Governor Stone's Proclamation Alludes to the Prosperity of the State and Nation.

The Thanksgiving proclamation of Governor Stone, issued Friday last, names Thursday, November 30, as

The proclamation reads as follows: "A condition of prosperity without precedent prevails throughout our Commonwealth and the Nation. Our crops have been bountiful and labor has employment. No epidemic or fatal disease has visited our State, but general good health has prevailed among all the people. Discoveries have been made in science which will be of great benefit to our people, and our State has advanced in wealth, in education and general improvement.

"A deeper comprehension and appreciation of our nationality exists at home and abroad. Confidence has been strengthened in our capacity to cope with other nations, not alone in national war fare, but in commerce

News of the transvaal occupy a large amount of space and it may be interesting to know the meaning of some of the words so frequently used in relation to affairs in that plucky means farmer and burgher is applied to citizen. The word "Oom" used so frequently with Paul Kruger means uncle. The foreign population is called Uit landers, and the straataad is the council of state. The volksraad is the lower house of congress and the raad the senate. Vaderlandsliefde, a word that can only be pronounced with a hot potato in the mouth, is the Dutch for patriotism.
