ROHRBACH GOT LEFT. Congressman Kulp's Candidate Turned Down For Collector.

MAJOR PENMAN WAS NAMED.

Lloyd T. Rohrbach of Sunbury, the candidate whom Congressman Kulp expected to land in the office of Internal Revenue Collector for this district, has been turned down and it looks very much as if Senator Quay was a party to it.

The following special sent out from Washington appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer. "Senators Quay and Penrose were early visitors at the White House Thursday and the nomination of Messrs. Leonard and Penman followed as a result of their talk with the President.

"It was Senator Quay's original intention to give the collectorship to Mr. Leonard and the Marshalship to Major Penman, but Congressman Connell induced the Senator to reverse this program. Mr. Connell told the Senator that Major Penman was unwilling to leave Scranton, where he is engaged in the law business. Senator Quay consulted with ex-Congressman Leonard who readily agreed to the change."

Iron and Steel Outlook.

First Week of the New Year Witnesses a Rising Market.

The American Manufacturer in its weekly iron and steel trade review on Saturday says:

"The iron and steel market in the principal centres starts the new year fairly well. The Eastern market has a better tone than it has had for some weeks past, as New York reports business better and prices steadier. The same centre reports large deliveries of structural material that have been deferred for some time.

"At Philadelphia pig iron purchases are light, but there are big orders pending. The Bessemer billet market is much stronger, and there are good orders for bars. The year opens well at Chicago, although the season for stock-taking makes trade rather slow at present. The Western pig iron market was affected to some extent by the weakening of Southern irons, as some of the smaller producers cut prices about 50 cents per ton. However, the demand is good.

"It is stated that the rod output has been sold up to March. The trade in bars is fairly good, but Western mills are shading prices somewhat. At Cincinnati, also, Southern pig iron has weakened, although the general trade at that point is fairly good. There is considerable activity in bars, and large plate and tank orders are expected soon. The Louisville market is reported as being rather dull. In the Wheeling district trade remains about as it was, and at Cleveland the pig iron trade is in a waiting condition, although there is considerable inquiry for Bessemer pig.

"In Pittsburg the new year opens favorably. There has been no change in prices, except in a few lines, and these have been in the way of advances; but the entire situation is good, and there is every indication that an active buying movement may set in at any time."

Wanted Only Democrats.

A remarkable will is being contested in the courts of Bradford county. Geo. N. Wilcox left each of his grandsons $1000 on condition that they support the Democratic party during life. Failing, the money was left to the granddaughters providing they married loyal Democrats. The will is being contested on the ground that the legacies are a temptation or bribe for the advocacy of a particular political creed contrary to the genius of our Government and institutions.

Bad Stomachs Must Go.

A Swiss doctor has demonstrated that the stomach is a dispensable part of man. He removed the stomach of a woman and she is now pretty well, thank you, much better than she has been for years and steadily advancing to complete health.

The tyranny of the stomach is at an end. If the stomach offends it may be plucked out and the human system go on as if nothing had happened. "If you have a craving for strong drink the gold cure is no longer the efficacious remedy. Just step into a doctor's office and have your stomach removed while you wait. It was doubtless a surprise to the stomach to discover that it was not so warm. It had played the autocrat so long that it never imagined that it was a little thing which could be set aside without serious inconvenience. For uncounted ages it has played the czar and now, with a few strokes of a surgeon's knife, it is deposed from importance and consigned to rank with the inconsiderable parts of the human body. This emancipation from stomachic despotism is due largely to chance.

This Swiss doctor slashed open a woman in adventurous search of what was the matter with her. He found that a tumor had set itself up in business in the stomach. He was a surgeon disposed to see what would happen. He promptly removed the affected organ and established a coupling which proved that the stomach had over-rated its consequence. The patient not only lives but is able to do her own housework, a fact which completes the humiliation of the stomach and proves again that pride must have a fall. The stomach has overdone the thing. Its directorship is overthrown. It is no longer necessary but a luxury, so to speak. It is not essential to life. We need no longer submit to it, but merely tolerate it. So long as it behaves itself it may have a place in our midsts, but as soon as it misbehaves it is exposed to banishment. If the stomach gets cocky, out with it. The Swiss doctor has delivered the race.

Sleepless Nights

Run Down in Health—Constant Pains in Arms and Shoulders—A Valuable Gift—Health, Appetite and Sleep—Pains are Gone.

"I was run down in health and could hardly keep on my feet. The least exertion would cause palpitation and I would feel as though I was being smothered. My nights were sleepless and I felt worse in the morning than when I retired. My liver was out of order and I had constant pains in my arms and shoulders and numbness in my limbs. I was sometimes dizzy and would fall. My son gave me two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and they proved of more value than a very costly gift. In a short time after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I had a good appetite, sleep came back to me and the pains all left me." MRS. ANNIE E. STETTER, 621 Marietta Ave., Lancaster, Pa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Best—In fact the One True Blood Purifier. Sold by all druggists. Price $1, six for $5.

The great struggle for United States Senator from Ohio is over and Mark Hanna won it. He received 17 votes in the Senate and 56 in the house for the short term, and was elected for the long term by the same vote 73 on joint ballot against 70 for McKisson. The opposition made a strong fight and had it not been that Hanna was backed by the administration would undoubtedly have won.

When the observation is made that worry kills, it is often a matter of wonder as to the actual manner in which death is pronounced by it. Modern science has brought to light nothing more curiously interesting than the fact that worry will most certainly kill, and the way in which it kills is stated to be that worry injures beyond repair certain cells of the brain. The brain being the nutritive centre of the body, the other organs become gradually injured, and when some disease of these organs or combination of them arises, death finally ensues. Occasional worry of the system the brain can cope with, but the iteration and reiteration of one idea of the disquieting sort, the cells of the brain are certainly not proof against. With all your good resolutions paste this in your hat: "It is not work but worry that hastens nervous prostration."
