SEVEN FORTS TAKEN

General Snyder Makes Havoc With Insurgents.

UTTERLY ROUTED NEAR CEBU.

Tennessee Troops Were Embarked For Homeward Trip, but Left Ship to Join In Fight-Nineteenth Infantry In the Mountains.

MANILA, Sept. 27, - Colonel Simon Snyder, commander of the Nineteenth infantry, with 517 men, has captured the insurgent forts in the island of Cebu The insurgents were completely routed. The Americans had one man killed and four wounded. The enemy is believed to have lost 40 men.

OTIS CABLES VICTORY.

General Snyder Utterly Routs Filipinos Near Cebu,

WASHINTON, Sept. 27.-A dispatch has been received from Manila by the war department stating that General Snyder attacked the position of the insurgents five miles west of Cebu and destroyed seven forts and quite a number of smooth bore cannon.

The insurgents were utterly routed, and Snyder returned with his force to

The Tennessee regiment was already aboard transport to come home, but dis-embarked to take part in the engage-

The following is the text of General

Otis' message: "On Sept. 22 and 28 Snyder attacked strong insurgent positions about five miles west of Cebu with 265 officers and men of the Tennessee regiment and 517 officers and men of the Nineteenth, Sixth and Twenty-third infantry and Sixth artillery, driving enemy from works and capturing seven forts, including smooth bore cannon mounted therein and 14 intrenched and fortified places. Our loss, Private William M. Hanley, Company A, Sixth infantry, killed, and four wounded. Enemy's loss estimated at 40. Insurgents retreated to new fortifications far southwest. Snyder returned to Cebu with Tennessee troops, who had disembacked from transport Indiana to take part in the action. Two companies of the Nineteenth infantry hold important positions in the mountains,"

The General Snyder referred to is the colonel of the Nineteenth infantry. Simon Snyder is a native of Pennsylvania and was appointed to the army from that state. He is not a West Pointer. In May, 1861, he joined the Fifth infantry as second lieutenant, and his promotions thereafter were: First lieutenant, June 25; captain, July 1, 1863; major of the Eleventh infantry, March 10, 1883; transferred to Fifth infantry May 17, 1883; lieutenant colonel, Tenth infantry, Jan. 2, 1888; colonel, Nineteenth infantry, Sept. 16, 1802. This is today his rank in the army. May 4, 1808, he was made a brigadier general in the volunteers, and later accompanied his regiment to the Philippines.

MISSING BOAT FOUND.

The Urdaneta Burned and Her Crew Captured.

MANILA, Sept. 26 .- A boat's crew of the Petrel proceeded down the Pasig riv-er and found the gunboat Urdaneta burned and riddled by the insurgents. The wreck was lying opposite Orani. The boat had not been heard from for ten days. A Colt automatic, a Nordenfeldt and a one pounder had been taken off. One officer and the crew of nine were missing.

The Urdaneta had been patrolling the shore on the north of Manila bay. Her long continued absence caused great anxiety, as it was thought that her coal had been exhausted. A search for her was then decided upon. Natives who were in-terrogated by Lieutenant Franklin, in command of the gunboat Laguna de Bay, told that officer that the Urdaneta had bombarded the town of Orani on Sunday. The crew had landed to take possession, when they were seized by a large body of insurgents who had laid a trap for them. According to the natives, the prisoners were removed to Porac, and the gunboat was at once looted and scuttled.

American Tools In Germany. LONDON, Sept. 26.-The Berlin corre spondent of The Daily Mail, in a dispatch dealing with the great increase of American iron and steel imports into Germany, says: "I learn that the Garvin Machine company and the Niles Tool works are going to erect large plants in Berlin. Other important American firms, including the Buffalo Forge company, are expected to follow suit. There is an average of $12,000 value of iron tools alone imported weekly from New York."

Kenrsnrge Salls Well. BOSTON, Sept. 26 .- The United States
