

QUEER SECT IN NEW YORK.

Do Daily Work and Conduct Worship on their Knees. What are known as the "knee-benders" are a religious sect, the members of which are scattered along the eastern shore of Seneca lake, New York.

Many of the leading newspapers of Pennsylvania, both Democratic and Republican, are calling upon the people to demand the repeal of the Baker Ballot law by the next Legislature on the ground that it is not what the people want and instead of aiding the voter in exercising his right of suffrage as becomes a free born American citizen, causes him additional vexation and in many places puts him more completely in the power of designing politicians.—Ev.

A MAGICAL LIFE-SAVER. The most pronounced symptoms of heart disease are palpitation or fluttering of the heart, shortness of breath, weak or irregular pulse, sweating spells at night, pains in region of heart.

Queer Footwear. The Portuguese shoe to-day has a wooden sole and heel with a vamp made of patent leather, fancifully showing the flesh sides of the skin.

CAMERAS.

At a merely nominal price, the NEW YORK LEDGER is making one of the most remarkable Camera offers of the season. They are sending out an immense number of cameras to all parts of the United States.

FIFTY CENTS

... of the Camera, with complete outfit for photographing and developing. Send to-day for full particulars regarding this remarkable offer, as it is extremely limited.

English Questions in Arithmetic. They must have a pretty high standard of mathematics at Winchester. Here are one or two questions from the arithmetic paper set the other day at a scholarship examination for boys under thirteen:

Telegraph poles are sixty-six yards apart. For how many minutes must a person traveling in a train count poles in order that the number of poles counted may be equal to the number of miles per hour that the train is running?

A man leaves a one-third of his property to his wife and two-thirds to his unborn child if a boy, but two-thirds to his wife and one-third to the child if a girl. The man dies and twins are born—a boy and a girl. How ought the property to be divided?

Seven families occupy the different flats of a seven storied house, and they have to pay $9.25 per annum to keep the common staircase clean. How should this expense be divided between them?

Find the age at which the mathematician, Diophantus of Alexandria, died, from his epitaph which was to the following effect: "Diophantus passed one-sixth of his life in childhood, one-twelfth in youth and one-seventh more as a bachelor; five years after his marriage was born a son who died four years before his father, at half the age his father finally reached."

The Dunkards. When the Dunkards, religious body of Indiana, recently made a visit to a Kansas town, a telegram was sent appraising the mayor of the excursion. It read: "Three carloads of dunkards will arrive in the morning. Meet them at the depot and give a warm reception."
