M. Labori Appeals to Emperor William and King Humbert.

FOREIGNERS MAY ACQUIT DREYFUS.

The Testimony of Colonels Schwartzkoppen and Panizzardi, German and Italian Military Attaches at Paris in 1894, Is Discreet.

RENNES, Sept. 6.—Maitre Labori yesterday afternoon telegraphed personal appeals to Emperor William and King Humbert to grant permission to Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Colonel Panizzardi, German and Italian military attaches in Paris in 1894, to come to Rennes to testify in the trial of Captain Dreyfus. This is the news of the day and the chief topic of conversation in the cafes and resorts of the journalists this evening.

The appeals were couched in eloquent terms invoking the assistance of their majesties in the name of justice and humanity. They are quite supplementary to the formal application that will be made by the government commissary, Major Carriere.

The demand of Maitre Labori that the court martial should issue two verdicts, subject to the approval of the two sovereigns, came like a thunderbolt at yesterday's session. The step is fraught with momentous consequences, as it affords Emperor William an opportunity again to assume his favorite role of arbiter of the destinies of the world. No one will be surprised if Schwartzkoppen, in the name of the kaiser, makes a declaration that will practically decide the result of the trial.

Both Schwartzkoppen and Panizzardi must consult their respective sovereigns before starting, but the counsel for Captain Dreyfus fully expect them to arrive here, if they come at all, in time to give their testimony tomorrow, in which case the trial would probably conclude this week and the verdict be delivered on Friday or Saturday. This is the view that obtains now, differing somewhat from the feeling earlier in the day.

Colonel Jounast told Maitre Demange at the close of the session that if he received official notification that Colonels Schwartzkoppen and Panizzardi were coming to depose, he would be prepared to adjourn the trial pending their arrival. An adjournment of 48 hours would probably give them time to get here.

The appearance of Colonels Schwartzkoppen and Panizzardi would be the most sensational as well as the most important incident of the entire trial. Their depositions would be a formal and emphatic declaration that they never had any relations with the accused, and they would make such a statement that the court must order an acquittal. Those who are in the confidence of the counsel entrusted with the defense express a firm conviction that Dreyfus will now be acquitted.

Today's session opens with closed door to hear from Eugene Cernuschi, the Austrian political refugee, the name of the foreign attaché he has already mentioned as admitting that he had received trustworthy documents from Dreyfus. The remainder of his evidence will be given in public.

Simpson Wishes to Be Relieved.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—In an interview yesterday Rear Admiral Simpson confirmed the report that he had asked to be relieved of the command of the north Atlantic squadron after the Dewey reception at New York. The admiral said, "I some time since asked Secretary Long to relieve me of the command of the squadron after the reception to Admiral Dewey, but the secretary has not yet fixed a definite time when my relief shall be ordered."

Butterflies Fill the Air.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 5.—A strange sight was seen here yesterday when suddenly the streets all over the city were filled with butterflies. Hundreds of small boys captured boxes full of them. At times the roadways were covered and the air filled with them. Where they came from is a mystery. It is thought they were blown in from the far west, and it is feared that they will lay their eggs on the maple trees, causing much destruction to the trees.

Prince Comes to Wed Miss Grant.

After a brief rest here he will go to Newport, where he will remain until after the wedding. He is accompanied by his best man.

Hot in Chicago.

At 3 p. m. the government thermometer on the top of the Auditorium tower registered 98 degrees, and on the street level over 100 was reported in several places. A hot wind added to the general discomfort. Two deaths and nine cases of prostration were reported.

Cheaper to Pay Rent.

We have often heard the old saying "It is cheaper to move than to pay rent," but according to the following, this rule will not hold good: A decision recently handed down by the Supreme Court says that a landlord can compel his tenant to come to his office and pay rent. He need not look up the tenant and ask: "How about that little matter?" but can sit down, sue and get a judgment against him. A landlord telephoned his tenant last January and asked him to come around and pay his rent, but the tenant said "come and get it." More words passed, with the result that both engaged lawyers. It has just been decided in the landlord's favor, and it cost the lessee $200 to find this out.

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Sept. 4, 1899.

Washington democrats are much pleased with the nomination of Hon. John R. McLean for governor, by the Ohio democratic State convention, not only because they believe him to be a strong candidate but because they like the man and think the Ohio democrats honored themselves in honoring him.

Those who know what is going on under the surface, in Washington, are wondering whether Mr. McKinley is going to be so unwise as to allow himself to be used by the little clique of New York millionaires to increase the value of their property in Santo Domingo, by putting his fingers in the revolution now going on there. They have had power enough to bring Secretary Hay back to Washington two weeks earlier than he was expected, and it is understood to be at their request that Mr. McKinley will return tomorrow, instead of a week later. They are not asking much! Only that Mr. McKinley shall stop the revolution and declare a U. S. protectorate over Santo Domingo. A nice mess that would be, with all the other race troubles we already have on our hands.

The rush for commissions in the new volunteer regiments for the Philippines is greater now than it was for those in the ten regiments recently organized, but reports from the various recruiting stations show that enlistments are much slower—so much slower that the War Department has notified that the recruiting officers that they are expected to get more recruits than they have been getting.

A prominent Boston business man, who was in Washington this week said of the platform that will be adopted by the Massachusetts democratic State Convention, which will meet Sept. 21: "It will reaffirm every plank of the Chicago instrument, will roast the trusts in stinging English, denounce the inhuman massacre of the liberty-loving Filipinos, and declare that the imperialist policy of McKinley, if unchecked, will be the death knell of the republic." The same man predicted that Massachusetts would send a solid Bryan delegation to the National Convention.

In view of the promise made in the official proclamation of the Philippine Commission, issued last April, that "Local funds collected for local purposes, shall not be diverted to other ends," there is ground for the complaints at Manila, reported by uncensored cablegrams, via Hong Kong, on account of the action of Gen. Otis in using funds collected as local taxes for the support of the army. The country was told that every effort would be made by the administration to obtain the confidence of the peaceable Filipinos. Taking the taxes collected for local benefit to help support an invading army will strike most persons as a very poor way to obtain the confidence of the peaceable Filipinos. It was because of broken promises that they revolted against Spain. The McKinley administration has repeatedly stated its entire approval of the acts of Gen. Otis; it is therefore directly responsible for this wrongful use of money collected over there. It may have been the knowledge that a portion of the expenses of the large army in the Philippines was to be paid with taxes collected from the natives which prompted Secretary Gage to say that neither additional war taxes nor more bonds would be necessary to meet the increased expenditures caused by the increased army. The American people, as a whole, regardless of individual opinions as to the future of the Philippines will never endorse a national policy that includes deception and oppression of weaker people. Such a policy will quickly wipe out Mr. McKinley's platitudes about the Stars and Stripes standing for the same thing in the Philippines that they do in this country. The people of this country would not allow such imposition upon themselves, nor will they stand for its being practiced upon the people of any other country by the government of the U. S. Fortunately the days of reckoning with the officials of our government are not so far apart as they are in other countries.

So much has been written about the better class of Cubans favoring annexation that most readers have accepted it as a fact, but a New York business man who was recently in Havana declares that he hunted in vain for this alleged annexation sentiment among any class of Cubans. He says that after talking with all classes of Cubans he became satisfied that the predominating sentiment towards the U. S. among them was hatred. He thinks this is because of difference in race and customs—a difference that is practically permanent. This gentleman was not prejudiced. He went to Havana believing in the existence of a strong annexation sentiment and was disappointed because he could not find it.
