TOO MUCH LIBERTY.

Justice Brown Denounces Sensational Journalism.

ADDRESS BEFORE NEW YORK BAR.

The Mind of Man Conceives Nothing Worse Than Sunday Issues-Press Holds Reputations at Its Mercy.

Private Character Assailed. ALBANY, Jan. 17 .- The principal address before the State Bar association at its meeting in the assembly chamber last ight was by Mr. Justice Brown of the United States supreme court upon "The diberty of the Press," in which he severely denounced what he termed sensational journalism. In opening his adiress Justice Brown admitted that too much could not be said in praise of the iaily press as newsgatherers. Their enterprise in that direction is superior to every obstacle. No quarter of the globe s too remote, no expense too great. their news columns are a refreshing conrast to the deadly dullness of the contiaental papers. All this, however, does set blind us to the fact that many of these papers are guilty of a grave abuse their privileges.

"Ugly stories are told," he said, "of the nethods resorted to to create a sensation er to advertise a paper, of correspondents ent to Washington with instructions to lacken the character of particular men regardless of facts, of editorial space old for so much a line, of spies put upon houses to unearth domestic scandals or apon the steps of public men to ferret out political secrets, of respectable wouen detailed to walk the streets at night, get themselves arrested as disreputable and spend a night in prison for the sake of a startling article upon the infamous persecution of working women and of vaious other contrivances by which reporters are sent not to investigate facts, but o make a case by hook or crook against ome prominent official. For the credit of humanity, not to say for the honor of great profession, let us hope that these stories are untrue.

"The next step in their downward cawas the illustrations, and such illusrations! Pictures of current events, of pattles, of murders and sudden deaths. cometimes copied from photographs, oftener drawn from imagination. "All of these extravagances culminate n the weekly Sunday morning editions. if there be another worse than these the mind of man hath not hitherto conceived them. Probably no law could be framed which could cover such cases, since matzers of taste are beyond the pulse of the law, but it is to be regretted that the creat mass of the American people are so mperfectly educated as to take pleasure in these abortions of the engraver's act.

But it is in its assaults upon private character that the press is guilty of its greater cruelties, for no other word in the English language will adequately express the nature of these attacks.

DOINGS IN CONGRESS

Senate Still Discussing the Philippine Question.

PETTIGREW'S AMENDMENT REJECTED

The House Minority Leader Attacks Secretary Gage-Accuses Him of Unfair Dealing - Hopkins Defends That Official's Action.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.-The senate is still in the throes of discussion of the Philippine question, and apparently there is no near approach to a deliverance upon the subject. Mr. Vest of Missouri yesterday voiced the opinion of many senafors when he said that such discussion as was now in progress was of no consequence, as the country was confronted a state of facts that could not be changed by talk.

Mr. Pettigrew's resolution of inquiry and Mr. Lodge's substitute for it were laid on the table, and Mr. Hoar's general resolution of inquiry as to the facts of the Philippine war was taken up. effort of Mr. Pettigrew to amend it so as to call for the president's instructions to the Paris peace commissioners led to a prolonged debate. After the senate had considered the matter behind closed doors the amendment was rejected by a vote of urgent deficiency appropriation bill was taken up in the house under an agreement which limited the general debate to that day. It was the general expectation-that it would open up a stormy debate upon the question of expansion in view of the large army and navy items it contains, but the members early became very much engrossed in a discussion of an item of $150,000 for rural free delivery, in which all are personally interested, and the subject of expansion was barely touched upon,

Mr. McLaurin (Dem., S. C.) addressed the senate on the financial question, making an argument in favor of his proposition to confer authority upon state banks to issue circulating notes.

The senate committee on interoceanic canals agreed unanimously to report a bill for the construction of the Nicara-gua canal. The bill is the same as that reported favorably in the house by the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, with a few verbal amendments.

The last hour of the debate was en livened with an attack by Mr. Richardon, the minority leader, upon the secretary of the treasury for his course connection with the sale of the New York custom house. He rehearsed the charges that Secretary Gage had been guilty technically of embezzlement in connection with the sale of the enstom house in depositing the proceeds in a national bank which was a government depository instead of the treasury of the United States, but declared that this charge would not hold. His purpose, he said was to show that the National City bank had been favored on account of the contributions of its directors to the Republican campaign fund of 1896 and to show that the course of the secretary in allowing the purchase price to remain in the bank while at the same time paying rent for the property and keeping it exempt from taxation was not dealing fairly with the trust funds of the government.

Mr. Hopkins of Illinois championed the course of the secretary, declaring that his reply to the house resolution answered every charge brought against him and displayed business ability that must meet the approval of all fair minded people.

Tailors Form a Trust.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The Record to-day says: "Negotiations are pending for the consolidation of Chicago 'tailors to the trade,' with a capitalization of $5,-000,000 or more. The new combination will be known as the United Tailors and will apparently control the wholesale custom tailoring industry of the country Interests to be merged represent a business volume of over $10,000,000 a year. Relief from trade abuses and the evils of excessive competition are named as the motive of the amalgamation rather than an attempt at a 'corner.' In the one item of sample books alone it is estimated a saving of $1,000,000 a year will result."

Trial of Dr. McGiffert.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The charges against the Rev. Dr. Arthur Cushman McGiffert were brought before the presbytery yesterday by their formulator, the Rev. Farm Products. WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 .- Mr. Frank H. Hitchcock, chief of the foreign man kets division of the agricultural department, has prepared an interesting colla-tion of figures showing for the first time the respective amounts of our agricultural exports which go to the several countries of Europe and to other countries. period covered is 1894 to 1898. The statement shows that the agricultural prodnets exported from the United States during the five years had an average annual value of $063,536,201. Of these enormous exports about 60 per cent found a market in the United Kingdom and its various dependencies. The sum paid by the British people for the American farm produce purchased during the period mentioned reached as high as $403,953,854 a year. Great Britain alone took more than one-half of all our agricultural exports, the consignments credited to that coun try forming about 55 per cent of the total hipments and having an average annual value of $362,407,701.

Germany, which ranks next to the United Kingdom as a market for the products of American agriculture, received about 13 per cent of the exports offer. for 1894-98, the average yearly value amounting to $86,320,274. France, with purchases that averaged $43,988,790 a year, or about 6.6 per cent of the total, was the third country in importance. These three countries—the United Kingdom, Germany and Francereceived together nearly 75 per cent of the total agricultural exports.

The summary brings out the fact that about SS per cent of all the farm produce shipped from the United States during the five years mentioned was marketed Europe, the annual average being $586,958,907.

WRECK IDENTIFIED.

Thought to Have Been the Helgoland, an Oil Steamer.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 17.-Every thing goes to show that the wrecked steamer is the Helgoland, the property the Deutsche-American Petroleum company. Among a number of flags picked up near Holyrood was one with the colors blue, white and red, with the letter "R" in the center. This is the house flag of that company. Taken with the finding of the boat off Cape Pine, it seems to leave no doubt as to the identity of the vescel. A life buoy was also picked up with the name of the steamer painted on it, but the lettering was partly illegible from fire and water.

Other flags found were a German ensign and a dark red flag with a yellow cross and the letter "R."

The Helgoland, Captain Von Rittern, which sailed from Philadelphia Jan. 5 for Bergen, Norway, was built at New-castle, England, in 1890 and registered 1,563 tens. She was owned by the Deutsche-American Petroleum company
