

AN ALL DAY FIGHT.

General Lawton's Troops Encounter Sharp Resistance.

AMERICAN LOSS REPORTED AS SIXTY

Our Forces Attacked by Hidden Filipinos and Forced to Retire Until Re-enforcements Arrive—The Death of General Luna.

MANILA, June 14.—General Lawton unexpectedly stirred up one of the liveliest engagements of the war south of Las Pinas yesterday morning, upon which occasion American field guns were engaged in the first artillery duel against a Filipino battery concealed in the jungle.

Companies F and I of the Twenty-first Infantry were nearly surrounded by a large body of insurgents, but the Americans cut their way out with heavy losses.

The United States turret ship Monarch and the gunboats Helena and Zafiro trained their batteries on Bacoor and the rebel trenches near Las Pinas all the morning.

Bacoor was once on fire, but the natives stopped the spread of the flames.

During the night an insurgent cannon was fired three times at the Americans on the outskirts at Las Pinas.

General Lawton in the morning took a battalion of the Fourteenth regiment and two companies of the Twenty-first regiment to locate the rebel battery and then two guns of the Sixth artillery and four mountain guns were planted against it at 600 yards distance.

The rebels had a large gun, from which they were firing homemade canister loaded with nails.

They also had two smaller guns. Their shooting was most accurate.

The first lot of canister burst directly in front of Scott's guns, and another shattered the legs of a private in the Fourteenth Infantry. Several shots struck the edge of the town.

The country traversed was as bad as it is possible to imagine, being mainly lagoons, mud and water fringed with bamboos.

As soon as the fighting opened the Americans were attacked by hidden riflemen on all sides, even the amigos, or "friendly natives," in the houses of the town, shooting at them.

Two companies of the Twenty-first regiment, skirmishing along the beach, with amiguo guides, found apparently a handful of rebels, who retreated.

The men of the Twenty-first followed, and suddenly the rebels opened a terrific fire on the troops from the sides and rear.

The soldiers withdrew to the water's edge, finding what shelter they could, and were picked off rapidly. After their ammunition was nearly exhausted the two companies retreated, but General Lawton dashed down and rallied the men.

A little group made a desperate stand. General Lawton, Major Starr and Lieutenants Donovan and Connolly taking rifles from the wounded men and firing at the enemy, the general officers bringing down some of the rebel sharpshooters from a tree.

Finally their cartridges were all gone, and they were forced to break through the enemy's flank, carrying the wounded to the main body of the troops.

Lieutenant Donovan, whose leg was broken, floundered for a mile through a bog, leading his men in the face of a greatly superior force.

General Lawton ceased fighting until re-enforcements could be brought up. Two battalions of the Fourteenth regiment and one battalion of the Ninth regiment were hurried to the front, and in the afternoon the battle was resumed.

General Lawton called out the whole force of 3,000 men, and at 5 o'clock he was only able to push the insurgents back 500 yards to the Zapote river, where they are entrenched.

The insurgents resisted desperately and aggressively. They attempted to turn the left flank of the American troops.

The American loss is conservatively estimated at 60.

Information, believed to be reliable, has reached here of the assassination of General Luna and his aid camp, Lieutenant Pasco Ramon, June 8 at Aguinondo's guard at the headquarters of Aguinondo.

RIOT IN BUFFALO.

The Strikers Open Fire on a Gang of Workmen.

BUFFALO, June 14.—A gang of between 30 and 40 stevedores and freight handlers last night about 7:30 o'clock climbed aboard the wharfedeck Samuel Mather, which was lying at the Minnesota Iron Ore docks, and opened fire on a gang of about 50 iron ore handlers who were working in the hold of the vessel. Between 150 and 200 shots were fired. John Malyek, 30 years old, was shot in the back and is not expected to recover; Joseph Marek was shot in the shoulder, and Mike Smith received a bullet in the right shoulder. The injuries of the two latter men are not serious. Sixteen of the attacking party were arrested. The trouble was caused by the ore handlers referring to the freight handlers as "Mather's." The docks in the vicinity of the scene of the shooting are covered with policemen, and no further trouble is anticipated.

The strike on the docks has extended to the coal heavers at the Delaware and Lackawanna wharves. One hundred of these men have quit work. They apparently have no grievance of their own, and it is thought they went out in sympathy with the striking freight handlers. The housemen employed by the Anchor line also quit work last night. The feeling among the men employed along the docks is said to be uglier than at any time during the summer, and the present strike is almost certain to extend.

TWO HUNDRED DEAD.

Gold Hunters Perished on the Edmonton Trail.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 8.—The steamship Laurada is in port from Wrangell, Alaska, with news of the death and suffering of American miners who tried to reach the Klondike goldfields over the all Canadian route from Edmonton. Several parties reached Wrangell last week from the interior after spending from 12 to 20 months on the trail in a vain endeavor to reach the goldfields.

They say that no less than 200 prospective miners have lost their lives by drowning, starvation, exposure and freezing during the past winter. Most of these were Americans from the eastern states. Scarcy is now ravaging the miners who are stalled on the trail, and before relief can reach them many others will have died.

A DEADLY TORNADO.

City in Wisconsin Swept Out of Existence.

HUNDREDS KILLED AND INJURED. Substantial Brick and Stone Structures Are as Chaff Before the Furious Storm—The Search for the Dead and Missing.

NEW RICHMOND, Wis., June 14.—Indescribably sad are the scenes of desolation wrought by Monday night's tornado, that has practically swept out of existence the prosperous little city of New Richmond, out of 500 houses and stores buildings comprising the town fully 300 were wrecked by the storm or destroyed by fire. Almost every family has one or more members among the dead, injured or missing, and little groups are seen everywhere searching, by the light of lanterns or torches, for loved ones who may be buried in the piles of debris on every hand. With frantic energy the search has been conducted all day, and up to 9 o'clock last night 54 bodies had been found, although the number of dead certainly will reach 100 or more. These have, for the most part, been taken to the Catholic and Congregational churches, which, although in the very edge of the storm's path, miraculously escaped its fury.

In these temporary morgues the sights are such as to touch the hardest heart as the grief-stricken living recognize the bodies, horribly mangled and often dismembered, of missing dear ones.

The wounded find temporary asylums in the uninjured dwellings on either side of the path of devastation, where doctors and nurses from nearby cities and towns are doing heroic work without sleep or rest. The number injured cannot be told, but will probably reach 400. As many as possible of the injured whose chances for recovery are considered good are being sent to the hospitals at St. Paul and Minneapolis, where they will have better care.

It is the average resident of New Richmond who estimates the loss of life most seriously. They claim that hundreds are missing who were buried in the ruins and there incinerated. One such is C. A. Nelson, who owned the Columbus restaurant, located on Main street. His estimate of loss is 400 dead. He says that when the rainstorm which preceded the cyclone broke not less than 20 persons rushed into his place for shelter. He is positive that not more than four besides himself escaped. The building was a substantial brick structure.

The business portion of the city covered a space of four squares each way and was built solidly of brick and stone. This entire space was swept clear, foundation walls and in some places masses of debris alone marking where the business places formerly stood. Trees that had lined the streets of the neighboring residence district were broken clear off or twisted and uprooted. The tornado came up the river from Hudson where the damage was comparatively slight. Following the general course of the river and the branch of the Omaha road, the storm gained in intensity as it progressed, and was at its worst when it struck the business center of New Richmond.

NEBRASKA TOWN DESTROYED.

Not a House Left Standing in Herman—Many Killed by Tornado.

OMAHA, June 14.—The tornado that struck the village of Herman last evening wrought fearful destruction. A conductor on the evening train from Sioux City passed through the place not long after the storm, and he says not a building is left standing in town. He counted 12 dead bodies lying in the streets. The fatalities will undoubtedly run up to 100, if not higher. A special train has left Blair, the county seat, ten miles distant, for the scene of the disaster, carrying surgeons and all needed supplies. Wires are all down north of Herman, and it is not known how much farther north the storm went, but reports are coming in to the effect that a large portion of the country north of Herman is laid waste. The entire eastern portion of Nebraska is being swept by a terrific rain, wind and electric storm. The streets of Omaha are flooded, and the play of the lightning is fearful.

FITZSIMMONS KNOCKED OUT.

James Jeffries Wins the Fight at Coney Island.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., June 10.—James J. Jeffries, another sturdy young giant, has come out of the west to whip champion pugilists. At the arena of the Coney Island Athletic club last night he defeated Robert Fitzsimmons, world's champion in two classes—middleweight and heavyweight—in 11 rounds of whirlwind fighting. He came to the ring a rank outsider and left it the acknowledged master of the man he defeated. He was never at any time in serious danger and after the size up in the earlier rounds of the contest took the lead and was never headed. He had the Australian whipped from the ninth round and would have ended it in the tenth but for the lack of time.

The men fought before a crowd of 9,000 persons and stood up in a great beam of blinding white light. It was like a thousand calciums, and it showed their great white bodies in strange relief. When the blood came, it was of an intense red than usual. There was not a suggestion of interference from the police. Chief Devery occupied a seat by the ringside, but never entered the ring. When it was all over, he sent Captain Kennedy in to clean the ring of the principals. The contest was pulled off without a wrangle and was devoid of the brutal elements that Chief Devery alleged he feared. Never was a crowd handled with greater order and less friction. It was all perfectly orderly.

THE CLEVELAND STRIKE.

The Street Car Company Operates Cars With Outside Help.

CLEVELAND, June 14.—The officials of the Big Consolidated Railroad Company were evidently surprised yesterday by the success which attended the effort to move their cars. While every car Monday was surrounded by a howling mob, there was no disturbance of any kind during yesterday. While this was due in part to the vigilance of the police, who prevented the assembling of crowds, it was mainly attributable to the fact that the strikers made no effort to induce nonunion men to quit. In fact, the strikers remained away from the cars, and they were operated on one line at intervals of about 30 minutes, carrying a few passengers during the latter part of the day.

There is a feeling on the part of the members of the state board of arbitration that they can bring about a settlement of the differences in spite of the declaration of the directors of the company that they would not arbitrate the main question at issue—the recognition of the union.

THE ALASKAN BOUNDARY.

LONDON, June 10.—It is understood that the modus vivendi in the Alaskan boundary case has been settled in effect. The principal difficulty was the location of the Indian village of Kukwan. This has been agreed upon, England probably conceding the White and Chilkoot mountains. Delimitation, it is believed, will not be difficult.

The matter of Pyramid harbor was settled some time ago, and after the arrangement arrived at on Tuesday relating to Dalton's trail only a few minor points remained to be cleared up.

Paralysis

is sometimes caused by overwork, either mental or physical. There are many other exciting causes, such as exposure to cold, excesses, emotional influences, etc. The approach of the disease is generally gradual. Frequently the first warning is a vague feeling of headache, vertigo and muscular weakness.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

restore the nutrition of the nerves and have cured many cases of paralysis when all other remedies and methods of treatment have failed. The record of this remedy entitles it to thorough trial.

Perhaps there is no man better known in the city of Lawrence, Kansas, than Mr. G. H. Snyder. To a reporter Mr. Snyder related a wonderful story. He said: "I am now seventy years of age. About three years ago I experienced a coldness or numbness in the feet, then creeping up my legs until it reached my body. I grew very thin in flesh, my appetite was very poor and I did not relish my food. At last I became so bad I was unable to move about. I consulted several distinguished physicians, one telling me that I had locomotor ataxia, another that I had creeping paralysis. I took their medicines but they did me no good and I continued to grow worse. "One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I immediately commenced their use, throwing all other medicines away. Before I had finished my first box I found that they were benefiting me. I used twelve boxes in all and was perfectly cured." —From the Journal, Lawrence, Kan.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female.
