Cointons From Various Sources on questions of Public Interest. It remained for Mr. Grosvenor to point out the inconsistency of the gen-demen who declined to change their pinds on the Porto Rican question .--Washington Post.

Senator Pettigrew is branded as a traitor for asking in behalf of the Filipinos what Washington and Jeffersion demanded for the American colonists.-Kansas City Times.

with Mr. McKinley a candidate for re-election, the question is to be asked if he has been a dignified, consistent, statesmanlike, self reliant president in his first term of office .- Boston Herald.

The Hanna ship subsidy steal will tax the people of the United States about $9,000,000 a year for 30 years. Why should such outrageous thefts as this be allowed ?- Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

Mr. McKinley should by all means have attended Cleveland's lecture on "The Independence of the Executive," It might possibly have injected something of the kind into his own spinal column .--- Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser.

In spite of Senator Hoar's eloquent pleadings against the new imperial and empirical politics of McKinley it is once more in order to quote Lowell's famous line, "Massachusetts, God forgive her, she's a-kneeling with the rest."-New York World.

If the high officials of the present adistration ever knew anything about the Monroe doctrine they have probably become so muddled on the subject that it is all a dream to them. They have been trying to teach Monroe doctrine in the Orient and neglecting the uneducated people at home.

With 12,200 men thrown out of work by the steel and wire trust, 5,000 thrown out of work by the tobacco trust and 1,000 thrown out of work by the sugar trust recently, John Archbold's assertion that trusts insure men wages all the year round smacks of irony.-St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Pennsylvania Republican platform is long. It contains nearly 2,000 words. But there is not one word in it with reference to the president's colonial policy. Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippines are all unmentioned. Is this a case where "silence gives consent?" Or does it mean that silence was the price of harmony?-N. Y. World.

The men who, like Paul, have gone to heathen lands with the message, "We seek not yours but you," have been hindered by those who, coming after, have reversed the message. Rum and other corrupting agencies come with our boasted civilization, and the feeble races wither before the hot breath of the white man's vices .--Ex-President Harrison.

Cruel, barbarous Spain placed a duty of 10 per cent on Porto Rican goods and granted the island representation on a population basis in the Spanish The enlightened, merciful United States places a duty of 25 per cent of the Dingley rates-say 50 per cent ad valorem-on Porto Rican goods, and WANTS INDIANS TO VOTE.

Captain Allison, of South Dakota, to Give Political Instruction to the Sloux.

During the next four months the Sioux Indians on the reservations in South Dakota are to receive their first instructions in civies if Capt. E. H. Allison has his way about it. Capt. Allison is a member of the Unepaphah tribe of Sioux Indians, having been adopted by that tribe in 1866, and he married the Sioux princess, Sinawin, daughter of Sacred Bear, who was for years head chief of the tribe.

Capt. Allison, says a special dishas lived among the Sioux Indians nearly all his life, and he speaks the Indian language as fluently as he speaks the English. He was chief of the scouts for Gen. Sheridan for sevinterpreter for Gen. Otis in the western country for 10 or 15 years.

It was he who, after the Custer massacre on the Little Big Horn, went to Canada to induce Sitting Bull and turn to the United States; and he was in charge of the command which took Sitting Bull to Fort Randall.

"Few of the Sioux Indians have ever participated in a presidential campaign," said Capt. Allison recently "In fact, but few of them can be said to have a political opinion. It is my purpose to go out on all the reservations west of the Missouri and hold meetings wherever a dozen or more Indians can be gathered together. This work will take three or four months. I shall give them elementary lessons in civic duties, and shall try aforesaid, on to show them what it means for them to be citizens of the United States. I shall explain why it is necessary to have elections, polling places, and laws tions in order to give these new citizens of ours a concrete idea of election methods."

WILLIAM C. JOHNSTON,

The Quavites claimed Dan Hastings went out of the executive chair at Harrisburg the most despised governor Pennsylvania ever had. But Dan won't be in it with Weary Willie Stone when time forces him to wear the "ex" before his name. For low-down subserviency and general all-around mediocrity Stone is the champion of the day and generation. May there never be another of his kind .- Clearfield Republican

If men lack bread, it is not that God has not done his part in providing it. If men willing to labor are cursed with poverty, it is not that the storehouse d owes men has fealed, that the daily God owes men has failed, that the daily wants of his children is not here in abundance. Our trouble lies in that we have given into the exclusive ownership of the few the provision that a bountiful father has made for all .--Henry George.

Our tariff is for the "protection" of foreign consumers, the fleecing of American consumers and the benefit of the home trust grabbers. Just look You can buy American sewing machines for less money in London than in Pittsburg. American lead sells in London for $3.60 per cwt.; in Pittsburg it sells for $4.70 per cwt .- yet we keep up a tariff on lead. We export copper and undersell the world on copper, yet we put a tariff on it in order to skin Americans who have to use it. -Venango Spectator.

There is no good reason why a man should stick to a political party just because of its name. Men who believe in the single gold standard, high tariff and imperialism, are Republicans, and should not profess to be Democrats. Those who believe in bi-metallism, low tariff or none at all, and who do not favor imperialism, are Demoerats, and should not claim to be Republicans. The Republican party stands or trusts. McKinley was elected by the corporations, and the fruits have shown that the corporations knew their business when they invested their money in him .- Oil City Blizzard.

By passing the Porto Rican tariff bill the Republican leaders have driven a powerful nail into the coffin of the Republican party. Bear in mind that there is no reciprocity in this. Porto Rico is now United States territory, and we have just as much authority for imposing duties upon products from Alaska as upon products from Porto Rico. If Porto Rico be not United States territory then products from that island must be subject to the same duties as those from Jamaica. A political party that makes such disbill cannot live.—Titusville Courier. Wm. Chrisman, Atty. John S. Williams, Auctioneer.
