Sheriff Black on Friday removed the bandage from his arm. Early in January he scratched his hand. It subsequently developed into blood poisoning, and gave him such pain that he was compelled to carry it in a sling. He says it is nearly well now, and he hopes to be able in a few days to participate in his favorite pastime—pitching quoits.

At the meeting of the Washington Camp P. O. S. of A. of this town held last week it was decided to hold the annual excursion and picnic at Glen Onoko, on Saturday, August 5th. As has been customary for several summers past the Bloomsburg Silk Mill started to work Monday a half hour earlier, and will quit work at one o'clock on Saturdays. This necessitates earlier rising on the part of the employees, yet it seems to be popular.

Fire of incendiary origin, destroyed John H. Lunger's barn in Jackson township late Saturday night. There was considerable grain in the barn, but the fire had gained such headway before it was discovered that nothing could be saved. The building, where we are informed was insured.

The musical at the Methodist church on last Friday evening was a decided artistic success. Mrs. Fred Holmes and Miss Maude Runyon never fail to please. Miss Mabel Peacock, Messrs Linn, Skeer and Colley delighted the audience with their selections. Those who have looked forward to hearing the Y. M. C. A. choir were more than pleased. Mr. Harmon always receives a hearty welcome; we are always glad to see his name upon a program. Miss Grace V. Correll showed her versatility to a marked degree, in her two selections,—"A Scrap of College Love," being full of pathos, and "Love Rewarded," bubbling with humor. Especially delightful were the pantomimes, "Jesus Lover of My Soul," given by Miss Correll, assisted by Misses Anna Redeker, Dora Jury, Natalie Foulke, and Mary Correll; and "Almost persuaded," given by Miss Correll and Miss Natalie Foulke. These young Ladies displayed rare gracefulness in their movements and won the hearts of their audience with their true and artistic presentation of the beautiful thoughts in these two selections.

You Can't Dodge Them

Did you ever try to dodge the rain-drops? Did not succeed very well, did you? It's just as useless to try to escape from the germs of consumption. You can't do it. They are about us on every hand and we are constantly taking them into our lungs. Then why don't we all have this disease? Simply because these germs cannot gain a foothold in a strong throat and lungs. It's when these are weak that the germs master. The body must be well supplied with fat. The danger comes when the blood is poor and the body is thin. If your cough does not yield, and your throat and lungs feel raw and sore, you should not delay another day. Take of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites at once. It will heal the inflamed membranes and greatly strengthen them as well. The digestion becomes stronger, the appetite better and the weight increases. The whole body becomes well fortified and the germs of consumption cannot gain a foothold. It's this nourishing, sustaining and strengthening power of SCOTT'S EMULSION that has made it of such value in all wasting and exhausting diseases.

The opening given Saturday evening by George Anderson, the hustling up town confectioner, was largely attended. Prof. Losey's fine orchestra was present and discoursed some excellent music. A bouquet of carnations was presented to everyone. An event of this kind gives ample evidence of the progressiveness of the proprietor, and Mr. Anderson is to be congratulated on the success of the occasion.

James M. Davis, manager of the local office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, will leave on Saturday to take charge of the company's office at East Orange, New Jersey, and Harry Deitterick, of that place, comes here. Mr. Deitterick, on account of his relatives living at Buckhorn, made a proposition to Mr. Davis to trade places, and the latter accepted. Mr. Davis, during his stay here, has made many friends and general regret is expressed at his departure.

In a game abounding in heavy hitting on the part of the locals, the Normal School defeated Susquehanna University of Selinsgrove at Normal field Saturday afternoon by the jug handled score of 15 to 1. "Pop" Hagenbuch's coaching is manifesting itself in the Normal's play. He has been practicing them in the art of batting during the past two weeks, not to strike at a ball until it cuts the plate. Their exhibition Saturday afternoon, shows that they carried out his instructions to the very letter. The visiting pitcher remarked after the game that it was the hardest drubbing he had received this season.

Fine Engraving.

We engrave all goods bought of us absolutely FREE of charge. All work guaranteed to be of the highest type. Consider this proposition, and you cannot fail to appreciate its value. Some engraving takes an hour's time, some a good deal longer—but it's free, just the same. If you have bought goods elsewhere and want the article artistically engraved, we shall be pleased to do the work for you. Many beautiful articles are ruined by being placed in inartistic hands for engraving, or being scratched by an engraving machine. When desired, we submit a sketch of the letter to be placed on goods before engraving. Fine script and block letter work, and complicated letter monograms are our specialties.
