THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1897.

Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1888.

BRIEF MENTION.

About People You Know.

Prof. C. H. Albert, of the Normal School, is in Reading this week.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Hemmingway spent last week in Philadelphia.

W. H. Yetter has gone to a hospital, in Philadelphia, for medical treatment.

J. Boyd McKelvey started on Monday for Princeton, Ky., where he will attend school.

Arthur A. Clark and family, of Harrisburg, have been visiting their relatives here the past two weeks.

Miss Dora Laubach left on Sunday for Andalusia, near Philadelphia, where she will teach a nine-month's term of school.

Chas. P. Elwell has resigned the position of organist at the Episcopal Church, and will spend the coming year in Boston.

J. J. Kramer, of Jerseytown, gave this office a pleasant call on Monday. He was on his way to Hazleton, where he has accepted a position with a large firm.

Rev. John F. Steen, rector of the Church of the Advocate (Memorial), New York City, passed through town on Tuesday on his way to Cole's Creek, where he will spend a few weeks with Rev. Mr. Rockwell, rector of St. Gabriel's.

The Berks county fair will be held at Reading, September 7 to 10.

The Bloomsburg Banking Company will pay depositors fifty cents on the dollar next week.

Mrs. John Drew, the noted actress, died in New York on Tuesday, at an advanced age.

The oyster season opened on Wednesday. They are said to be in fine condition, with the prospect of a big crop.

Rev. McLinn, of the Lutheran church and Rev. Brandt of the Reformed church exchanged pulpits on Sunday evening.

Members of the Shamokin Bicycle Club made a century run on Sunday last. The route was to Shickshinny and return. Warren Eyer of town and George Low of Lime Ridge, made the trip in the allotted time. G. A. Clark started but after riding about sixty miles, broke his wheel and had to drop out.

Everybody Says So.
Casorets Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medicinal discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, acts gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispels colds, cures headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. A MORNING TONIC for your brains—a vigorous brushing of the head with the Rishton brush. Bristles not too hard, not too soft—the kind you like. Its price is only 75c. Combs, powders, perfumes, mirrors, tooth powders and all toilet requisites. You can put on finishing touches with their aid—for little cash. Our medicines have wings that fly with pain to parts unknown. Test their power when you are sick, and then you'll thank us for relief.

W. S. RISHTON,
Opposite P. O. Pharmacist.

Mrs. M. K. Geisinger has been appointed post mistress at Espy.

E. C. Bundy is one of the regular trucksters who is always in market with a fine lot of vegetables. His goods are right and his prices are as low as any.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others it will also do for you. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all blood diseases.

The Bloomsburg Fair will be held October 13, 14, 15 and 16. The Montour Agricultural Society will hold their annual fair the week after beginning on the 20th.

Franklin Schell of Ringtown, was a recent visitor to Bloomsburg on business. He has been a reader of this paper for more than twenty years, and never fails to give us a pleasant call when in town.

William Worthington left town Tuesday for Easton where he will enter Lafayette College. He has been the main stay of the Normal foot ball team for the past several seasons, and his absence will weaken that organization.

Bloomsburg has never had a winning league ball team, and the position held by the locals during the last two weeks was so unnatural, that the flunk of this week had to come in order to put them nearer their favorite position—last place.

Will the Womans' Christian Temperance Union of Columbia County please observe Friday, the 3rd of September as a day of earnest prayer for the Convention at Light Street the 7th and 8th that Divine guidance may be given in all its deliberations, especially for the Holy Spirit upon its officers.

Mr. A. C. Achenbach of Orange, brought into our office on Saturday a bunch of grass about three and a half feet tall, which he says is the same as that which grows on the prairies of Kansas. He found this near the iron bridge above Orangeville, and it grows in clumps in other places in that section.

The gutters on both sides of Third street at the new M. E. Church have been clobbered by the town, and the ground in front of the church has been soddied by voluntary labor of members of the church, all of which goes to greatly improve the appearance of the surroundings of the new structure.

Mrs. Elizabeth Russell, wife of L. Broom Belfield of Philadelphia, died at Maplewood, New Hampshire, on August 7th, whither she had gone hoping to find renewed health and strength. She was the mother of Mrs. Samuel Wigfall of this town. Many friends made during her visits here, have learned with deep sorrow of her death.

C. L. Rupert is a busy man as well as a useful one in Bloomsburg. During market season he is always on hand with a full line of vegetables, and during the remainder of the year he supplies reasonable articles at your door. He also handles fresh fish, and supplies his customers with them every Friday all through the summer months.

The fire alarm was sounded on Saturday morning and the streets were soon thronged with an excited crowd. A small blaze on the roof of the Hess Iron Manufacturing Company's foundry was the cause of the excitement, but it was extinguished before the fire companies reached the scene. A spark from a passing locomotive on the D. L. & W. Railroad ignited the fire.

Henry Pursel has a broken carriage as the result of leaving his horse stand alone on East street yesterday about noon. The animal became frightened at the sound of a drum with which two small boys were advertising the ball games, and started down the street on the pavement. The runaway was stopped at the foot of the street. Nobody was hurt. Several people were on the pavement, but they lost no time getting out of the way.

BISHOP FOWLER'S GREAT LECTURE.

The new Methodist Episcopal Church, of Bloomsburg, Pa., will be dedicated Sunday, Sept. 19, 1897. It will be a great event in the history of the town. On Monday evening, Sept. 20, Bishop Charles H. Fowler will deliver his great lecture on "Abraham Lincoln." This is certainly one of the very best and most remarkable lectures ever delivered in Bloomsburg. There will be a large audience to hear it, many out of town having already indicated their purpose to be present. Newspaper comment seems hardly necessary, but here is what the Minneapolis Times has to say:—
"Bishop Fowler is the recognized leader of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and stands second to none as an orator in the estimation of the American people. He has frequently distinguished himself on great national occasions by his superb efforts, but it is safe to say that his lecture on 'Abraham Lincoln,' in its lofty thought, historic data, diplomatic insight, burning patriotism, sparkling wit, vivid word painting, classic diction and captivating eloquence is the great masterpiece of his life. It is enough to immortalize him. Had he never been known until the production of this prose poem, his genius would live in American literature, and his name go down to imperishable fame."
It will be a rare treat to hear Bishop Fowler's great lecture in the new Methodist Church on Monday evening, Sept. 20, 1897.

BISHOP RULISON'S DEATH.

IT OCCURS AT MANHEIM, WHITHER HE HAD GONE FOR HIS HEALTH.

The Right Rev. Nelson Somerville Rulison, D. D., bishop of central Pennsylvania, died Wednesday morning after a brief illness, at Manheim, Germany. Bishop Rulison had been indisposed for several months and by the action and desire of the diocesan convention, held in June last, he was given leave of absence for six months for restoration to health. Accompanied by one of his daughters, he sailed for Europe on July 27, and has been under treatment at Manheim. The dead bishop was born at Cart-hage, N. Y., in 1843. He graduated at the General seminary in 1866, and held rectorships at Morris, N. Y.; Jersey City and Cleveland. In 1885, he was elected assistant bishop of the central Pennsylvania diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church and four years later became bishop in full charge of the diocese. The church of the Nativity, in South Bethlehem, was made his pro-cathedral a few years ago, when the bishop took up his episcopal residence there. Bishop Rulison was president of boards of trustees of Lehigh university and a member of the executive committee of the university and of the library committee. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. C. P. Coleman, Mrs. Rev. Dr. Elwood Worcester, of Philadelphia; Miss C. Constance Rulison, a student at Bryn Mawr college, and Miss Edith Rulison. His body will be brought to this country for interment.

Beautiful eyes grow dull and dim
As the swift years steal away.
Beautiful, willowy forms so slim
Lose fairness with every day.
But she still is queen and hath charms to spare
Who wears youth's coronal—beautiful hair.

Preserve Your Hair

and you preserve your youth. "A woman is as old as she looks," says the world. No woman looks as old as she is if her hair has preserved its normal beauty. You can keep hair from falling out, restoring its normal color, or restore the normal color to gray or faded hair, by the use of
