

SIX NEGROES KILLED

Illinois Mining Troubles Break Out Afresh.

THE GOVERNOR ORDERS OUT TROOPS

The Feud Between the White and Colored Miners at Carterville Which Has Existed for a Year Seems Far From Settlement.

CARTERVILLE, Ill., Sept. 18.—A street fight between a crowd of negro miners of Brush's mine in Carterville and Carterville white miners at noon yesterday resulted in the death of six negro nonunion miners.

The white men at once opened fire, and when the shooting ceased six of the negro miners were dead and one mortally wounded. None of the white miners was injured.

The killed are Rev. T. J. Floyd, Huse Bradley, John Black, Henry Braun, two unidentified. Mortally wounded, Sam Cummins. Cummins, the wounded negro, was reported last night as dead.

Trouble has existed here off and on for over a year, but no fatalities occurred until June 30, when a passenger train on the Illinois Central railroad was fired into and one negro woman killed.

Superintendent Donnelly of the Brush mines, where the negroes reside, reports that the negroes were worked into a frenzy and that while he is doing all in his power to hold them in check he is afraid that he cannot do so much longer.

Company C, Fourth regiment, I. N. G., arrived here last night and will endeavor to preserve order. Forty miners from the Herrin mines are reported to have left that place for this city armed with Krag-Jorgensen rifles and determined to assist the white miners here.

One of the dead negroes is a preacher, the others are laborers. One of the negroes when first shot started to run. He was shot again and fell. One of the white men then ran up and shot him through the head with a rifle.

The shooting took place immediately in front of Mayor Zimmerman's house and in full view of several ladies seated on the porch. Before the noise of the first shots had died away the streets began to fill with excited armed men.

OFFICIAL PROGRAM.

Dewey Reception Will be a Handsome Souvenir Well Worth Reserving.

The preparation of the New York State official program of the Dewey reception is now in progress, and orders are received from all over the country and abroad for this great popular souvenir of this national event.

which indicates the interest manifested by the general public in the great reception to be extended to Admiral Dewey on his arrival in New York, September 28.

The State legislative committee, of which Senator John Raines is chairman, has perfected all arrangements for the Dewey reception.

Mr. George T. Parker has returned from Washington, where he had been in consultation with the navy and other officials. The indications now are that from an artistic standpoint the State program will be equal, if not superior, to any souvenir program of like nature ever published.

The official design adopted by the committee is an illuminated cover illustrating the life of Admiral Dewey from his entrance to the Naval Academy to the battle of Manila Bay, which is lifelike and realistic.

The vivid picture of the "Man Behind the Guns" is but a fitting tribute to the gallant man who fought with Dewey on that memorable May morning.

The portrait of Dewey in the center, under the eagle and flags, represents the "fighting Commodore" in his uniform as Admiral of the Navy of the United States.

Scenes from the battle of Manila Bay, and other interesting matter, and among other features an engraved reproduction of the sword to be presented to Admiral Dewey, as well as a facsimile of his commission as Admiral, signed by the president of the United States, and sent to the Admiral on behalf of the people and Congress of his country.

Portraits of national, State and city authorities will be likewise included, the Senate and Assembly of the State will be well represented by engraved portraits of the Senators and Members. Many other features, together with the full official program of the naval and land parades, will make this program well worthy of preservation as a memento of an extraordinary event in the history of the Empire State.

Orders, enclosing the price, 25 cents postal note, should be sent to George T. Parker, treasurer, 253 Broadway, New York, and they will receive prompt attention.

WHILE THERE IS LIFE THERE IS HOPE.—I was afflicted with catarrh could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

THE BALM reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts. or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Beauty is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarella's Candy Cathartic cleans your blood and keeps it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body.

Begin today to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarella's—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

A New Way to Get a Husband. We have heretofore heard of brides setting themselves in a tub of butter, but in this case only her card was in the butter.

Miss Belle Laffin, a farmer's daughter, residing near Great Bend, wrote her name and address upon a card and imbedded it in a tub of butter, which her father was shipping to a Philadelphia commission house, six months ago.

She requested the finder to write to her. Ten days later the chef of one of Philadelphia's leading hotels wrote to Miss Laffin, who promptly replied. A month later the chef came to the Laffin homestead. There will be a pleasant wedding in Great Bend township during the holidays, and Miss Laffin will be the bride.

DRESSING TO HANG.

His Execution Fixed by Governor Stone for November 15th.

Governor William A. Stone last week fixed Wednesday, November 15th, as the time for the execution of Edward Cressinger, who, it will be remembered, brutally murdered Daisy Smith, in Northumberland county, about a year ago.

The details of this horrible crime are still fresh in the memory of our readers, and it is not necessary here to repeat them.

The counsel for the defense, Attorneys Oram and Clement, firmly believe that Cressinger is insane and they have not yet given up hope of saving him from the gallows.

On October 9th, at Pittsburg, they will argue their case before the Supreme Court.

Don't Pay to be Mean. The story is told of a man who gave a note recently without a revenue stamp on it. He said it was unnecessary, as he would pay it in a few days.

When the note became due he refused to pay it, and pleaded as a defence that there was no stamp on it. He won that case, but now he is under arrest, charged with violating the revenue law, and the costs already amount to several times more than the note.

A mean man always gets "caught up with" in the long run.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarella's Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

Judge Biggle not only knows a great deal about horses, but what is more important he knows how to impart his information in a way that will be understood. One does not have to wade through a great mass of undigested, unimportant matter.

The Biggle Books are models of clearness and consciousness. They are advertised in another column. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Milton Fair. The fifteenth Annual Fair of the Milton Driving Park and Fair Association will be held at Milton, Pa., October 3, 4, 5 and 6, 1899.

The outlook indicates the most successful Fair in the history of the Association. A new road has been opened to the grounds, by which they may be reached by those persons whose horses shy at trolley cars.

The trolley road running by grounds affords the best facilities for handling crowds. Both electric and steam roads issue special rates and special service. Trains stop at entrance. The premium list has been revised, offering great inducements to owners of fast horses, stock raisers, farmers, and manufacturers generally.

Competition unrestricted. Grand stand has been remodeled, track worked, and accommodations generally improved. Trials of speed in harness each day, bicycle races each day. Full particulars in pamphlets will be had by addressing Edwin Paul, Secretary, Milton, Pa.
