to the tax, and the commonwealth will derive an income from these companies of about $10,000. The case will undoubtedly be carried to the Supreme Court.

The Blossburg house is a branch of the Chicago corporation of Swift & Co. and it sells not only the prepared meats of cattle, sheep and hogs and the manufactured products of the same as shipped from western houses, but also the product of other concerns.

It was shown by the evidence of the manager that the company does a business at its Blossburg house of between $50,000 and $60,000 each year; that besides selling meat it sells butter, cheese, eggs, chickens, prepared mince meat, soap powder, etc., that the house sends an agent around the country and through Potter and Lycoming counties soliciting orders for the goods and then sends a man and team around delivering the goods.

Do You Use It?

It's the best thing for the hair under all circumstances. Just as no man by taking thought can add an inch to his stature, so no preparation can make hair. The utmost that can be done is to promote conditions favorable to growth. This is done by Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, cleanses the scalp, nourishes the soil in which the hair grows, and, just as a desert will blossom under rain, so bald heads grow hair, when the roots are nourished. But the roots must be there. If you wish your hair to retain its normal color, or if you wish to restore the lost tint of gray or faded hair use Ayer's Hair Vigor.

General Harrison's Book. The Story Why Mr. Bok Released All Claims to Royalty.

The Indianapolis Journal prints this interesting story concerning President Harrison's forthcoming book; General Harrison has just completed the revision of his articles which have appeared in The Ladies' Home Journal, making extended notes and additions to them. There is a little story in connection with both articles and publication. When the arrangement for the articles was made with General Harrison by Edward W. Bok, editor of The Ladies' Home Journal, the General was paid for them, with the understanding that when they were put into book form the magazine was to share the royalties accruing therefrom. Mr. Bok, however, of his own accord, generously released General Harrison from paying him any royalty, for the reason, as he states, that by the publication of the articles by General Harrison the subscription list of his magazine was enlarged many thousands. The profits to The Ladies' Home Journal were more than the publishers anticipated, and in view of this Mr. Bok asks nothing further. General Harrison placed the disposition of his book in Mr. Bok's hands. The best offer came to the editor from the Scribners, and to them Mr. Bok gave the book for his distinguished contributor. General Harrison's revision of the book has just been completed, and the volume will appear in the autumn.
