A cold blooded murder was committed on the streets of Lewisburg late Saturday night, when Newton Moltz, without any cause whatever, plunged a huge knife into the back of his companion, Jacob Remer. He fell to the pavement and expired in a few minutes. Moltz is in jail.

Sapho will be at the Opera House on Saturday, April 28th. The original version that is meeting with enormous success wherever it is Br presented. The Daily Saratogan speaks as follows

The play may or may not have been pruned. The manager admonished the star in the presence of Chief of Police Blodget to use her discretion, and this doubtless meant that certain sentences in the dialogue should be forgotten. Scenically, the play was barren of suggestiveness. The manager, F. L. Goodwin, said that to use the arrested on Saturday and taken to ball room and staircase scene would his home in Buckhorn to answer a have been an infringement of the charge of forgery. He was unable New York version which the poto furnish bail, and was committed lice, prompted by some newspapers, have just suppressed. Manager Goodwin maintained that he had nothing offensive in the show and parations for a grand and glorious that it was not salacious enough to suit New York.

A performance similar to that of MAY 5TH, 1900.—The assignee and upwards of $200 already sub-of William Neal and the executor scribed. The affair will be under suppressed in any place. Throughsuppressed in any place. Throughout the six acts there was nothing that would bring legitimate blushes A strong effort is being made to to even sensitive cheeks. In the secure a railroad to develop the fourth and fifth acts, Miss Effie B coal lands in Pine township, in the Elting rose to the requirements of B the occasion and demonstrated the possession of emotional abilities of a high order. A woman with a scarlet past, she was not to be envied. Her impassioned revilement of old-time lothario friends who had flaunted her disgrace in the face of her latest victim or lover, was, technically, a fine piece of acting. There was not a single one in the group who was morally qualified to B throw the first stone. Jean Gaussin's infatuation became more blind at this point and the curtain dropped on their embrace.

The last act is a test to show whether a woman of the type of Fannie Legrand can have any remorse or dread the penalty of retribution. Perhaps fallen angels can be reincarnated, and if they are, "Sapho" has a chance. Outside of environment of the occasion, the point. Mention should be made of Grand "Sapho."

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., April 9, 1990. We, the undersigned, auditors of the Town of Bloomsburg, do say that we met at the Council Room for the purpose of performing our duties, and that we have exam-ined the books of the secretary and find them correct, and that the balance in the hands of the treasurer is correct.

We disapprove of members of the Council.

We disapprove of members of the Council, directly, or indirectly, working on the streets of the town, furnishing teams or supplies. We shall feel it our duty, hereafter, to enter protest to the payment of all such bills.

P. H. FREEZE,

WM. KRICKBAUM, AUDITORS.

GEO. E. WILBUR,

In signing the above report I must, however, object to the issuing of $15,000.00 of orders for borrowed money, because the orders for borrowed money, because the same is contrary to law, and that said orders are invalid; and further, that it has been observed the been observed that one member of Council has a bill of $109.00, at $2.00 per day, while other members have furnished material and done work, both in a direct and indire. way, and it has been ascertained that members have done work on the second of the same have done work on the streets and the same has been returned as done by other parties. From the nature and condition of things it is impossible for the board of auditors, as a board, to make the investigation necessary is make a full and complete report, thus leaving it to the citizens of the town to further investigate, if they deem it proper to do so.

I do this on the ground that one member of the board of auditors has no authority is of the board of auditors has no authority to employ counsel, or order a full and careful investigation to oe made, WM. KRICKBAUM, AUDITOR.
