

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5th, 1898.

Just when the administration is bringing the war to a successful close by forcing the acceptance of its terms of peace by Spain...

Money or Men?

If money is the measure of manhood Wm. K. Vanderbilt is the greatest man in the United States.

It has been figured out by the Chicago Dispatch that this sum represents the labor of one Hazleton coal miner for 82,000 years.

Is Wm. K. Vanderbilt, therefore, a greater man than Admiral Dewey or the president of the United States?

Rich men are trying to get control of this government. The money power struck the first blow against the supremacy of the people in 1873.

But the exigencies of the present have called a Dewey into action. He has made the nation respected and feared by all the powers of the earth.

Regular Army Heroes.

When the war is over there is likely to be some plain talk from men who kept their mouths shut while the fighting was going on.

If the army at Santiago was composed in any considerable measure of volunteers, there would be more lively expression of concern about the prevailing fever.

The New York papers, for example, have had a great deal to say about the Seventy-first and New York and the Boston papers about the Second Massachusetts.

This impersonality of the regular army makes its unselfish heroism so superb, its silent suffering so pathetic.

Efforts are making and it is believed by the postal authorities in the United States and England that the conclusion is near at hand when the uniform postal rate between the two countries will be the same as in that in either country, 1 penny, or 2 cents.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Special Correspondence

Major Joseph W. Wham, paymaster in the United States Army, has been under a strange and distressing sentence since 1894, when President Cleveland, in mitigating a sentence of dismissal, decided that Major Wham should be suspended from duty until 1904 at half pay.

Gen. Henderson's Kindness. General Henderson, "Dave" Henderson, as his intimates call him, who has represented the Third Iowa district since the Forty-eighth Congress, is one of the best liked and most popular men in Congress.

"You are a hero, my brave fellow," he said, laying his strong hand upon the poor writing form. "Just as great a hero as though you died at the front by the enemy's bullets."

A Big Swindle.

Gold Bricks Made From the Brine of the Ocean.

Rev. P. F. Jernegan, an ex-Baptist minister, who left calling because of ill health, began casting around several years ago for a new way to make money.

The rest was easy. The production of some gold bars from the Passamaquoddy plant, together with attractive and judicious advertising of the secret process, set thousands of staid New Englanders by the ears.

With his brother he made many quiet visits, according to detectives, to banks in New York, where large blocks of government bonds were purchased.

A LIVING WITNESS.

Mrs. Hoffman Describes How She Wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for Advice, and Is Now Well.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Before using your Vegetable Compound I was a great sufferer. I have been sick for months, was troubled with severe pain in both sides of abdomen, sore feeling in lower part of bowels, also suffered with dizziness, headache, and could not sleep.

I wrote you a letter describing my case and asking your advice. You replied telling me just what to do. I followed your directions, and cannot praise your medicine enough for what it has done for me.

Many thanks to you for your advice. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me, and I will recommend it to my friends.

The condition described by Mrs. Hoffman will appeal to many women, yet lots of sick women struggle on with their daily tasks regarding the urgent warnings until overtaken by actual collapse.
