opinions From Various Sources on Questions of the Day.

The National City bank of New York is unanimously for a second McKinley term. In fact, it would like to see Mr. McKinley in the White House for life. -St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

That William McKinley is by nature a wabbler on all questions is now known not merely by all Americans, but by all living people of the civil-ized world.—Chicago Chronicle.

A number of Republican editors are making a great pretense of hunting for a man for the second place on their They know perfectly well that Mr. Hanna has already made the selection.-Atlanta Constitution.

McKinley prosperity takes a fall out of the man who wishes to build a house of the man who wishes to build a house. A year ago lumber was $12 a thousand feet; now it is $18. The increase in the cost of production is nothing; the increase in profit to the lumber trust is 50 per cent. The increase in cost to the housebuilder is 50 per cent. Such is the McKinley plan for encouraging people to build and own houses.—Asheville Citizen.

From his home in Pennsylvania the Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay sends out an admission that he will not grace the senatorial chamber with his presence during the present session. In relegating the speckled Pennsylvania boss to private life the senate of the United States will not only purify the personnel of the upper house, but it will rec-ognize and set forth the limitations which even a plundering political boss may not overstep. Between Roberts, the polygamist, and Quay, the political scoundrel, the arguments were in favor of the Mormon. He was at least honest in everything outside of his polyg-When the time comes for voting on the question of admission of Quay the decision is likely to be quick and decisive. The senate should devote no more time than is absolutely necessary to the fate of worthless and indifferent characters.-New York Journal.

Harper's Weekly is opposed to expansion because it believes that the attempt to govern distant possessions and barbarous and alien people under our present system of government will bring harm to the republic, and will discredit the cause of democracy throughout the world. We are so conadent in this belief that we are ready to say that no man who believes in democracy intelligently-no man who knows its virtues, which ought to be perpetuated for the welfare of humanity, and its limitations, that make for good as well as for evil-can be an expansionist. No movement that has ever yet been imagined by sordid poli-ticians or grasping speculators, and that has been fanned into flames by the public press, is, in our view, so un-American as this reaching out after colonies. We believe that it is imitating Europe instead of moving along the lines of our traditions and our history.—Harper's Weekly, one year

Year after year the Republican party has caught the rural vote with fair promises, and has subsequently igpored the grangers. Legislative measures demanded by them have been refused, pigeonholed in committee rooms, defeated or indefinitely postponed. The prayers of the agriculturists for relief from oppressive or unjust taxation farmers are compelled to pay more taxes for fewer privileges and less state protection than any other class of taxpaying citizens of the commonwealth enjoy. In addition, the state administration denies to them participation in the fruits of political victories, on the ground that they are not competent to fill offices within the gift of the Republican machine. It is sel-dom advisable or profitable for organizations of business men to go into politics, but when there is class legislation, class opposition is justified. The grangers, if they shall set about it, will find themselves well able to "hoe their own row,"—Greensburg Argus.

When William Jennings Bryan ran for president a little more than three years ago he told the people that the triumph of the political party headed by Hanna and figureheaded by McKiney meant the triumph of Wall street He told them that if William of Canton was elected that the money changers would take possession of the temple and the people would see the bliss of the occupants as they divided the spoils. What he then predicted has already come to pass. The trusts who have emerged from Wall street, since a president elected by their contribuions hung up his hat on the White House hall tree, have covered the land like a swarm of locusts. They have laid claim to the credit—which in former times was given to Providencefor bringing bounteous crops and fruitful herds to the farmer. Prosperity— of which they swallow the feast while the producers pick up the crumbs— they declare is directly traceable to the intrenchment at Washington of their agent and to the adoption of policies pleasing to them.—Kansas City Times.

Organized labor is lining up against the president's imperialistic policy and its leaders are outspoken in their opposition, looking upon it as a menace to American labor and as sure to impose burdens upon American taxpayers out of all proportion to the benefits which may be expected to accrue from the consummation of the policy. In his recent annual report submitted to the American Federation of Labor President Samuel Compers says "a marked change within the recent past has overcome the policy and trend of our country in its international relations. The principle of self-govern-ment is being denied the Filipinos. The people there are entitled to the right to institute a government of their own choosing, the highest or best form of government that they can institute and maintain, and to institute it, too, without let or hindrance on the part of any nation, much less our nation, the republic of the United States, on whose foundation stone is carved in immutable letters the declaration that 'governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed."
