"To Err is Human."

But to err all the time is criminal or idiotic. Don't continue the mistake of neglecting your blood. When impurities manifest themselves in eruptions or when disordered conditions of stomach, kidneys, liver or bowels appear, take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The Late Mrs. Rachel M. Callender.

Rachel M. Callender was the youngand departed this life June 3, 1899. She was married to Stephen E. Callender, December 23, 1858, with whom she walked down life's path in peace and happiness until decease, January 27, 1899. She is survived by eight children—Delphene Gearhart, of Register; Sadie Gearhart and Josie Laubach, of Clarksview; Clark, of Carverton: Asa, of Bloomsburg Bruce and Claude, of Clarksview, and George, of Bloomsburg.

She has been an excellent mother and her mind was wrapped up in the welfare of her children, for whom she nabored and prayed. During the past fourteen years she had been feeble in body, yet she prayed to be spared until all her children became Christians, and having seen the desire of her heart for some time past, she has been patiently waiting the summons of the master.

She lived a Christian lite ever since she was a young girl. The Word of walked and talked with Jesus, and shortly after the midnight watches, while she was weary in body, God took her to Himself. Her children rise up and call her blessed. They realize that they have had the richest and best heritage that ever fall to the lot of children-a pure, kind, noble, lovely, prayerful and Christian-like mother. The Master has no doubt said to her: "Well done, thou good the joy of the Lord."-Record of Times.

An Odd Fellow Fifty Years.

Fifty years ago Wednesday night, June 7th, Capt. John M. Buckalew "rode the goat" in Mountain Lodge of Odd Fellows, at Orangeville. The brethren of Integrity Lodge, New Columbus, to which Capt. Buckalew is now attached, and a delegation of Mountain Lodge, accompanied by their ladies, gathered at Capt. Buckalew's home, at Jonestown, Wednesday night, and celebrated the anniversary in a way that the Captain will not soon forget. The visit was a complete surprise. The ladies served a fine luncheon, which added to the good cheer. Rev. J. C. Grimes, on links, presented Capt. Buckalew with a fine rug, into which was delicately woven all of the emblems of the or-

I. W. HARTMAN & SON,

Home Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Freas, at Orangeville, was the scene of a pretty and happy event on Wednesday morning of last week, when their daughter, Miss Harriet Coleman, a very popular and highly respected young lady, joined hands for lite with Mr. B. Frank Quick, of Bloomsburg. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate friends of the parties concerned, by Rev. Smith, of the Orangeville Methodist Episcopal Church.

The home was beautifully trimmed for the occasion with flowers and potted plants.

After the ceremony the happy couple received the felicitations of their many friends. They left on the early train on the Bloomsburg & Sullivan Railroad for a brief honeymoon in Delaware and other places.

The groom is a widely known man, and comes from a good family. He has been engaged for some time past as a clerk in the store of H. G. Supplee, on Market street, this town. His bride, likewise, is a charming and much beloved lady.

We join with their legion of friends in wishing them prosperity and unbounded happiness.
