

THE COLUMBIAN. BLOOMSBURG, PA.

J. S. Williams & Son, Public Sale Criers and General Auctioneers.

SALES.

SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1900, at 2 o'clock p. m., Carnelia A. Dent will sell at public sale a valuable house and lot situated on Third street, Scott Town, Bloomsburg, Pa., containing excellent water, a good barn and fruit trees in abundance. Terms made known on day of sale.

Lunch Supper.

Next Thursday evening, May 24, the Ladies' Auxiliary will serve a supper in the Y. M. C. A. Building, from 5 to 10 o'clock. Price, 15c. Ice cream and cake extra. The patronage of everybody who are interested in the work is earnestly solicited.

Clinton Lloyd, one of the oldest members of the bar of Lycoming county died at his home in Muncy last Thursday.

A. L. Fritz, a prominent farmer of Sugarloaf township, has recovered from an illness that confined him to the house for several months.

The Winona base ball team has received many challenges. The boys will probably go to Montgomery for two games on Memorial Day.

Thos. B. Moore, who accidentally shot himself in the left foot with a flobert rifle more than two weeks ago, is still incapacitated from work.

The Bessemer steel plant, at Danville, yesterday closed down for an indefinite period. There has been a lull in the iron market recently, and the utter inability to dispose of the plant's product is the cause of the shut-down. We sincerely hope that the inactivity will be of short duration.

C. H. Reimard and brother Harvey are the proprietors of a new enterprise in the shape of a steam laundry. It is located on the Dr. McReynolds lot near West street and has been christened the White Star Laundry. The proprietors are industrious and persevering gentlemen and will no doubt be successful.

A little girl named Sophia Wilhelm Elasser, aged 5 years, was killed at the circus ground in Williamsport last Friday week. A gust of wind blew a pole of a side show down which struck her and injured her so severely that she died in about an hour and a half afterwards. The management of the Forepaugh show promptly settled with the parents, paying them $500 and also paying for the casket and all expenses of the funeral.

The Clinton County Democrat says that manifold blessings were recently showered on Wilton Mel-lot, a farmer of that county. A few nights ago his wife presented him with lusty twins. In the morning when he went to the barn, he found that one of his best cows, during the night had given birth to twin calves, and in the sheep pen, he discovered that a ewe had twin lambs. A peculiarity of the occurrence is that one of each sex made up the three pairs.

We are nearing Memorial Day, and its coming should remind us that the cemetery lot needs some care and attention. We are all interested in that day, but doubly so is the veteran. His mind goes back to the 60's, when he shouldered a musket in defense of his home and his country. He thinks of his comrades, who have answered the final roll call, and knows that he, too, is nearing the fulfillment of nature's decree. The number who will march to the cemetery this year will be diminished from that of last year, and this diminution should serve as a reminder and act as a stimulus to the people in general to keep alive the decorative feature, which has become time honored, and thus care for the resting places of the veterans who have gone to final bivouac.

THE CIVIC CLUB.

one very much needed in Bloomsburg. The object of this department will surely appeal to every woman who has been the victim of deceiving, unworthy creatures, who, by most outrageous falsehoods, have wrought upon her best emotions; who, through sympathy, excited by fraud, have received money and other things, entailing sacrifice upon the part of the generous givers, while the really needy have suffered through want of being known, or because there is nothing left for them. It is the duty of every one to make every dollar they own do the full work of each one of its hundred cents, and to remember that, no matter how many or how few one has, every dollar spent in one direction must be done without in another direction.

Every woman has just so much money and so much power, and it is the duty of each one to find just where that money and that power will do best service, and even then, we find that there is not enough of either to cover everything.

Organized charity does the best work, because it is able, through appointed committees, to do thorough work, and we can certainly manage so that next winter no one in Bloomsburg will go cold or hungry; that not at the expense of the really needy and suffering, shall imposters be catered to, and idleness and immorality encouraged.

Every woman can become an active member of this club by the payment of fifty cents a year. This will be the only payment required. If there are any elderly women or invalids who feel that by age or lack of strength they can do no work, they can, by the payment of one dollar annually, be enrolled as honorary members of the club, and will be privileged to attend its meetings.

The work will not come heavily upon any one if a goodly number join. The truism that "many hands make light work," will be once more realized, and it is to be hoped that as many as possible will be enrolled as members of the Woman's Civic Club of Bloomsburg.

John H. Guinn died from heart failure at his home in Catawissa Saturday afternoon. He was about seventy-four years old and leaves to survive him a wife and seven children, all grown to manhood and womanhood. They are Mrs. W. L. Schmick, John F. Guinn and John Guinn, of New York; Mrs. C. F. Wentz, of Tanawaga, Mrs. J. F. Fisher, of Catawissa, and Joseph L. Guinn, of this town. He was a respected and useful citizen and was a member of Hoagland Post, G. A. R. The funeral took place on Monday.

When there is a small fire discovered in the day time in a part of the town near the location of one of the fire companies, and that company is on hand, it seems hardly necessary to sound the fire alarm and summon the other companies and all the citizens of the town. This should only be done when it is apparent that more help is needed. A little exercise of judgment in the matter will save some of the firemen a long run for nothing.

Charles Townsend, who hails from Williamsport, entered the Exchange Hotel Friday morning in an intoxicated condition. His inability to secure a drink kindled his anger and he became very abusive. He was ejected from the place by Irwin Snyder, one of the proprietors. During the encounter he struck Snyder in the face, breaking his jaw. Shortly thereafter Townsend was arrested, in the rear of Moyer's Drug Store, for attempting to undress himself. He was arraigned before Mayor Ikeler, and being without funds to pay his fine was locked up.
