HONEST, ABLE CANDIDATES.

commendable fearlessness in the prosecution of law brenkers. He is a good and impressive speaker, and has won an enviable reputation among his fellow members of the bar.

"His ambition has always been to excel in the work of his chosen pro-fession, never having any desire for any office not in line with his life work. consequently he is a good lawyer and stands high in the foremost rank of the profession in the West Branch vul-

"At the convention nominating mm Mr. Reilly was made permanent chair-man. His administration of that confessedly difficult position throughout was such as to command the confi-dence and respect of the convention. His speech on assuming the position, his instantaneous, accurate and just rulings evinced a readiness, coolness of judgment, accurate comprehension and ability in a quasi judicial position of the highest order. The situation during the long sittings of the convention was trying indeed, but so fair and fearless were all of his rulings that no dissatisfaction therewith or confusion was at any time apparent. His conduct of the proceedings won for him the esteem and confidence of all the delegates and others in attendance. He was not himself a candidate before the convention, and had no thought of becoming one. No candidate for the office of superior court judge had announced himself. So it was that when an officer of the convention suggested Mr. Reilly's name the suggestion struck the convention so favorably, and seemed so appropriate, that he was unanimously nominated almost before he could protest, had he been inclined to do so.

"That such a man would make a great judge and add lustre to the able court now presiding will not be for one moment questioned or admit of doubt. He would be a desirable acquisition to that court. If elected he will grace the bench and will be found to be one of its most industrious, painstaking and capable members. NEWSPAPER COMMMENDATION.

Numerous strong encomiums upon Mr. Reilly's candidacy have appeared in the public press of those parts of the state where he is best known personally. In addition to these, there have been reasons urged by Republican jour nals for the defeat of the Quay candidate for the superior court, and the following selections are from among the commendations which Philadelphia newspapers bestow upon Mr. Reilly as a lawyer, and is one of the leaders of the bar in his section of the state. If he should chance to be elected-and that, too, is a contingency to be reckoned with-he would undoubtedly make a useful member of the superior court bench. Altogether, the Demo-cratic state convention of 1899 has done its work exceedingly well, and achieved for itself a unique and enviable place in the political history of the state."-Phila. Eve. Telegraph, Rep. CREDITABLE TO THE DEMOCRATS.

HIGH REPUTATION AS A LAWYER. "Mr. Reilly has a high reputation

"The nominations of Charles J. Reilly, of Lycoming county, for the superior court, and Representative William T. Creasy, of Columbia county, for state treasurer, are also creditable to the judgment of the convention. The Democrats are in a better position than they have been in for some years past to make a lively and aggressive campaign on state issues. They have shown good judgment in the work of the convention generally, and they have now the opportunity to make an interesting fight in taking advantage of the widespread discontent among fairs of his county and district and for four terms served as a school director of his native township. In 1893 he was asked to accept the office of mercantile appraiser, and faithfully served in that capacity during his term of office

In 1894 by the urgent request of his many friends he became a candidate for the legislature, received the nomi-nation and was elected. He was renominated in 1896 without opposition, and again elected.

Although the rule in Columbia county is to give only two terms to its members, in Farmer Creasy's case it was set aside and he was forced to ac-cept a third term, and in 1898 was again unanimously nominated and elected. Mr. Creasy's ability and integrity had become well known to the Democracy of the state, and the Democratic press with prominent men of that party, throughout the commonwealth, urged his constituency to return him again to the legislature, so that the party could have a tried and trusted champion on the floor whom the minority could depend upon as a zealous and faithful leader in the struggles for better government.

ACHIEVEMENTS AS A LEGISLA-TOR.

His constituency needed no prompting, for they well knew his worth before this, and he was triumphantly returned for a third time. His party in the legislature gave him the unanimous nomination as their choice for speaker in recognition of his ability and fidelity to the principles of reform in state affairs, which he and his col-leagues on the minority side were bravely battling for.

In the memorable session of 1895 Mr. Creasy first came into prominence in his fight against the "Marshall pipe line bill," and in the same session was the advocate of the farmers when the "Riter equalization tax bill" was before the house. He took an active stand against the banking bill, superior court bill and the public grounds bill, all of which were to increase of-ficials and take from the treasury many thousands of dollars.

In the session of 1897 his honest and sincere work in the house won for him the admiration of many of his Republican colleagues, and no better compliment could be paid him than that uttered by a most prominent Republican politician, who in speaking of the work of that session said: "While in the last legislature (1897) some of the Democratic senators and a number of the Democratic members of the lower house, led by the incor-ruptible Creasy, of Columbia county, were always found on the side of the people

CHAMPION OF HONEST LABOR. At all the sessions he was an earnest advocate of all bills that tended to alleviate the condition of the workingman, and his fight in committee to restore to the laboring people the Orme store order bill will never be forgotten by them. Farmer Creasy stood by the Bullitt charter bill in this seasion when it was in danger.

The Andrews bank bill would have taken away all protection to depositors by allowing stockholders after looting

GOOD NEWS FOR OUR READERS Who have crofula taints in their blood, and who has not? Scrofula in all its forms is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla which thoroughly puri-fies the blood. This disease, which frepoently appears in children, is greatly to dreaded. It is most likely to affect the glands of neck, which become enlarged, eruptions appear on the head and face, and the eyes are frequently affected. Upon its first appearance, perhaps in slight eruptions or pimples, scrofula should be entirely eradicated from the system by a thorough course of Hood's Sarsaparilla to prevent all the painful and sickening consequences of run-ning scrofula sores which drain the system, sap the strength and make existence utterly wretched

"There's such a thing," remarked the car-penter after hitting his thumb nail for the second time, "as a man being altogether too painstaking in his work."

There have been poultry books printed costing fifteen dollars and more, but there never has been one at any price with more beautiful colored reproductions of poultry, than these found in Biggle Poultry Book, an announcement of which appears in another column. The paintings were made direct from best birds of the different breeds, and the coloring and characteristic shape of each breed are perfect. As for the text, there never was a book printed containing more practical, level-headed information. Its chap-ters include, "Eggs for Hatching," 'Hatch-ing the Eggs," "Care of Chicks with Hens ing the Eggs, "Care of Chicks with Hens and Brooders," The Successful Care of In-cubators," "The Farmer's Flock," "The Village Hennery," chapters on "Breeds," on "Fattening and Marketing," and "Diseases and Remedies," with the old and new meth-ods of treatment. MR. CREASY'S RECORD.

The Hon, William Trenton Creasy, Democratic nominee for state treasurer, was born Feb. 23, 1856, on the farm on which he now resides in Catawissa township, Columbia county. He is the son of Nathan Creasy, who was one of the county's most worthy and respected citizens. The candidate's ancestors were of the earlier settlers of Pennsylvania and New Jorsey, many of them taking an active part in the war of the revolution, and afterwards were always active in the development of their country's inter-

William T. Creasy was educated in the common schools of his neighborhood and the Catawissa academy, and graduated from the Bloomsburg State Normal school in 1875. He also received, under a private tutor, a German education in connection with his other studies.

the age of 16 he commenced teaching school, and continued in that profession for a number of years. He began farming for himself in the spring of 1876, which occupation he has followed ever since, devoting much of his attention to stock raising and fruit growing. Mr. Creasy was the originator of the "White Plymouth Rocks," and first exhibited them at the great poultry show held at Madison Square Garden. New York city, in 1886, and besides getting the first prize, received many encomiums from the leading poultry men of the United States and Canada.

His orchards, vineyards and various small fruit sections of his well kept farm forcibly reveal the careful atten-tion given to this work, while his well filled barns and granaries show that "He plows deep while sluggards sleep." Mr. Creasy has a distinctively agri-cultural ancestry, who, after fighting in the revolutionary war, settled in central Pennsylvania, near a spot which is now known as "Creasy Station," on the Pennsylvania railroad, bordering the Susquehanna river, near Bloomsburg

In short, Mr. Creasy bitterly opposed all schemes to loot the terasury, not only in special measures, but also in the general appropriation bill. When the scheme was concocted by the Quay machine to cut the school appropriation one million and a half each year Mr. Creasy headed the opposition, and by his untiring efforts in the last days of the session succeeded in defeating it, much to the discomfiture of the schemers

QUALITIES AS A REFORM LEADER. It was in this session that "Farmer' Creasy's ability as a leader was speci-ally recognized by his colleagues, and although very modest in his demeanor and besides very unassuming in char-acter he was nevertheless against his desire forced to the front and with commendable skill led the minority in the house through the most iurbulent part of the session with much credit. In the last legislature he was given the honor of the caucus nomination for speaker by his party and he won the esteem of his fellow members for his leadership on the floor and his struggles for the rights of the people. He was a member of the legislative committee of the State Grange, and as such represented the farm interests on the floor of the house. Here he championed the "tax conference bill," which passed the house, and was in the interest of the real estate owners of the commonwealth. In the same session he served on the standing committees on ways and means, agricul ture, appropriations and health and sanitation.

In the prolonged contest for United States senator Mr. Creasy, was con-spicuous as one of the leaders to whom the credit belongs for the noble stand made by the Democratic legislators, and for the proof given to all independents that they can proceed in their efforts for the overthrow of Quayism and the Republican machine with enthe Democratic
