WASHINGTON. From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, July 10, 1899. It seems that Mr. McKinley is going into the business of Senator-making, notwithstanding the ill-fortune of other Presidents who have engaged therein. Assistant Secretary of War, Meiklejohn is the administration can- mission, which ended its official life didate for Senator Thurston's seat, he having stated his intention to retire March 3rd, 1901, when his term will expire. Of all branches of this administration the War Department is the worst from which a candidate for anything could be taken, and the democrats of Nebraska, who already had excellent chances for electing a majority of the next legislature, and Thurston's successor, ought to, and doubtless will, thank Mr. McKinley for making their task easier by backing the Assistant Secretary of War as the administration candidate for the Senate.

has it that the Alger-Pringree mix-up ants from the volunteers at large. is the personal work of Mr. McKinley, and that the entire influence of the administration is to be used to help Alger defeat Senator McMillan, provided, of course, that the republicans can elect a majority of the next Michigan legislature, a very important proviso, by the way. In view of what Alger has done to discredit the administration, this seems to be an astonishing sort of a deal, but those who have closely followed the various Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medinine Hanna-McKinley political deals from the spring of '96 to the present time find it difficult to be astonished at anything. According to this story, which may or may not be true, Alger has succeeded in convincing Mr. McKinley that all of the attacks on Algerism have been in reality attacks on entire administration, and that unless Alger weeks vacation. It is the best medcan be vindicated by an election to licine money can buy. the Senate all these charges will be placed against the McKinley administration by history. It is plain that the support of Alger by the McKinley administration will be an act of treachery to Senators McMillan and Burrows, both of whom have been steadfast administration men, but treachery mate Plenty of good hotels and cotto friends has long been a Hanna specialty, and administration Senators remainder of Mr. McKinley's term as they were when the republicans were short a majority in the Senate.

... A New Mexican who attended the recent Rough Riders reunion in that Territory has let a brand new Roosevelt cat out of the bag, He says that Gov. "Teddy" told his old comrades that a brigade of Rough Riders would be enlisted for the Philipines at once, and that he could command it, if he decided it advisable to resign the governorship of New York to take it. Nobody in Washington had heard a word of all this until the arrival of the gentleman from New Mexico. It may be merely a product of the "silly season", or it may be true, but if Gov. Roosevelt is willing to resign his present exalted position to go to the Philippines, he will surprise those who give him credit for knowing how to hold on to a good thing when he has it.

The Dance Must Go-

In commenting on the crusade against dancing, which was inaugurated several years ago by the Methodist ministers of Chicago, and recently revived by them, the Bradford County Republican says :

" The Methodist ministers of Chicago have combined their forces against dancing. This is an old-fashioned war of theirs, but it was generally supposed that they had modified their primitive objections to the dance. There are so many things in Chicago which might challenge the fiercest and noblest opposition of Methodist and all other ministers that a foray upon this particular evil, if it be an evil, is like a waste of orthodox powder. Dancing as a social pleasure has declined within 50 years and at the present rate of neglect will in time utterly disappear as a recreation. This has been noted all over the country, the disappearance being greatest in the crowded centers, where other amusements have taken the place of dancing. Thirty years ago out of concessions for various sorts of side little more than a series of balls the streets of London, claims not only the title and estates of Earl Poulett, but the furniture and ornaments in the great halls at Hinton St. George, says London Mail.

These include one of the finest private collections of tapestry in the worldtapestries bearing the design of Paul Veronese and other great masters, which are renowned for their beauty and value throughout the world of art. There are 17 of these splendid tapestries at Hinton St. George. They are all of the renaissance period and were made about 1570. Some of them have the Poulett arms woven into the fabric. As many of these splendid possessions of the Pouletts are as much as 20 feet in length, it may be readily understood that they occupy a great space in the halls.

These tapestries are valued at £1,000 each. That is their average price. Connoisseurs assert that several tapestries in the collection are worth £3,000 to £4,000 each. They are all in splendid condition, and if Viscount Hinton gets them they will constitute perhaps his most unique possession.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saved Mrs. Hayes From an Operation.

[LETTER TO MES. PINKHAM NO. 64.282] " DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-Words cannot express my thanks to you for your kind advice to me in regard to my health. I had been running down in health for about seven years. I had doctored with good doctors and taken a great many patent medicines. My trouble began when my first child was born. I had a very bard time and after its birth would have severe flooding spells. "After my second child I had very good health until last winter when again became pregnant and suffered very much and miscarried. I came very near dying, and the doctor said I must have an operation, which frightened me very much, and concluded to write to you for your advice, and take your medicine. Was troubled with the whites, great pain in back and hips, sometimes when lying down or sitting was unable to get up. Would have such pain in groins could hardly walk. "I can say I have never seen anything so wonderful as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. Your remedies have done wonders for me. Hoping that many of my suffering sisters may be led to take your medicine from reading this letter, I remain, sincerely yours, Mas. MARY HAYES, HARDINSBURG, KY."

Letters like the foregoing should convince everyone that Mrs. Pinkham's advice is certain help.
