ITALY'S DEAD RULER

Particulars of the Assassination of Humbert.

SLAYER CAME FROM AMERICA.

Declares He Had No Accomplices. Affecting Scenes at the Bedside of the Murdered King-Queen Overcome With Grief.

MONZA, July 31,-The body of King Humbert of Italy lies in the great bed chamber of the royal palace here.

Soldiers are on guard at the portals, fingstaff the royal standard flutters at

Outside the palace great crowds are gathered. They talk in whispers or stand silently watching the royal palace and the distinguished visitors who have been arriving here.

Under guard in a cell in the little town is the assassin, Angelo Bressi. He is proud of his work. His was the third attempt made on the life of the king. and he feels a thrill of horrible satisfaction at his success.

Few additional details of the terrible tragedy are available. It happened so quickly and unexpectedly that the king was dead almost before the spectators realized what had occurred.

No special precautions had been taken. Very few police were in attendance, and only a small guard of soldiers was keeping the way for the carriage. The king, amid the cheers of the crowd, came out miling, accompanied by his premier de-camp, General Ponzio-Vaglia. He had entered the carriage and was just driving off when the revolver shots were fired in quick succession. Some witnesses assert that Bressi was seen just previously waving his hands and cheering. The first shot wounded the king in the neck; the second, the fatal one, pierced his heart, and the third broke the arm of the already dying sovereign.

The crowd was stunned by the unexpected scene, but speedily a rush was made toward the assassin. He did not attempt to escape and was roughly treated until the carabineers formed a cordon and secured him from the fury of the back, pressing his hand to his heart. He was instantly supported by General Ponrio-Vaglia, who told the coachman to drive with all speed to the castle. After his exclamation, "It is nothing!" he did not utter a sound.

When Queen Margherita arrived at the villa, it was still hoped that the king would survive, and when the truth was broken to her a heartrending scene en-Bursting into tears, she ex "It is the greatest crime of the century.

Humbert was good and faithful. No person could have loved his people more. He was one who bore ill will to none." When the queen's mother arrived, there was another affecting scene. The assassin's name is variously given as Angelo and Gaetno Bressi. He was born in Prato Nov. 10, 1860, and is a weaver by trade. He comes from America, where he had resided at Paterson, N. J. He says he had no accomplices and that he committed the crime because of his hatred of monarchical institutions.

The assassin on reaching the guardroom of the carabineers was in a pitiable condition, his hands and arms being lacerated and bloody and his clothes torn by the angry crowd. Replying to ques-

"Tell them I came from America on purpose to kill Humbert. I have only just arrived from America and know no one. I spent a day at Bologna and then came on to Milan.

A search made at his home at Prato resulted in the finding of several compromising letters from New York. One, signed by a woman, was dated June 25. In this letter the writer asks whether all is ready and expresses a hope that he will return soon.

Bressi has been absent from Prato for six or seven years. His parents live there, and he has a brother in an Italian infantry regiment.

PLOT HATCHED IN AMERICA.

Humbert's Assassin Formerty Lived In Paterson, N. J.

PATERSON, N. J., July 31.—The fact that the assassin of King Humbert proves to be a former resident of this lace occasioned a little surprise here. It has long been suspected that a plot of this sort and magnitude might hatched among the Italian anarchists who have formed a settlement here.

These Italians are mostly employed in the silk mills and some are experts, having engaged in the same industry in

There is little doubt that the plot to kill King Humbert has been known for several months in the Italian settlements around New York. It was given world wide publicity two weeks ago by the suiside of an anarchist in Paterson who claimed to have been chosen by lot to do he killing. That his position was known is proved by the fact that his compatriots were only prevented from giving him a magnificent funeral by the police.

grams have been received from all parts of the country indicative of the deep sorrow of the whole nation. Everywhere work was suspended yesterday, and the bourses and theaters were closed. In the principal cities the municipal author lties are considering plans to honor the memory of the murdered monarch. At Messing a procession marched through the streets cheering for the house of Savoy and the young king. At Palermo nn imposing demonstration proceeded in solemn silence to the municipal offices to express the sorrow and indignation of the population, after which a vast crowd cheered the new king. There were sim-

Monza, the scene of the assassination, is a summer resort about nine miles from Milan and is much frequented by the Milanese. The royal palace was built in 1719 by order of the Archduke Ferdimand of Austria after designs by Piermarini. A PLAN THAT FAILED.

The Amnesty Celebration at Manila Proved a Finsco.

MANILA, July 30,-The two days' fiesta in Manila organized by Senor Paterno and his political followers to commemorate the amnesty resulted in a The people were passive, unenthusiastic and not even interested.

Failing to perceive any tangible, effective results of amnesty, they say they can see no reasons for celebrating.

Judge Taft and his colleagues of the commission felt constrained to decline to attend the banquet, as they had been in-formed that the speeches would favor independence under American protection, and they could not passively lend their acquiescence by being present.

Senor Paterno, foreseeing the suspension of the banquet without the Americans, frantically appealed to them to attend, promising that there should be no speeches.

The provost's precautions were extreme. The guards were doubled both days, and the authorities forbade the display of Filipino flags and of pictures of President McKinley and Aguinaldo fraternally framed.

The fiesta is generally considered to have been premature and unfortunate. During last week's scouting ten Americans were killed and 14 wounded. One hundred and eighty Filipinos were killed and 60 taken prisoners. Forty insurgent rifles were captured.

LEGATIONS ARE SAFE

Authentic News From Peking Removes All Doubt.

RELIEF FORCE ANXIOUSLY AWAITED.

Foreigners Blockaded Since June 13. Under Continuous Attacks Since the 20th-Sixty Europeans Killed-An Immediate Advance.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1,-Doubt has given way to a feeling akin to certainty that the legationers at Peking and the gallant marines who managed to reach the Chinese capital just in the nick of time were not only alive on July 22, but in all probability are still alive and likely to remain so until they are released from their state siege.

Adjutant General Corbin received a dispatch from Lieutenant Colonel Coolidge, commanding the Ninth infantry at It came by way of Chefu and is as follows:

"Tien-tsin, July 27.—Following letter of Lieutenant Colonel Shiba, military attache at the legation of Peking, dated July 25, arrived at Tien-tsin the 25th at 'Peking, July 22, Evening,-We are all awaiting impatiently arrival of reenforcing army. When are you coming? All legations have been blockaded since 13th of last month, and since the 20th we have been attacked continually night and day by the Chinese soldiers from more than ten encampments. By a supreme effort we are still defending. We ore daily awaiting with the greatest anxiety arrival of re-enforcing army, and if you can't reach here in less than a week's time it is probable that we will be unable to hold out any longer. Emperor and empress dowager appear to be still Peking. Were our to arrive very probable that they would flee to Wan Shoshan. Killed and wounded up to date eight killed, one a captain of infantry and an embassador's attache; seven seriously wounded, the first secretary of the legation being one of 20 slightly wounded. The number of Europeans killed is 60 in all."

The war department last evening received two cablegrams from China. The

"I (Daggett) report allied forces soon advance. Practically no looting by Americans, no unnecessary killing. Indiana arrived 26th. Order MacCann, Sladen, both Allens, Mitchell and Bryce join regiment here. DAGGETT.

The second read: "Tien-tsin, July 30.—Flintshire arriv-Two hundred and fifty-seven Ninth infantry sick: 10 doctors, 100 hospital corps men. 20 signal men needed. navoidable delay unloading transports.

The Japanese consul at Tien-tsin telegraphed on the 27th inst. a dispatch dat-ed the 19th from the Japanese minister at Peking to the foreign office at Tokyo which had reached Tien-tsin by special courier on the 25th. The minister says:

"The Japanese marines and others continue under the command of the military attache, Lieutenant Colonel Shilm, to resist the repeated attacks of Tang Fuh Siang's troops. I think we can hold out, though the task is by no means an easy one, until we are relieved by the division of Japanese troops which, I hear through special messenger, will arrive at Tientsin by the end of this month. The Chinese have stopped firing since the 15th, and the Chinese authorities are apparently disposed to open negotiations.

"Attache Kojima, Captain Ando of the imperial army, Mr. H. Nakamura and five marines have been killed, while Narabara, second secretary of the legation, a student, and six marines have been wounded, though not mortally. Many others have also been slightly wounded.

The official confirmation of the news that Minister Conger is safe and well, coupled with the statement that he provisions for several weeks and that the firing on the legation has ceased, was welcome intelligence, though not unexpected in view of recent news. The information from Colonel Daggett was promptly telegraphed to President Me-Kinley at Canton, who has been advised of the receipt of messages always as soon as they reach here.

The last message which came from Minister Conger was that which was obtained through the intermediary of Mr. Wu and was supposed to be dated the 18th inst., before which time nothing had come since June 12, almost two

It is expected now that all the energies of the government as well as that of the other nations will be concentrated for the advance on Peking. Several of the reports which have come from China seem to indicate that this will occur very soon.

It is evident from the dispatches received from General Chaffee that only a portion of his force can be utilized if any mmediate advance is made. It is not be lieved that all of the equipments of the last expedition sent from Manila have been landed, and it is of course apparent that the horses and most of the equipment of the Sixth cavalry are still at sea. The Ninth infantry and the two battalions of the Fourteenth infantry, together with the marines, are the only troops of the United States actually available on Chinese soil at this time.

Germany Doubts No Longer,

BERLIN, Aug. 1.-Hope regarding the security of the foreigners in Peking now runs high in Berlin. The German foreign office no longer doubts the reports from various quarters that the ministers, with the exception of Baron von Ketteler, are alive. The papers take the same view and urge that there should be no delay in the advance upon Peking. The foreign office is deeply mortified at the failure to agree upon a commander is chief of the allied forces. A high official said: "The civilized world will look on with astonishment if the rescue of the members of the legations is delayed or perhaps frustrated by such a trifling matter. Germany is ready to march her troops under any commander acceptable to the powers."
