The time is drawing nigh for the P. O. S. of A. excursion and picnic to Glen Onoko. It will be the largest of the season. Pleasant memories of last season's excursion to this picturrsque place still linger in the minds of those who attended. Go with them this time. You will not regret it.

A new county chairman will be elected on Saturday, the 29th inst. The place should not go begging, and the committee should be careful to select a good man who has the interests of the party at heart, and not give it to some one who merely wants to use the position as a stepping stone for his own political ad-vaucement.

A few weeks ago a forged check was passed in this town, but the culprit was never apprehended. On Friday Charles Hetzel, whose residence is given as Scranton, was arrested at Wilkesbarre for passing forged checks. The forged checks bore the names of prominent men of that city. It is now believed that he is the same fellow who practiced in Bloomsburg.

Pigeon Fancier, Boyd C. Evans, his birds in a long distance fly Saturday. They were sent by express to Union Station, Charlottesville, Virginia, from which place they were liberated at nine o'clock a. m. The distance by air line is 675 miles. They arrived home at 3:30 p. m., having covered the distance in six and a half hours making an average speed of 1241 yards per minute. This is considerable better than a record recently made by some prize homers of the Staten Island Homing Club, whose birds flew from the same place and under the same weather conditions, and only made 1128 yards to the minute. This concludes Mr. Evans' flys for this season.
