The first snow of the season fell in the lower end of Luzerne County on Monday.

Doesn't it look just a little bit as though somebody has been pulling Willie's leg?

Considering the short time it has been organized, the Benton Band plays very well.

William A. Marr is elected Law Judge in Schuylkill County, and the whole Democratic ticket is elected there.

Samuel R. Bidleman and bride have arrived home, and have taken up their residence on the corner of Centre and Third streets.

Buckalew Bros. have the latest improved horse clippers, and are prepared to do clipping at reasonable rates, at their livery stable, rear of Court House.

As we predicted last week Swallow was a bad third in the race for Governor. His vote in a great many counties was away below the vote given him for State Treasurer.

I have secured the sale of the finest line of Confectionery in the world.

William H. Snyder, Esq., has been confined to the house the past week by serious illness.

B. L. Eshleman moved his family to Berwick on Wednesday, where he is employed by the Jackson & Woodin Manufacturing Co.

Good health is worth more than anything else to you, and every bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains good health.

Market Street will have another fine residence when Dr. Bruner's house is completed. Contractor Jury is pushing the work along rapidly.

The exterior of H. J. Clark & Son's building corner of Main and Center streets, is in the hands of painters. It will be greatly improved in appearance when completed.

Rev. Joseph Maule preached in the Methodist Church last Sunday—morning and evening. He is a member of the Society of Friends, and resides at Philadelphia.

Albert McHenry, manager of the Bloomsburg Store Company is in New York this week buying new goods and novelties for the holiday trade. Look out for bargains on his return.

Tom Fairman, who has been the popular and obliging clerk at the Exchange Hotel for several years past, has gone to Carbondale, where he has accepted the clerkship at the American House.

Miss Flora Derr died at the home of her father, Hiram Derr, near Grovania Friday afternoon. Her death was caused by paralysis. She was twenty-six years old. The funeral took place on Monday.

Rev. C. H. Brandt, for six years pastor of the Reformed Church this town, left on Tuesday for Landisburg, Perry County, where he has accepted a call. The best wishes of all our people go with him.

Now that the election is over, our merchants will settle down to business again and prepare their stock for the holiday trade, which bids fair to be good this year. If you want the people to know what you handle use the columns of the COLUMBIAN.

Mrs. M. A. Blasser, who has been conducting the boarding house on the corner of Market and Third Streets has sold all of her furniture and household goods and left town. The boarding house in the future will be conducted by Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf.

The Christian Endeavor Societies of Montour and Columbia counties, will hold their eleventh convention at Danville next Thursday, November 17. There will be three sessions—morning, afternoon and evening—for which interesting programs and able speakers have been provided.

The Salvation Army is having its own trouble in Wilkesbarre. They have been notified by the Mayor not to beat a drum on the streets, as it is a violation of a city ordinance. The Salvationists are very indignant over the matter and are going to make a test case of it.

The Democratic rally held in the Opera House Monday evening was a fitting close to a great campaign. The house was crowded to the doors, and the speeches couldn't have been better. The Bloomsburg and Benton Bands enlivened the occasion with several selections.

The twenty-ninth semi-annual institute of the Fishingcreek township Sunday School Association will be held in the West Ridge School house on Saturday afternoon and evening. An excellent program has been prepared. An invitation is extended to the public to be present.

For the first time in eight years the goose bone is wide and nearly white all over, indicating, according to Ezekiel Bonzy, the most accurate goose breast bone reader in this country, that the coming winter is to be a "snorter," with snow coming early, growing deep and staying late.

A woman 75 years old, living the life of a hermit in an old shanty near Allentown, died last week. An examination of her clothing showed in a home-made bustle in an old dress was found $600 in greenbacks, and $44.22 in coin, five secret pockets in her petticoat and dresses. She rarely had any intercourse with her neighbors.

Selinsgrove defeated the Wyoming Seminary foot ball team at the former place Saturday afternoon 36 to c. This should encourage the Normal boys. The up river aggregation has been Bloomsburg's Jonahs for a number of years, but we hope to break the spell on Thanksgiving day when the two elevens will line up against each other on Normal Athletic Field.

Postmaster O. B. Mellick, O. W. Ent, and one or two others, enjoyed a hunting expedition up the creek this week. If they had hit everything they shot at, game would have been scarce for several seasons to come—but they didn't, and there is still a few quail left.

The past October will go down into history as one during the house-keeper with comfort in his mind's eye had to run his furnace, his retriggerator, his lawn mower, and his hose, besides keeping his umbrella, mackintosh and gum shoes handy all at the same time.

Dr. C. S. Van Horn returned on Monday from a hunt up near Shick-shinny. His string which was the finest we have ever seen brought to town by any individual hunter consisted of two pheasants, forty-three quail, five rabbits, one wild turkey and two wild ducks. Whether it was Doc's good shooting or the over abundance of game in the woods we are unable to say, but he got 'em just the same.

Rev. and Mrs. D. N. Kirkby attended the consecration of an Episcopal Chapel at Harrison, New York, last week Tuesday. The handsome structure was erected to the memory of Mr. Kirkby's sister. The following account is taken from the New York Tribune:

"The handsome new Episcopal Chapel in Harrison, erected through the zeal of the Rev. W. W. Kirkby, rector of Christ Church, Rye, and the Episcopalians of Rye and Harrison, was consecrated yesterday by Bishop Coleman, of Delaware. Among the clergymen in attendance were the Rev. C. Winter Bolton, of Pelham; the Rev. S. T. Graham, of Mount Vernon; the Rev. A. F. Tenney, of Pelham Manor; the Rev. F. F. German, of Mamaroneck; the Rev. C. E. Brugler, of Port Chester, and Archdeacon Kirkby's sons, the Revs. Henry M. and David Kirkby. The vested choir of Christ Church, Rye, sang the anthem, and after the service the visitors were entertained at dinners given at the homes of W. H. Macy and Mrs. Josiah Knapp Purdy. A brass tablet erected in the nave contains the following inscription: "All Saints' Church, Harrison, erected to the glory of God and in loving memory of Louise Kirkby, by her father, the Rev. W. W. Kirkby, D. D., and his friends, Nov. 1, 1898." Archdeacon Kirkby has been successful in building a number of chapels, among them places of worship for the Esquimaux in the Yukon gold regions.

Hurt by a Runaway Horse.

George Ivey, son of dairyman Richard Ivey was seriously hurt Friday afternoon, while trying to stop a runaway horse belonging to H. E. Heacock, which was hitched to the Steam Laundry Wagon. The animal had been left standing on Center Street untied, and became frightened at some paper flying about and started up the street on a dead run. Young Ivey, was just passing Alexander Bros.' tobacco store as the horse came dashing around the corner of Main and Center. He rushed out and made a grab for the bridal, but missed it and got hold of the breast strap. He could not keep his feet and fell being dragged a considerable distance. He was picked up in an unconscious condition, and taken into Dr. I. W. Willis' office in the Exchange block. An examination showed an ugly wound on one side of his head made no doubt by the horse's foot, and a severe bruise on his right leg. After the wounds were dressed, he was placed in a conveyance and taken to his home over near the Red Mill. It was several hours before he regained consciousness. From last accounts he is getting along as well as can be expected.

EVENING PARTY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moyer was the scene of a most delightful social affair Monday evening, the event being a party, given by their daughter, Miss Mira, in honor of Miss Cleveland, of Erie, Pa., who has been visiting her for several days. Card playing which is always indulged in on such occasions, made merry the early part of the evening, and later dancing occupied the time. Refreshments were served at eleven o'clock. Among those present were the Misses Edith Reber, Claire Whitmoyer, Vida Miller, Edith Miller, Joe Barkley, Jennie Barkley, Annie Maize, Edith Maize, Lillian Sloan, Amy Ritter, Lois Sloan, and Messrs. Fred Kelley, Frank Wilson, Frank Pursel, Paul Jones, Joe Townsend, William Quick, Ben Carpenter, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rishton.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., postoffice, and will be sent to the dead letter office Nov. 22, 1898:

Courter, Mrs. Lizzie G. Fry, Mrs. S. J. Deterick, Miss Mary Lutz, Mr. Alice Rockwell, Mr. C. S. Persons calling for the above letters will please say that they were advertised Nov. 8, 1898. O. B. MELLICK, P. M.

For the person telling us when Good Carpets were sold cheaper.

Saturday, October 1st, a carboy of dye stuff broke in a railroad car, containing over 10,000 yards of Carpet. Some pieces were soaked at the ends. Some were dirtied and mussed while being thrown from the car, and others merely had their wrappers splashed. Goods could not be shipped to western dealers. We stepped in, made an offer of 70c. on the dollar, and got the goods. We are going to sell them quick, and if you know a good thing, you'll take them quick. In some cases you cannot tell the damage. But it's enough to save you dollars.

Commencing Nov. 5th, we will have the goods for sale in our Carpet Department. Bring the measure of your room with you.

Note these prices: Best Brussels, sold everywhere for 90c., now 65c. Good Brussels, sold everywhere for 75c., now 55c. Best all-wool Ingrain, price everywhere, 75c., now 55c.
