

SUPPLIES FOR GARCIA

NEARLY 400 MEN, ARMS AND AMUNITION LANDED IN CUBA.

Seven Thousand Rifles, Two Million Rounds of Ammunition, Seventy-five Mules and Twenty-five Horses Carried to the Insurgents.

Key West, Fla., June 1.—The Plant line steamer Florida returned here yesterday from Cuba, having successfully landed there an important expedition. The Florida has been quarantined, but is expected to be released soon. She landed her party about 25 miles east of Havana and not a shot was fired. Senor Polo, the local delegate of the Cuban junta, has official information that the expedition was successful in accomplishing its object.

The expedition was landed on the coast of Cuba last Thursday morning. When the Florida, escorted by the Osceola, drew up close to the shore at the place selected for the landing, she sent out scouts ashore to see whether all was clear. The scouts were greeted by Generals Feria and Rojas, with about 1,500 armed insurgents. Consequently, far from there being any hostile demonstration upon the part of the Spanish, the landing was in the nature of a triumphal invasion. The Cubans who were in waiting for the party had a hand and welcomed the newcomers with national airs.

Unloading the Cargo.
The work of unloading the cargo of the Florida was promptly begun and carried on by 432 men composing the expedition. There was no interruption, and the work was finished on Friday night. While the cargo was being unloaded the Osceola, which is an auxiliary gunboat, with her guns ready for action, scouted about the vicinity, looking for an enemy. But the Spaniards apparently had no suspicion of what was taking place, for not a sign of them could be seen ashore or aboard. So easily was the dangerous mission accomplished that while some members of the party were getting the supplies ashore, others were providing themselves with fruit, sugar and other products of the landing place, a large stock of which was brought back for Key West friends.

Nevertheless, no precautionary measure was neglected, and the moment the work was concluded the Florida and the Osceola slipped away, leaving the insurgents to convey their reinforcements and supplies into the interior, which, it is confidently believed, was done without any casualty. The returning members of the Florida party brought with them several hundred private letters, which, it is understood, give a complete insight into the present conditions prevailing in the blockaded island. The local Cuban colony is elated over the astonishing success of the expedition.

A Strong Expedition.
Nearly 400 men, with a pack train and a large quantity of arms and ammunition, sailed on the Florida, on the night of May 21. These men and the equipment constituted an expedition able to operate independently and to defend itself against any body of Spanish troops which might oppose it. The expedition was under the command of Colonel Jose Lacret, formerly insurgent commander in Matanzas province. He assumed the direction of affairs immediately on the landing of the expedition. Until then General Joaquin Castillo was in control.

In the landing of the expedition the United States army was represented by Captain J. H. Dorst; and Thomas Estrada Palma was represented on the Florida by J. E. Cartaya, who has been the landing agent of nearly every filibustering expedition for more than a year. Messrs. Castillo, Cartaya and Dorst will return to Key West. General Julio Sanguilly, on the way to report to General Maximo Gomez, was also on the boat.

Cubans and Americans.
This is the most powerful anti-Spanish expedition ever sent to Cuba. About 300 of the men are Cubans. The others are Americans. The engineer corps of the expedition is composed entirely of Americans under Aurelian Ladd, and includes experts in explosives. Three of the four physicians with the party are Americans. The men were dressed in canvas uniforms furnished by the United States government, and the commissary department had rations enough to last fifteen days after the landing. The pack train consisted of seventy-five mules and twenty-five horses. The expedition carried 7,000 rifles and 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition for General Calixto Garcia. General Castillo, General Sanguilly and Colonel Lacret are fine looking men, and the expedition is composed of hardy young fellows who looked fit for anything.

Dismissals Under Civil Service Law.
Washington, June 1.—The United States supreme court yesterday decided that the United States district court for West Virginia had no jurisdiction to sit as a court of equity in the matter of dismissals under the civil service law and reversed the decree of that court, which restrained the collector of internal revenue from removing certain gaugers, storekeepers, etc.

Army Nominations.
Washington, June 1.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate:
Fourth regiment, United States Volunteer Infantry—To be lieutenant colonel, George Cole of Connecticut; to be surgeon, with rank of major, Joseph M. Henry of Pennsylvania.

Ex-Vice Consul at Cadiz Dead.
Washington, June 1.—The state department has learned through the British consul in charge of the United States consulate at Cadiz that Benjamin G. Haynes, late vice consul of the United States at Cadiz, died there on May 2, after a very short illness.

Emerasso Reported Safe.
St. Thomas, D. W. I., June 1.—The German newspaper correspondent, Mr. Emerasso, who escaped after being arrested in Porto Rico, and who was declared a spy by the alcalde of Caguas, who placed a price on his head, is reported to have reached Santa Cruz, the Danish island near here, in safety.

WORK OF CONGRESS

Considering the War Revenue Bill—Number of Minor Bills Passed.
Washington, June 1.—The chaplain's opening prayer in the senate yesterday was wholly devoted to a eulogy of Mr. Gladstone—"England's great commoner, great in his gifts and greater in the use he made of them."

The credentials of William B. Sullivan as senator, appointed by the governor of Mississippi to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Walthall, were presented and read, and Mr. Sullivan, escorted by Senator Money, proceeded to the vice president's desk, where he took and subscribed to the oath of office.
A bill was introduced by Mr. Pettigrew (Silver Rep., S. D.), temporarily to increase the army. It provides for the acceptance into the service of the United States of twelve troops of light cavalry, under the command of Edmond F. English of Yankton, S. D., to serve in the Philippine Islands, and appropriates $525,000 to pay for arming and equipping them.

At 12:29 the senate resumed consideration of the war revenue bill. Mr. Mason, Republican of Illinois, gave notice of an amendment which he proposed to offer taxing adulterated flour, and requiring it to be properly branded and labeled when placed on the market for sale, and he made some remarks in addition to the amendment, for which he found a precedent in the oleomargarine law.

In the House.
Under unanimous consent bills were passed by the house authorizing the construction of a railroad across Lake St. Francis, Ark.; appropriating $100,000 to pay the bounty from the war of the rebellion due John M. Turner of the 18th Pennsylvania Volunteers.
The House then went into committee of the whole on the bill appropriating $70,000 to pay, for June and July, the crews of certain life saving stations along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts which are to be used in connection with the coast signal service.

WHY PORTO RICO IS WANTED.
Fears That Spain May Back Out Before We Get the Island.

Washington, June 1.—There seems to be little doubt that the first plan of campaign contemplates the reduction of Porto Rico and the president is being strongly urged to begin this movement before any serious attempt is made upon Havana. His advisers point to what they regard as the danger of a retreat on the part of the Spanish government.

It might be possible, it is thought, for the Spanish to assert that they accept in full the demands of this government's ultimatum and withdraw their troops from Cuba. In such case the United States would be placed in the disagreeable position of continuing to make war upon the country which holds out the flag of truce. The dilemma that would confront us in such case would be how to secure Porto Rico without offending against international law, for it can be safely accepted as the truth that the administration is determined that Spanish rule in the western hemisphere shall cease.

Now that General Miles has gone it can be stated that for the last five days he has held frequent conferences with a prominent Porto Rican, thoroughly conversant with the situation in that island and able to give exact information as to the Spanish strength, defenses, etc., there.

GETTING INTO SHAPE.
The Astor Battery Completed and Drilling Engaged In.

New York, June 1.—No more recruits are wanted for the Astor Mountain Battery. All of the men needed to man the guns have been sworn in. A few places are being held open for blacksmiths, ferrisers and other artificers to go with the battery. The commanding officer, Lieut. March, says: "There are several men in the regular service who have applied for transfers to the battery. We may take our harness menders and other artisans from among their number. We have enlisted all of the men we need. And I wish to say right here that they are as fine a body of young men as I have ever seen. I am well pleased with them. In physique and general intelligence they are far above the average. They have evinced a willingness and eagerness to learn their duties that will help me wonderfully."

To Signal News of Fleets.
Washington, June 1.—The navy department yesterday issued a notice regarding the new coast signal system, which has been established on the Atlantic coast. Signal stations, connected with the navy department by direct wire, are in operation between Quoddy Head, Me., and the Mexican border.

Yesterday's notice requests mariners passing any of the stations to signal by international code any news that they may have of sighting suspicious craft or fleets at sea.

Building Association Funds Stolen.
Altoona, Pa., June 1.—Samuel H. Tuck, a clerk in the Juanita car shops, and secretary of the Juanita Building Association, was arrested late Monday night on the charge of embezzling $12,000 from the building association. His operations have been going on for several years. Being provided with a book of blank certificates signed by the president, he sold the stock privately and pocketed the proceeds to the amount named. Tuck has heretofore enjoyed a good reputation having been prominent in religious circles.

Women's War Relief Association.
Albany, June 1.—The Women's National War Relief Association, with principal office in New York city, was incorporated yesterday to enable the women of the nation to give expression to their patriotism by furnishing material aids to the men engaged in the military or naval service of the country, to furnish nurses and hospital supplies, reading matter to our soldiers, and to collect money for such purposes.

Connecticut Naval Reserve.
Hartford, Conn., June 1.—Governor Cooke has received a communication from the secretary of the navy directing him to have the Connecticut Naval Militia rendezvous forthwith.

The governor said that in compliance with the order the Naval Reserves would soon be called out, and that they would probably rendezvous at New Haven.

Delicacies for Wounded.
New York, June 1.—Major George H. Torney, chief surgeon of the hospital ship Relief, has been notified that the National Relief Association of Colonial Dames has donated the sum of $500 for the purchase of delicacies and other food for the wounded on board the Relief and the land hospitals of the army of invasion of Cuba.

Torpedo Boat McKee Passes Trenton.
Trenton, June 1.—The government torpedo boat McKee, which has been ordered from the Norfolk navy yard to Brooklyn, passed through Trenton on Monday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, with Commander Knepper and sixteen men aboard. By going through the canal the McKee is saving a considerable distance, and at the same time is not being exposed in the open sea.

Some More War Estimates.
Washington, June 1.—Secretary Alger has sent to Congress, through the secretary of the treasury, the following additional estimates: $1,386,000 for torpedo and $460,000 for gun mortar batteries; $3,200,000 for ordnance stores; $735,000 for armament of fortifications; and $100,000 for contingencies of the army; total, $5,871,000.

DuPont's Hull Damaged.
Mobile, Ala., June 1.—The torpedo boat DuPont arrived here Monday to go into dock for repairs to her hull, she having been in collision with some vessel at Key West. She will be ready to sail in two or three days.

POINTS OF INVASION.

EXPEDITIONS FOR PORTO RICO AND SANTIAGO IN PREPARATION.

The Exact Point of Embarkation Cannot be Discovered—General Shafter Will Have Command of the Troops at Santiago.

Washington, June 1.—The cabinet has discussed the situation at Santiago and the coming invasion of Porto Rico and Santiago. Both the secretary of the navy and the secretary of war were reticent in regard to the exact movements of the army and navy, but they acknowledged that before the week ended important developments would occur, and that there would be no further delay in regard to the campaign in the West Indies.

The actual embarkation of troops began late yesterday afternoon, according to positive information at the war department. It is not permissible to state the point of departure, and it will be probably a day or two before the expedition actually sails.

Porto Rico to be Invaded.
It is the general belief in Washington that the real point of invasion at this time is Porto Rico—and there is doubt whether troops will be landed at Santiago before or after the attack on Porto Rico. There are obvious reasons for not resolving this doubt, and the only thing that can be stated positively without impropriety is that both the Porto Rican and the Santiago expeditions will precede the general invasion of Cuba.

While it may be true that a number of troops will be landed at Santiago to assist Commodore Schley, in his attack on the Spanish fleet and the city, it is the opinion of the administration that no time must be lost in seizing and holding Porto Rico. The most significant news from the South, in the opinion of the army officers here, is the announcement that General Lee has gone to Jacksonville, on the east coast of Florida, to establish headquarters there. But one inference can be drawn from this movement, namely, that Jacksonville is to be made a base of operations against Porto Rico. The town is admirably situated for this purpose, in fact it far surpasses Key West as a base for operations even against any of the eastern points of Cuba. The terminus of an excellent railroad system leading from the North and West, with good steamboat connection with New York, with a navigable river, affording a good harbor, and distant only 1,200 miles from San Juan in an air line, Jacksonville leaves little to be desired as a base of military operations. There seems to be little doubt that the plan of campaign contemplates the reduction of Porto Rico.

Gen. Miles's Plans.
The departure of General Miles does not mean that he is going to command in person the army bound either for Santiago or San Juan, but that, as stated in these dispatches last week, he is to organize the expeditions to Porto Rico and Santiago, so as to know exactly what the army needs and prepare for the greater invasion of Cuba.

The preparations for the occupation of Santiago and Porto Rico are nearing completion, and the division for Santiago, which will be under General Shafter, has been selected. His equipment is complete, and it is not thought there will be any delay in starting.

General Miles will reach Tampa today, where he will confer with General Shafter regarding his campaign, and give him his final instructions. General Brooke will have command of the Porto Rican expedition, and General Lee will go with him, starting from Jacksonville. General Miles's plans are, as stated, to inspect the Santiago command and make his report to the president, after which he will turn his attention to the Porto Rican troops. After these expeditions have been started he will devote his entire attention to thoroughly organizing and equipping the army for the general Cuban invasion.

TO BUILD SHIPS FOR RUSSIA.
The Cramp's of Philadelphia Get a $15,000,000 Contract.

Philadelphia, June 1.—From a trustworthy source it was learned to-day that when Charles H. Cramp was in Russia he secured from the czar's government contracts for $15,000,000 for the construction of warships by the William Cramp & Sons' ship and engine building works in this city.

This is the largest foreign contract for war purposes ever secured by an American concern. The contracts call for the construction of one first class battleship, one first class cruiser and ten torpedo boat destroyers.

Women's War Relief Association.
Albany, June 1.—The Women's National War Relief Association, with principal office in New York city, was incorporated yesterday to enable the women of the nation to give expression to their patriotism by furnishing material aids to the men engaged in the military or naval service of the country, to furnish nurses and hospital supplies, reading matter to our soldiers, and to collect money for such purposes.

New York, June 1.—Major George H. Torney, chief surgeon of the hospital ship Relief, has been notified that the National Relief Association of Colonial Dames has donated the sum of $500 for the purchase of delicacies and other food for the wounded on board the Relief and the land hospitals of the army of invasion of Cuba.
