TREMENDOUS ENTHUSIASM SHOWN.

Mr. McKinley Makes a Speech In Which He Lands the Returning Volunteers - Pittsburg's Greatest Day.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 29.—The president reviewed the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers, just returned from the Philippines. yesterday. The occasion was one of tumultuous enthusiasm. The only thing lacking to make the day one of supreme happiness was the absence of the brave well beloved Colonel Hawkins, who In the boys in all of their battles and hared in all of their sufferings, but who was denied the privilege of marching at their head when they returned home to receive the plaudits of a grateful people.

Although the people from the surround ing counties began literally "pouring" into the city soon after the dawn of the day, the police had made such preparations that this influx did not create any throng so as to interfere with the line of From the point of starting in Alleghany over 2,000 officers, enrolled for the occasion from the different municipal departments of the two cities, were located along the line at certain intervals, and in this manner the immense concourse of oulookers was kept well under control.

The reception to the Philippine heroes began at New Brighton, Pa., when a committee of prominent Pennsylvanians welcomed them as soon as they had crossed the borders of the state.

After brief exercises and a hearty breakfast tendered by the citizens of New Brighton the regiment was rushed Into Alieghany. The train came in three sections, and immediately after the soldiers had disembarked the line of march to Schenley park, where the exercises were to be held, was taken up.

Governor William A. Stone was intro duced as chairman of the committee and delivered an address of welcome in be-

At the conclusion of Governor Stone's address President McKinley was introduced and, after the applause had ceased, spoke in part as follows

"Governor Stone and My Fellow Citizens-I am glad to participate with the families, friends and fellow citizens of the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers in this glad reunion.

"You have earned the plaudits not alone of the people of Pennsylvania, but of the whole nation. Your return has been the signal for a great demonstration of popular regard from your landing in the Golden Gate on the Pacific to your home coming, and here you find a warmth of welcome and a greeting from joyous hearts which tell better than words the estimate of your countrymen and their appreciation of the services you have rendered the country. You made secure and permanent the victory of Dewey. You added new glory to American arms. You and your brave comrades engaged on other fields of conflict have enlarged the map of the United States and extended the jurisdiction of American liberty.

"But, while we share in the joy that is yours, there remain with us softened and hallowed memories of those who went forth with you not found in your ranks today. Your noble colonel, devoted to his men, beloved by his command and respected by his superior officers, gave his life to his country, with many others of his comrades. The nation sorrows with the bereaved. These heroes died for their country, and there is no nobler

The senate of the United States ratified the treaty. Every step taken was in obedience to the requirements of the constitution. It became our territory and is ours as much as the Louisiana purchase or Texas or Alaska. A body of insurgents in no sense representing the sentiment of the people of the islands disputed our lawful authority and even before the ratification of the treaty by the American senate were attacking the forces who fought for and secured their freedom.

They suffered and sacrificed, they fought and fell, they drove back punished the rebels who resisted federal authority and who with force at tacked the sovereignty of the United States in its newly acquired territory.

"The government to which you gave your loyalty welcomes you to homes. With no blot or stain upon your record the story of your unselfish services to country and to civilization will be to the men who take your places at the front and on the firing line and to future generations an example of patriotism and an inspiration to duty."

MacVeagh Says Carter Is Innocent. WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.-The brief of General Wayne MacVeagh's argument in Captain Oberlin M. Carter's be half before the court martial has been made public. Captain Carter's trial and conviction by the court of embezzling large sums of money from the United States government are known throughout the country. The brief treats the case exhaustively and asserts the absolute innocence of Captain Carter. It denounces as "a sheer and absolute false the assertion that Captain Carter's friends and attorneys have repeatedly pleaded with the president for It denies with equal emphasis that these friends and counsel have tried "to delay or smother investigation into his case It is declared that Captain Carter has constantly urged the final and immediate disposition of his case.

ON THE BRINK OF WAR

Hostilities In South Africa Seem Almost Inevitable.

COMMENTS OF THE LONDON PAPERS.

Intense Interest Displayed by British Public and Great Indignation Expressed Against Premier Schreiner-Latest Moves.

LONDON, Aug. 30.-Commenting on the latest utterance of President Kruger of the Transvaal government as cabled from Cape Town, that the South African Republic adhered to its latest offer and would not make any further concessions, the afternoon papers here unanimously draw attention to the increased seriousness of the Transvanl tension. But in the same breath they express uncertainty regarding the nature of the concessions beyond which President Kruger says he will not go. No official announcement has been made of these, though they are generally understood to be a five year franchise and increased uitlander repre

"If this is correct," The Globe says, "it cannot be long before diplomacy has to stand aside as of no further service."

The Pall Mall Gazette says, "President Kruger's adherence to these would mean adherence to impossible conditions, and if so the situation has come to an ugly head."

The Westminster Gazette, while lamenting the immoderation which, it says, led to the present crisis, admits that "the country is within sight of a war which may shortly be as unavoidable as, on the merits of the question, it would be inexensuble.

To whatever dispatch or conditions President Kruger's defiant remark referred, it has brought home sharply the keen possibility of an impending war against no weak kneed adversary. It is said that, with recruits from over the borders, the Transvanl would have about 60,000 men at its disposal, whereas the most the British now could throw on the frontier would be 30,000, though, of course, this number would be materially nerensed within a month.

The British public is taking intense interest in the preparations of their own force already in South Africa. Indigna-tion against Hon. W. P. Schreiner, premier of Cape Colony, who in the Cape house of assembly declared that under the customs convention the Orange Free State was justified in importing arms through Cape Colony, is fairly general, though that section which believes that a Boer war would be a crime are making, by editorials, petitions, etc., what they appear to think is the last effort to avert hostilities.

The Johannesburg correspondent of

The Morning Post says, "President Kruger, in the course of an interview today (Tuesday) regarding the crisis, said he considered the Boer position best defined by psalm 83."

The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Chronicle says: "Events have taken an alarming turn. Great Britain, at the request of the uitlanders' council, has enlarged the original demands of Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commis-sioner, and is adopting the view of Cecil Rhodes, that President Kruger will never withstand an ultimatum. I have, however, high authority for asserting that President Kroger, the volksraad and the nation will unitedly resist an unconditional demand for giving effect to the Milner programme, but will concede reforms on the conditions already reported.

Many Leaving the Transvaal. LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail says: 'A pitiable scene was witnessed at the railway station today on the arrival from hannesburg of 150 children ents are too poor to come themselves. is estimated that 15,000 people have left the Transvanl since the crisis began. In the house of assembly the government announced that it was considering a proposal to afford greater facilities for women and children to leave Johannesburg.

Food For Porto Ricans.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.-The United States transport Kilpatrick, which sails from Brooklyn today for Porto Rico, will carry 500,000 pounds of provisions contributed for the relief of destitute Porto Ricans. The provisions include beans, hard bread, split peas and canned goods. The cargo will also include 45 cases of clothing and two cases of drugs. The Porto Rican relief committee, of which Governor Roosevelt is chairman, will ship 6,000 women's wrappers, 7,200 men's undershirts and a consignment of men's trousers and children's clothing. The committee has received a letter from Mrs. N. D. Baldwin of Derby, Conn., in which she says that the Wo man's club of Ansonia, Derby and Shelton has shipped to the association a barrel and a box of muslins, clothing, dress goods, buttons thread, needles, scissors and a tew dried groceries and canned goods. Subscriptions made to the committee of the association now aggregate $20,530. The National Bank of North America, the depository designated by the secretary of war, has received a to tal of $29,014.

Is Aguinaldo Dend?

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 30,-A special to The Dispatch from Hamilton, O., says: "F. O. Maya and Z. Tange, intelligent Japanese tea merchants of this city, have received a copy of the Chu Kizo Shinko, a newspaper printed in Nagoka, Japan, July 22, which contains a dispatch from Manila concerning the alleged death of Aguinaldo. Under the head ing, 'New Philippine Information," the paper prints the following: 'In the latter part of June near San Fernando Aguinaldo was kined by General Pio del Pilar. Pilar visited him to inquire about the death of General Luna and Aguinaldo answered that he never knew anything about the case and told Pilar to mind his own business, General Pilar then called Aguinaldo a liar and, pulling a pistol, shot Aguinaldo in the forehead, killing him instantly,' The Hamilton Japanese are impressed with the reliability of the paper and put great faith in the truth of the informaion it brings.'

HEROISM AT A FIRE.

St. Agnes' Convent at Sparkill Completely Gutted.

SPARKILL, N. Y., Aug. 29.-A fierce fire, swift and territying in its destructive power, swept through the group of buildings at St. Agnes' convent yes terday and left in its ashen wake the bodies of four victims. It wiped out nine out of a total of ten buildings in the group, and that it did not claim more victims is due alone to the bravery in the face of danger and death of the Sisters of Charity who conducted the convent and orphanage and the heroism of some of the older inmates.

The fire occurred about 1 o'clock in the morning and found the 400 tenants of the institution asleep. There was a hasty but timely warning that started the herole work of resene. Hundreds were got out in almost perfect order, but a score who risked their lives to save others were finally forced to either jump from the upper stories or make desperate dashes through stairways and corridors fided with flame and smoke.

The known dead are: Helen Brown, aged 6 years; Emma Mackin, aged 7 years, Jane —, aged 70 years, and Mary Kate McCarthy, aged 28 years.

For a New Trunk Line.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Tribune says: "It was reported yesterday that a New York syndicate representing the Vanderbilt interests was negotiating for the Western Maryland railroad as a tide water outlet. It is said that the syndicate would, if it secured control of the road, make it the outlet for a new trunk line to the west. At the Grand Central station officials of the New York Central said that that railroad was not negotiat-ing to acquire the Western Maryland It was also denied that the Vanderbilts were after it. It was said, however, that certain capitalists identified more or less with the Vanderbilt lines might be taking an interest in the
