Church Dedication.

Sunday morning, September 30th, 1900, the dedication of the M. E. Church, at Ikeler's, will take place. This is a neat and comfortable little church, and reflects much credit and praise upon this earnest, self-sacrificing little company of people, who brought this seeming impossibility to be a real possibility. In these services they invite the public to join, and trust that everybody may feel interested in their great victory. The following is a plan of the day's service: At 10 a. m. the Rev. W. M. Frysinger, D. D., of Bloomsburg, will preach, and at 3 p. m. the Rev. J. H. Bettens, of Waller, will preach. Dr. Frysinger will have charge of the after service, at 4 p. m. The dedicatory service will be held at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. T. M. Phillips, of Washingtonville, will preach. To these services the public is invited. By order of the Committee.

DAVID V. BROUSE, Pastor.

Don't Get Thin

Get fat; get nice and plump; there is safety in plumpness.

Summer has tried your food-works; winter is coming to try your breath-mill. Fall is the time to brace yourself.

But weather is tricky; look out! Look out for colds especially.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the subtlest of helps. It is food, the easiest food in the world; it is more than food, it helps you digest your food, and get more nutriment from it.

Don't get thin, there is safety in plumpness. Man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample its agreeable taste will surprise you.
