DEMOCRATIC RULES.

ARTICLE I

OF THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

SECTION I. The annual county con vention shall be held at Bloomsburg, the second Tuesday of June, 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and the primary elec-tion shall be held on the preceding Sat-urday at the place of holding the Gen-eral Elections in the several election districts between the hours of 3 and ;

o'clock in the afternoon. SECTION 2. The primary election shall be by ballot and shall be conducted by the Judge and two Inspectors of the Election who shall be residents of the district, and who shall be residents of the district, and who shall be elected at the preceding Primary Election. Their duties shall be the same as defined in the general election laws.

The ballot shall not be numbered.

The said officers shall be sworn to per form their duties faithfully and as provided by law. They shall determine all questions of the right to vote at said election.

They shall make a list of the voters and make out two duplicate statements showing the result of such election, the total number of votes cast and the names of the persons voted for, and the num-ber of votes cast for each one of which statements shall be posted upon the door of the polling place immediately after the vote shall have been counted, for the public information; the other of which statements shall be either mailed by registered letter or sent by special messen ger to the address of the County Chair man. The said election officers shall in dorse upon the envelope containing the same, or upon the statement, the day and the hour of the day when said statement was placed in the post office to be sent by registered letter or of the delivery of the same to a special messenger together with name of the messenger.

The said officers shall also make out re turn sheet showing the result of said election and a certificate to be signed by the election officers and enclose the same together with the poll book, the tally list of voters and the original ballots cast, in an envelope, which shall be se eurely sealed and addressed to the chair-man of the convention, and deliver the same to the newly elected Judge of

The duties heretofore prescribed to be performed under this rule shall be performed by an election board before separating, and in the presence of the watchers hereinafter provided for, to be present at such election ; where a vote is received after objection made by any watcher or member of election board, said ballot shall be marked with the name of the individual voting it.

SECTION 3. No person shall be al-lowed to vote at any primary election who has voted against the Democratic candidates at State or National elections within two years; or who has opposed the Democratic ticket at the last preceding election ; or has taken money or has agreed to take money or other thing of value, or any pecuniary advantage as a consideration for his vote at such primary election, or corrupted or attempted to corrupt any voter of the district with reference to the same, or in any wise whatsoever violated the primary election

SECTION 4. The voter shall indicate upon his ballot the person for whom he wishes to vote to be placed in nomina-tion for the respective offices by crossing off the names of all persons for whom he does not wish to vote, or write upon printed ballot, as provided to be nished under these rules, the name of the person for whom he desires to vote to be placed in nomination for any office. SECTION 5. If a ballot is cast at the primary election which does not contain names of all the candidates for a particular office, it shall be the duty of the election officers to reject such part of the ticket from the count. SECTION 6. The tickets to be furnished for the primary elections, as pro-vided for in the rules, shall contain the ames of all the candidates who shall have registered with the Chairman of the County Committee with blank spaces under each group to enable the voter to add the name of any person for whom wishes to vote.

SECTION 7. Upon a tie vote for choice of primary election officers, the acting judge of the election shall determine the choice by lot.

County Committee shall have prepared a return statement, which shall have been compiled from the duplicate statenents sent him from the several election districts, and present the same to the chairman of the convention. After the receipt of such return statement, or cause shown for its non production, the election returns from the different districts shall be called for, opened, and the eturns examined and compared with the return statement. SECTION 4. The candidate who shall nave received the highest number of votes, as shown by the approved returns, shall be declared the nominee. In case of a tie vote, the nomination shall be deermined by casting lots. Where two persons are to be nomina ted for the same office, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be nominated.

SECTION 5. It shall be good ground of objection to any return from any district that the duplicate statement direct ed to be sent to the County Chairman was unduly delayed, or that the provis ons of the election laws and these rules were violated at such election.

SECTION 6. Whenever any question is raised as to the regularity of the re-turn from any district, it shall be the duty of the Convention to appoint a com-mittee of at least five members of the Convention to inquire into and make report of the facts, and such recommendation ions as the committee may deem proper But no return from any district shall e accepted in the convention when it shall appear that the officers conducting the primary election have not complied with the provisions of these rules re specting the immediate posting of a statement showing the result of the election, upon the door of the polling place and the prompt transmission to the County Chairman of the duplicate statement.

SECTION 7. The voting in convention shall be open, and any two members may require the yeas and nays on any ques-

SECTION 8. When candidates for dele gates to the State Convention shall have egistered with the chairman and have een voted for at the primary election, those receiving the highest number of votes shall be named as the delegates. OF ELIGIBILITY.

SECTION I. If it shall be made to ap pear to the satisfaction of a majority of the Convention, that any candidate be-fore it for nomination to any office shall have offered or paid any money or val-uable thing, or made any promise of money or valuable thing to take effect in future, as an inducement to any voter to vote for him at the primary election, or shall have caused the same to be done in his behalf; or if any candidate shall induce or attempt to induce another person to announce his name and run as the candidate for nomination to the same office for which he is seeking the nomination, with intent thereby to withdraw votes from some third candidate for nomination for the same office, or if such candidate shall cause and procure the same to be done by another in his behalf, the name of such candidate as well as the name of the candidate so in-duced to be a candidate, shall be immediately struck from the list of candilates ; or if any such facts be ascertained after his nomination shall have been made, to the satisfaction of a majority of the members of the Standing Committee, the nomination shall be struck from the ticket and the vacancy supplied by a new nomination to be made by the members of the Standing Committee.

Any candidate offending against the provisions of this rule shall be ineligible to any nomination for a period of five

SECTION 2. No person shall be eligible to a nomination by the party who has opposed the democratic ticket at the next preceding election. SECTION 3. Each and every candidate for nomination to any office desiring his name to be printed upon the tickets pro-vided to be furnished under these rules, shall register his name, post-office ad-dress and name of office for which he is candidate, with the chairman of the Standing Committee in a book kept for that purpose, not less than thirty days before the primary election, and pay to the chairman a registration fee as fixed by the executive committee
