On account of the overcrowded condition of the Danville Hospital, a number of the inmates have been removed to the new hospital at Retreat, along the Pennsylvania Railroad, opposite Shickshinny.

The Bloomsburg Store Company is disposing of its stock and will go out of business. It has not been sufficiently successful to warrant a continuance. The entire shoe department was sold to a New York firm.

Base ball Saturday afternoon, on Normal Field. Winona vs. Berwick. This will be the first opportunity that lovers of the great national game have had to cheer for an all-around home team. Savidge will pitch.

Edward Ricketts, of Danville, was struck and instantly killed by a passenger train, in Shamokin, last Thursday afternoon. A coroner's jury was empanelled and a verdict rendered that death was the result of personal negligence.

Louis Bernhard Jr., son of Louis Bernhard, of this town, who has been conducting a jewelry store in Scranton for some time past, was burned out Monday night. His loss was about $4,000. He was insured for about one fourth that amount.

The river bridge was threatened with destruction on Friday. A fire, the origin of which cannot be accounted for, started about the center of the structure, but it was discovered by Bruce Jones, who extinguished it before it had much time to spread.

While at work in the Store Company's store on Monday, Miss Emma Webb fainted and fell, striking her head on the counter and cutting a gash in her head. She was taken to her home on Centre street, and Dr. Arment was called in. Miss Webb is now improving.

Hon. Rufus K. Polk, Congressman for this district, has tendered an appointment to West Point to Herbert Hollister, son of Samuel Hollister, of Locust Gap. The fortunate young man is in every way deserving of the marked distinction he has received.

J. E. Roys has purchased Geo. W. Hess' entire stock of photo supplies, and is now the only person in town keeping on hand, at all times, every requisite for this most pleasant pastime. He shows a nice line of cameras, both film and plate, from the inexpensive to the best.

The Winona Fire Company defeated the Bloomsburg Juniors, at base ball, on Normal Field, Saturday afternoon. Score, 15 to 4. The latter put up a pretty stiff fight, but they were out of their class. Harry Little twirled for the firemen and Harry Ritchie for the Juniors.

The boys and girls should read the "Farm Journal." It will help keep them on the farm. We will send it five years, the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who will subscribe for the COLUMBIAN. Walk right up to the captain's office.

A shooting affair occurred on Eighth street this morning, and as a result of which Jacob Stiner will probably lose the sight of an eye. We are in possession of only meagre details. There is great diversity of opinion. Some say it was intentional, while others claim it was an accident.

Two youths, James Hinchey and James Curran, aged 11 and 9 years respectively, of Centralia, stole into saloon-keeper Goldswothy's cellar and drank whiskey through straws from a barrel until both were intoxicated. They were found a short time after and taken to their homes. Hinchey died from the overdose, Thursday. His companion will recover.

"Farm Journal" is the leading farm paper of the country. Its editor was raised at the plow handles, and knows what he is talking about. We have an arrangement with the "Farm Journal," by which we can send it for nearly five years, the remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to all who subscribe for the COLUMBIAN; both papers at the price of ours only.
