TOTAKEPHILIPPINES GLADSTONE'S DEATH.

THE GRAND OLD MAN MOURNED BY THE WHOLE OIVILIZED WORLD.

Almost Every Court in Europe Has Wired Condolence-Ambassador Hays' Tele-gram and Vice President Hobart's Tribute.

Hawarden, May 19 — Mr. Gladstone died at 5 a. m. to day, London time. The end was the most peaceful imag-inable. There was no sign of pain or distress. Mrs. Gladstone clasped her husband's hand and occasionally kissed it, while the Rev. Stephen Gladstone read prayers and repeated hymns. The nurse in the manwhile tathed the brow of the patient, who showed grate-tulness. brow of the patient, who showed grate-fuiness. The only other evidence that Mr. Gladstone realized his surroundings was when his son recited the Litany. Then he feebly murnured "Amen." This was the last word spoken by him. Then came the gentle, almost imperceptible cessation or life in the midst of his son's prayer, after which the family slowly left the room taking Mrs. Gladstone, who was induced to lie down, and who soon slept quietly. At 8.20 a. m. Dr. Doble took his leave of Mrs. Gladstone and returned to Chester. Dr. Doble said he had been assisting Dr. Bliss and Mr. Henry Gladstone's last hours which would toon be ready.

Mrs. Drew, Mrs. Henry Gladstone, Mrs. Stephen Gladstone, Miss Helen Hadstone and others attended early iommunion this morning at Hawarden church, conducted by the Rev. Stephen Gladstone. The ordinary service was prefaced with selected prayers from the burial service.

London, May 21.—The universal ex-pression of grief and sympathy at the leath of Mr. Gladstone gathers volume tourly. Memoirs and reminiscences of Mr. Gladstone are flooding the press, which everywhere shows column rules reversed. Almost every court in Eu-tope has wired condoinces. Vice President Hobart wires the Dai-y Chronicle as follows: "Not even in is own land was Mr. Gladstone more lightly esteemed and venerated than in the United States. His death has been well nigh a national calamity to us; ind it occurred at a time when our people are closely drawn by ties of the mation to which his long career of the nation to which his long career of public usefulness was so generously ledicated.

The House went into committee to sonsider the address to the queen in yeard to the interment of the remains of Mr. Gladstone in the Collegiate Shurch of St. Peter at Westminster, wherewise Westminster Abbey.
A. J. Balfour, the government leader indicated and the treasury. In spite of the weakness of his heart, which is officially acknowledged, was able to nove the address, although it is said to will probably have to take a holiday immediately. He introduced the subject with a lengthy eulogy of the deveased, speaking with evident emotion, and concluded with formally moving the presentation of the address to the queen. The Liberal leader, Sir William Vernon-Harcourt, seconded the motion.
Mr. Balfour's speech was remarkably loquent and displayed great pood laste, while Sir William Vernon-Harcourt's econiums of his dead leader sere delivered in a more glowing style. The Liberal leader's voice thrice broke with emotion, and he was compelled to pause and wipe his eyes. with emotion, and he was compelled CABINET DECIDES TO SENDASECOND EXPEDITION AT ONCE.

Administration Has Come to Regard the Occupation and Retention of the Philippine Islands As the Vital Point in the Campaign

Washington, May 25.—After careful deliberation the cabinet has decided to increase the number of troops to be sent to the Philippine Islands as soon as transports can be secured, and to accomplish this a second expedition will be made up after the one now pre-paring starts.

will be made up after the one now pre-paring starts. The president and the cabinet, it is stated on the highest authority, have arrived at the conclusion that the is-lands must be held permanently, and recent dispatches from Admiral Dewey in regard to the force needed to accom-plish this show that a greater number of soldiers will be necessary than it is now intended to send. It is also stated that the administra-tion is informed on reliable authority that the Spanish are preparing if they have not already sent, reinforcements to Manila. It is sold that the Spanish, seeing that Cuba is lost to them, in-tend to make a bitter fight for the Phil-ippines. There have been yeary meterical land

There have been very material tand important developments in the war polley of the administration within the past two days. For some time there has been a growing appreciation of the importance of the Philippine campaign, and it is definitely stated on good au-thority to-day that this government has thority to-day that this government has come to regard the occupation and re-tention of the Philippine Islands as the vital point in the campaign. It is said that the most active and urgent effort of the government will be directed from now on toward rendering permanent the possession of the Phil-ippines, and that the administration re-gards this as the most important move in the war.

Spain's Contemplated Policy.

Spain's Contemplated Policy. Information concerning the Spanish policy, her contemplated military op-erations, and her attempts at negotia-tion with foreign powers, impresses this government with the importance of set-tling the possession of the Philippines as quickly as possible, and there is said to successfully complete that campaign than there is to push operations in Cu-ba.

than there is to push operations in Cu-ba. Some of the strongest advisers of the administration insist that the conquest of Cuba can very well and wisely be prosecuted with deliberation after the Philippines are completely within our possession. The overthrow of Spanish power in the West Indies is considered fully assured, and it is believed to be the design of Spain to attempt negotia-tions with foreign powers looking to a termination of the war after a decisive naval engagement and the conducter loss to Spain than that of the island of Cu-ba.

the West Coast of Africa. Sierra Leone, West Africa, May 25.— A force of troops has relieved the mis-sionaries and others at Kwellu, whose lives, were imperiled by the uprising of the natives, who rebelled against the imposition of the hut tax. The bodies of the American mission-aries who were murdered when the in-surgents attacked and destroyed the present month, have been recovered and buried.

On May 6 the British colonial office received the names of the American missionaries who were massacred dur-ing the debellion in the Sherboro dis-trict of Sierra Leone, including those who were reported to have been killed at Rotfunk. They were Mr. and Mrs. Cain and the Misses Archer, Hatfield and Schenck. The other missionaries-Mr. and Mrs. Burtner, Mr. and Mrs. Hinshall and the Misses Mullen and Ward-succeeded in making their es-tape to Freetown.

Miss Muller, an American missionary, Miss Muller, an American missionary, who was alone in a mission house in the Sherboro district when it was in-vaded by the insurgents, was rescued by a boat's crew from a British war-ship just in time to prevent her from being massacred. The infuriated na-tives had already surrounded the mis-sion when the sailors arrived on the scene.
