| Curious Lite of a Great Australian Capilatist |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
| Mr. James Tyson, the Australian millionare, rose from the prsition of |  |
|  |  |
| millionaire, rose fram the $p$ pition of a plowman. He comnenced life as a mower on $$ 3$ a week, and died worth |  |
| $$ 25,000,000$. Ailt trongh his life he he remained an industrious plowman. |  |
| Poor or rich, he worked all day and every day, he never put on a whitc |  |
|  |  |
| shirt, never wore any but the plainest clothes, never owned a par of gloves, and never ate anything bur the coarse |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| plain food, to which, in his poor days, he had been accustomed. |  |
| ment and sought as little intercourse |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| money, did not give any away, and did not seek greatly to add to his |  |
|  |  |
| sore, and he never married. His |  |
| where no water was, to cover arid soil with grass, and to fill the land withgood stock. Having his whole force |  |
|  |  |
| good stock. Having his whole force concentrated on that business, he sucfenced, watered and stocked estate |  |
|  |  |
| after estate all over Australia, took leases of thousands of square miles and, when he died, was the greatest stock owner in the world, with half a leasehold almost beyond counting. |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| Business of the Week. |  |
| Dun & Company's weekly Review of Trade makes the following comment on the business of the past |  |
|  |  |
| ment on the business of the past  week : " It is one of the frequent paradoxes |  |
| "It is one of the frequent paradoxesof business that the one thing whichnow makes prices rise is the onlything that clouds the future. They |  |
|  |  |
| thing that clouds the future. They rise in iron and wheat because scarciny is feared, b |  |
|  |  |
| longed and real, would much impairprosperity. In wheat it does notseem to be teal, nor in iron lasting,and meanwhile other elements of |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| prosperity continue potent. It is a great (inng in money markets that ex ports of gold have caused no appre |  |
|  |  |
| borrowings by foreign bankers, the the May return of foreign commerce showing exports 23 millions larger |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| 59 cents in the export price of wheat, and a large increase in imports. In |  |
|  |  |
| eleven months the excess of merchandise exports has been 495 millions, |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| There is no better tonic for sensi- |  |
|  |  |
| tive feet than to plunge them daily into cold, decidedly cold, water.  Near!y all trouble with the feet can  be indsrectly traced to lack of circu- |  |
|  |  |
| lation, and there is no better method of bettering the clrculation than the few seconds, followed by a brisk rub |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| with a crash towel.  After a hot bath it is an excellent |  |
| just before drying. It not only keeps them from swelling, but is a pretty |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| sure preventive of colds. Feet that swell easily or are particu- |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| $\begin{aligned} & \text { From "Health and Beauty, } \\ & \text { Demorest's Magasine for July. } \end{aligned}$ |  |
| -Iron ore has been discovered on the property of United States Com missioner C. H. Woltjen, of Pottsville, on the Second Tumbling Run Moun-tain. A small shaft has been sunk and the vein will be worked |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| and the vein will be worked. |  |
|  |  |
| "I was a sufferer from fermale weakness. Every month regularly as the nenses came, Isuffered dreaif |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| G 1 |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| The doctor even gave me up and ers how $f$ ever lived. |  |
|  |  |
| "I wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's advic |  |
|  |  |
| bothes of tho coumpound and usect the Sanative Wash, and can truly may that |  |
|  |  |
|  casdes, N. J. $\qquad$  How Mrs. Brown Was Holped. "I must tell you that Lydia E. Pink- ham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than any doetor. "I was troutbled with  I was troutbled with irrogular menstruation. Last summer $I$ began   aen regular evory month since. 1 becommend your mediolne to ali."   PLumaskr, X. J. |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

