ANTI-TRUST CONVENTION.

Call For Conference to Be Held at Chiedgo Feb. 12. To the American People:

We believe the criminal conspiracies in restraint of trade commenty known as trusts, which ... alarmingly characterize the present times, are a menace to liberty. They close the doors of business opportunity to all but the rich and powerful. They impoverish the producer and consumer. They degrade labor. They have seized upon the avenues of transportation and poisoned the fountains of public information. They debauch the elective franchise. They are public enemies. Unless they are overthrown there will be established in free America a monied oligarchy on the one hand and a serfdom of the masses of the people on the other. They must be destroyed or free government is lost. The only power ca pable of successfully combatting the tyranny of these gigantic capitalistic monopolles is the aroused and organized hosts of the people to whom the government and the country rightfully belong and in whom all power of right inheres.

Our republic was born of the love of liberty which in 1776 impelled the fathers to rebel against the tyranny of the English monarch and the special privileges of the British aristocracy. and which inspired them to pledge to the cause of human freedom their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor.

The same love of liberty destroyed the aristocratic institution of slavery, a power once fortified in the courts and entrenched in the constitution. That same spirit now will suffice to overthrow the new slavery and tyranny of the trusts.

In order to restore the equal rights of the people and deliver them from the critainal despoliation of these monopolistic combinations it is imperative that the special privileges which created and foster them be uprooted and forever destroyed.

This herculean task can only be accomplished by the organization of the lovers of freedom in every part of the republic and through the persistent and determined efforts of a united people.

To this end a national anti-trust conference is hereby called to meet in the city of Chicago on the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, Feb. 12, 1900.

Patriotic citizens from all states and territories duly accredited and in full sympathy with the objects above named, and representatives of known anti-trust organizations, are invited to meet together in said conference. Applications for admission to said conference should be made to the secretary, Unity building, Chicago, at an early date, as credentials of delegates must be countersigned by the chairman of the executive committee. M. L. Lockwood, chairman, Penna, Wm. Prentiss, vice chairman, Illinois. M. Todd, Michigan. Dudley G. Wooten, Texas, A. P. McGuirk, Iowa,

W. B. Fleming, Kentucky. Alfred Sample, Illinois. P. E. Dowe, New York, James W. Wilson, Chicago. Louis F. Post, Chicago. George S. Bowen, treasurer, Chicago, Franklin H. Wentworth, sec., Chicago. Executive Committee.

"The First Night of a play," "Through the Slums with Mrs. Ballington Booth," "What it means to be a Libraraian," by Herbert Putnam, Librarian of Congress, and "The Pew and the Man in It," by Ian Maclaren are among the notable features of the "Ladies' Home Journal." An American Mother answers conclusively "Have Women Robbed Men of Their Religion?" and there is an interesting article on Mile, Chaminade, the famous composer and planist. Another article describes "Frank Stokston's New Home in West Virginia," The opening chapters of "The Parson's Butterfly," a new serial by Mrs. Charles Terry Collins, are also presented. Molly Donahue discusses woman's rights with Mr. Dooley, and "Edith and I in Paris," "Her Boston Experiences," and "The Autobiography of a Girl" continue with increasing interest. The pictorial feature, "In Honor of St. Valentine," by Alice Barber Stephens, will recall some happy, bygone days. By the Curtis Publish-ing Company, Philadelphia.
