State Treasurership.

In discussing the probable action of the coming Democratic State Convention the Philadelphia Times says:

"The State Treasurership probably takes precedence over the other offices for which candidates will be nominated. The Democrats are confident that with a strong candidate, and a factional fight within the lines of the Republican party, they can win. Among the men who have heard Madam Barrakat will not fail been suggested as the likely standard-bearer in this contest are Representative William T. Creasy, of to defray expenses. Columbia county; Representative George R. Dixon, of Elk, Captain Hasson, of Venango: Colonel John Spangler, of Centre, and the lawpartner of Ex-Governor Hastings, and John B. Keenan, of Westmore-

There is a strong indication that the man who will be the final selection of the convention is Mr. Creasy. He is a young man and the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah has always been an active Democrat. Pegg, on West Third street, with He has served three terms in the whom she had been making her home. The platform which will be adopted by the Pennsylvania Democracy is purely speculative. The evidences of a factional contest among the Republicans are driving the Democrats together in harmony with scrong hopes of winning. It is understood, however, that the work of the State Legislature during its recent session will come in for at-

STATE NEWS ITEMS.

-The Berwick car shops are working day and night.

-There are 8,150 poles subject to taxation in Scranton.

-Families are leaving Mt. Carmel so rapidly that dozens of houses are without tenants.

-The Williamsport police have orders to arrest all persons who expectorate upon the sidewalks.

-Smallpox has been discovered among the employees of the Pennsylvania Steel Company at Steelton.

-Lightning struck the barn of Oliver Smith near Nescopeck last week and besides tearing the roof off, racked the building considerably. A horse which was in the barn at the time, was made deaf by the shock but was otherwise uninjured.

-About a thousand cars of anthracite coal were shipped west over the Reading railway during the past week. This constitutes the heaviest week's consignment of hard coal to the western country at this time of the year in the history of the Philadelphia and Reading railway.

-The state fish commission has decided to abolish the breeding of trout at the state fishery at Sailsbury, Lehigh county, and the houses and ponds ing of black bass for the streams of the state. The fish commission will hereafter buy all its trout eggs, and the big trout at the fishery will be sold.

"He That Stays Does the Business."

All the world admires "staying power." On this quality success depends. The blood is the best friend the heart has, and "faint heart" never won anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best friend the blood ever had; it cleanses the blood of everything.

If you would be strong in the race of life and "do the business," you must 'stay." Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the struggle easy. It gives clear, strong blood; hence perfect health ensues.

Hives-"The itching of hives which troubled me last summer was terrible; blotches came all over my body. Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills cured me." Mrs. Mary Insorr, 235 South Wolf St., Baltimore, Md.

All Run Down — "I was as tired in the morning as at night, had no ambition, weak and run down. Three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up and cured me. Can eat well and sleep well." Mrs. Chas. Mol.z., 418 Madison St., Sandusky, Ohio. Fernale Troubles—"I would have welcomed death any time as a relief from catarrh of the womb and other serious troubles. The best physicians said my case was helpless. I stopped taking everything else and took Hood's Sareaparilla. New life came to me and I gained until I am perfectly well and strong." Mas. Emma J. Fisher, Lonedell, Missouri.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparliis.
