"I have been a Republican since 1860 but our party now stinks in the nostrils of any decent man. If the people are willing to uphold this corruption and dishonesty, God save the country!—Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker."

WILL THEY RETRACT?

Mr. Jenks, in his speeches, has clearly shown that he is unalterably opposed to Quay and Quayism, and never had and could not have, the re-motest sympathy or connection with either. In a letter, over his own signature, and in the sturdiest of speech at Chambersburg, he has declared that he never was professionally affiliated with the Standard Oil company or any corporation of any kind, except once, when for a few months he was attorney for a railroad company whose road was established to market the coal to the county where he lives. In view of these facts, which are or ought to be known to all men, Dr. Swallow, Dr. Swallow's hired stumpers and the Machine organs who do not publicly and prominently retract the charge that Mr. Jenks is a Quay man and a Standard Oil man, convict themselves in the eyes of all honest men, of wilful and deliberate falsehood.

VOTE FOR LITTLE FOR JUDGE.

An exchange remarks that "the People's Bank developments have added volumes to the Democratic campaign argument. They may also add to the Republican majority in the Eastern Penitentiary."

Every labor Representative and Senator voted against the Hanna-Elk-ins-Morgan bond proposition in the session last summer. It was unfortunate for labor that it had so few representatives. Don't let this happen again. Vote for Polk.

Quay is having a very hard time of it. Wanamaker and Swallow are firing away at him, but now he is arrested for unlawfully using State's funds. It looks as though he will have to retire shortly. Verily, "the way of the transgressor is hard."

During the past term at Harrisburg J. Henry Cochran was always found championing the cause of right and justice, discountenancing all the misrule of Quay's henchmen, and as a consequence was the recognized leader on the side of right, and shone as one of the bright stars of his party.
 By all means return him.

VOTE FOR SOWDEN FOR LIUT. GOVERNOR.

VOTE THE STRAIGHT
 DEMOCRATIC TICKET,
 FROM TOP TO BOTTOM.

Every year it is $5,000,000 for the common schools, but the schools do not get the money. It is withheld by Republican officials to the damage of our schools and for the private gain of corrupt politicians. The common schools, the glory of the people, must be saved from the Republican Machine despoilers, George A. Jenks will protect the schools and the people if the voters but do their duty.

The Sawyer Woolen Mills of Dover, N. H., have just failed. These mills have been in operation since 1823.
 Mark Hanna should point to incidents of this character as an evidence of republican prosperity. He says the country is more prosperous than ever.
 Of course it is for Hanna, Elkins & Co. But what about the people who produce the wealth. Ask the farmer, workingman and soldier boys.

The Democrats of the district are united on Rufus K. Polk for congress.
 In addition to polling the entire Democratic vote he will make large gains among the soldiers of the Twelfth Regiment, Mr. Polk is an active, progressive young man with a bright future before him. He will make an able representative at Washington because his business interests have given him a wide range of experience and observation. Vote for Polk.—Milton Record.

Lieutenant Hobson, the hero of Santiago Harbor, has made good his promise, and has succeeded in raising the ill-fated Maria Teresa, Admiral Cervera's one time flag ship. The wrecked craft will require the outlay by this Government of two or three millions of dollars to put it in first-class condition, but when once completed she will make a valuable addition to Uncle Sam's sea fighting machinery, and will be worth a million or two more than the overhauling will cost.

VOTE FOR POLK FOR CONGRESS.

A New Issue.

At last the Republican organs and penny whistlers have found a campaign issue. It is nothing of national importance. It is not some particular affair of national legislation or policy.
 It does not embrace something for the good of the people, or anything for the benefit of the state. It is simply and solely the alleged "abuse and vilifcation" of Candidate Stone.

Who has been abusing and vilifying him does not appear. Perhaps the organs and whistlers of Republicanism would be hard pushed to name an anti-Quay newspaper or speaker who has abused or vilified the distinguished standard bearer of Republicanism.
 Nobody really knows of anything like what is charged against Stone's political opponents. But there is no real issue for the Republicans to fight for this year, so one had to be manufactured and the "abuse and vilification" issue is the result of the labors of the Republican artisans. And these fellows who are bewailing this altogether mythical abuse of their candidate are the same ones who for two years have poured abuse, malicious as well as childish, upon William J. Bryan.

Mr. Stone is not the object of anybody's especial attention, much less malice. He is not a free agent. He is only a puppet. He stands for Quay and Quayism. He is Quay's man. He jumps as Quay pulls the string. If elected he will be Quay's governor.
 Therefore the campaign is not against him, but against the machine he represents and which unpatriotic Republican organs support. He is an incidental, inconsequential in himself.
 He may be politically white or black as pitch; it makes no difference one way or another, for his political purity could not purify Quayism nor could his political blackness make it blacker.
 He is outside of the reckoning altogether.

The machine is being attacked and Stone must take his chances with the machine. It must be destroyed for the good of the state.—Patriot.

STATE NEWS.

—John Martin was struck on the head by falling coal at Hazleton on Friday. He cannot recover.

—Edward Finn of South Bethlehem, was killed by a shifting engine at the Iron Works at Bethlehem on Thursday.

—A second crop, considerably larger than the first is being picked on the mountain near Locust Gap, Northumberland County. This is a very unusual occurrence.

—Fireman E.R. Bacon of Tunkhannock, fell from his engine at Penn Haven Junction, on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, sustaining injuries from which he died.

Prof. Coles' October.

Judging from the great sea of gaseous matter that has been passing over the sun during the past few weeks, causing a reversal of the unusual meteorological conditions of the weather, we have reasons to believe that there is a stupendous freak of nature approaching that will destroy the meteorological equilibrium to such an extent that it will not be able to regain its balance in several months thereafter, for the planets Saturn, Uranus, Jupiter, and Mercury will be on one side of the Sun, and Neptune, Mars, Venus and Earth on the other side—in direct opposition—and the cross firing of these planets over the sun will cause a break in the gaseous matter and let the pent up sun rays escape to earth, causing unprecedented heat waves and cold waves; air-quakes and earthquakes; hurricanes and cyclones; tidal waves, destructive floods, forest fires, etc. The greatest break will occur, we think some time between the 10th and 23d, but a constant watchout should be kept for there is danger in the air!

THE STORMS AND SIGNS.

If the break in the gaseous matter now passing over the sun occurs during the night time the Eastern States will be flooded, but if it occurs during the day time, then the Southern and Western States will receive the greatest affliction. There will be several unusual sunset scenes, sundogs, moon circles and northern lights. The passing of the moon between two of the brightest stars in the Heavens on the evening of the eighteenth inst. at good dark, will be a very pretty sight, and no one should forget to take a good look at him, should the evening prove clear. If you have taken no notice of the "bright star," now in the South west, you should notice it at once, even though you have to go upon the hill tops to do so for this star has a meaning that in due time will surprise you. It can be seen in the early evening only. When this star reaches Sign Leo, down will go another ruler in the old country, and America will also come to grief!

Fashionable Wedding at Danville.

Miss Stella Gross was married at six o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of her parents on West Mahoning street to Mr. Herbert Wyle. Rev.
 Adolph Meyer, of B'nai Synagogue performed the ceremony.

Miss Stella Ellenbogen acted as maid of honor and Miss Blanche Gross, of Bloomsburg, Miss Lou Kehler, of Williamsport, and Miss Bertha Meyers, of this city, as bridesmaids.
 The groom was attended by Mr. Armand Wyle, his brother. Only the immediate relatives and a few friends were present. Immediately after the ceremony a repast was served.

Mr. Wyle is a musician of acknowledged ability and through his performance on the violin has made a name for himself in this and other localities. He is employed by the firm of I Levy & Co. paper dealers, New York City, in the capacity of traveling salesman. Miss Gross is the daughter of one of our most prominent and influential citizens, Mr. Henry L.
 Gross, President of Council, and is a very estimable and accomplished young lady.

The young couple left for New York City on the 6:50 D. L. & W. train Thursday morning.

The guests from a distance who witnessed the ceremony were Messrs.
 Roy Corbin Crosby and Max Jordan, Brooklyn, Miss Bertha Eager and I.
 Levy, New York City; Mr. and Mrs.
 Lewis Gross and Mr. and Mrs. Max Gross, of Bloomsburg.—Intelligencer.

Appointed Postmaster.

Charles W. Scott, well known in Williamsport, has been appointed postmaster of that city to succeed James W. Sweeley, editor of the Sun, who was appointed by President Cleveland.
 Mr. Scott is a prominent Republican and wields a good deal of influence.
 He will probably appoint his son, Richard, as his deputy.

After the Fever

Little Girl Was Weak and Could Not Eat—Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave Her Appetite and Strength—Eczema Disappearing.

"My little girl was sick for several months with typhoid fever, and after she got over it she was weak and did not eat.
 My husband got her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, saying it would make her eat and give her strength—and it did.
 She had taken it only a short time when she was well and strong. Everyone who sees her is surprised at her improvement because she was so weak and thin, but now is fat and healthy. I am giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla now for eczema and the trouble is fast disappearing. My husband has taken it for rheumatism and it has done him good." MRS. CLINTON B.
 CORZ, Buckingham Valley, Pennsylvania.
