W. E. Fisher, spent Sunday with friends at Hazleton. He says that city presented a lively scene on Sunday by reason of the shooting which occurred there on Friday. The streets were crowded from early morning till late at night.

The mistake the new advertiser most frequently makes is to believe that he is wasting space when he does not fill it up full to the limit that it allows. Such a procedure gives the announcement a crowded appearance which repels favorable attention, and often makes an otherwise excellent advertisement unproductive simply because people will not read it.

Kersey Sharpless, an old and highly respected resident of Catawissa, died at his home in that place at an early hour Saturday morning. He is survived by five children. The deceased was a brother of Joseph Sharpless of this town, and was eighty years of age. Funeral services were held at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

Tax Collector J. K. Bittenbender having been required to proceed and collect the taxes for 1895 and 1896, immediately, has commenced making his levy and distress. He sends a written notice to all in arrears giving 30 days to get the money ready, and at the expiration of the 30 days makes his levy as announced. He will probably be kept busy making sales for the next month or more, unless the taxes are paid promptly.

"A Photograph of Mother" a new song, now being published will be one of the catchiest pieces of the day. It will have a pretty melody and will be presented in handsome shape, with a beautiful half-tone cut on the title page. The words and music are by D. J. Tasker, author of "Gone Forever," which is in the repertoire of prominent vocalists all over the country. Don't fail to purchase a copy of "A Photograph of Mother."

BASE BALL.

Our boys went to Sunbury last Friday, expecting to play ball, that is play nine men, but were disappointed as the team of that place had engaged the services of another man who occupied the position behind the catcher, and he played a better game for Sunbury than any other man on the team. His eyesight was very bad, and some of his decisions, so yellow that many of the occupants of the grand stand left stand disgusted.

In the eleventh inning, with the score 7 to 6 in our favor, and two of the Sunbury men out, the umpire called the third man out after he had been caught trying to steal third base. This ended the game, but a mob crowded around the umpire, and warned him that unless he changed his decision, he would be punched. This threat had the desired effect, and the decision was reversed. Manager Mercer who had accompanied the boys, would not allow his team to play after that, and he called his men from the field, whereupon umpire Ahern awarded the game to Sunbury 9 to 0.

Milton defeated the locals on Saturday by a score of 5 to 0. Both teams played good ball, but the visitors were more fortunate in hitting the ball when hits meant runs. Score:

R. H. E. Bloomsburg 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 5 3 Milton 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 1 1 5 7 2 Batteries, Conn and Patchen; Walker and Hutchinson. Umpire Fortney.

Bloomsburg settled Sunbury's chances of winning the Central League pennant at Athletic Park on Monday, by defeating them in one of the nicest played games of the season. A pleasing feature of the contest was the quiet way in which the down river aggregation carried themselves. There was no kicking of anybody. Both pitchers were at their best and base hits were few and far between. Smith is just beginning to get acclimated to Bloomsburg climate, and is developing into a twirler of the first water. We owe Monday's victory to his right arm. Score:

R. H. E. Bloomsburg 2 2 1 0 0 1 0 0 6 8 3 Sunbury 0 0 2 1 0 0 2 0 0 5 6 2 Batteries, Smith and Patchen; Durbanther and Schrecongost. Umpire, Fortney.

The Blue Birds kept up their winning streak by administering another crushing defeat to the Sunbury's on Tuesday. Tommy Lipp got it in his head that he could stop our march upward but it was another case of "left," and before the match was over the locals had 16 safe hits to their credit. Consequently the visitors went home feeling very blue. They will be here again Saturday, which is the last scheduled game and the home team will strain every nerve, to finish like a dog's bark, is a sign that there is something foreign around which shouldn't be there. You can quiet the noise, but the danger may be there just the same. SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil is not a cough specific; it does not merely allay the symptoms but it does give such strength to the body that it is able to throw off the disease.

You know the old proverb of "the ounce of prevention?" Don't neglect your cough. A book which will tell you more on the subject sent free on request.

Your druggist keeps Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil. Put up in 50 cts. and $1.00 sizes.

At a recent meeting of the Agricultural Society it was decided to rebuild that part of the large exhibition building on the fair ground, which was so badly damaged by the cyclone which visited this section last September. The contract for doing the work has been awarded to Welliver & Workheiser.

The Tabernacle on Market Street, which has been used by the Methodists as a place of worship, during the building of their new church, and which was recently purchased by the Leader Company was last week, rented for a like purpose to the Christian denomination. Rev. J. W. McNamara, of Littleton, N. C., will be the pastor.

We have received a marked copy of the "Evening Sentinel," a paper published at South Norwalk, Conn., containing an announcement of the opening of Ira S. Brown's Business College and School of Shortland. The opening took place last week. Mr. Brown formerly resided in Bloomsburg and was principal of the Third street school. Anna Brockway is an instructor in the institution.

County Officers Arrested.

As a result of the Taxpayers' Association warrants have been sworn out against County Commissioners Rentz and Martin and Ex-Commissioner Allen; County Controller Severn and Ex-Commissioners' Clerk Connell, all of Schuylkill county, charging them with being parties to the misappropriation of $10,000 of county funds. This large sum, it is said, never reached the Treasury after county notes had been discounted at one of the local banks.

The Commissioners gave bail in the sum of $3000 each. Connell could not be found in his Pottsville house.

Tuesday afternoon Commissioners Rentz and Martin swore out a warrant against Ex-Clerk Connell and service was sent to the New Jersey authorities, in which state he was last known to be temporarily staying.
