WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent, Washington, Oct. 14, 1900.

Those whose votes cannot be bought must be coerced into voting for McKinley. That is the motto under which the republican managers are working now. How it works in some cases may be judged by what a prominent drummer said to a Washington friend: "Ninety-five per cent. of the commercial travelers in the U. S. and about 100 per cent of those who were commercial travelers until the on rush of trusts drove them from the road, will vote for Bryan and Stevenson. This is in confidence, so far as my name is concerned. I have are like this drummer.

The coercion republican tactics of 1896 are being repeated upon an even more extensive scale this year. In addition to the big trusts, banks and corporations, the officers of saving banks, life insurance companies and building and loan associations are having pressure put upon them not only to use their personal influence to make votes for McKinley but to use the influence of their patrons to vote

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Fate of the Confederate Seal.

It Was First Defaced and Then Sunk in the Savannah River.

"The result of the last Confederate council of war held at Abbeville, South Carolina, in May, 1865, was soon known all over Abbeville, and the Generals and the Secretary of War were kept busy for hours signing honorable discharges for the tired soldiers, who immediately applied for them," writes Mrs. Thaddeus Horton, in the October Ladies' Home Journal. "During the evening Mr. Benjamin asked for a hatchet, and with it he defaced the Contederate seal. About twelve o'clock the same night the Confederate party continued their retreat in the direction of Washington, Georgia, and while crossing the Savannah River in the darkness some one suggested that the seal be thrown overboard. This idea was at once approved, and when the boat reached mid-stream it was dropped with a dull splash into the sandy river bed of that beautiful Southern watercourse, where to this day, its mission all fulfilled, it serenely rests."

General Superintendent Besler, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, said recently that the main office of administration had been transferred to Reading, the heart of the Reading

The statement is even with the facts in the case. The offices formerly occupied by Mr. Sweigard are bare of furniture, the rooms are vacant and no one is present to meet inquiries outside of C. E. Metzler, the assistant transportation master, who is acting under the direction of Superintendent

The official force removing to Reading comprises among its principal men John S. Gilbert, the chief clerk; James J. Magee, Lin McMillin, Frank P. Schaeffer, Leo Bader and Nathan G. Campbell. The offices ended at the Terminal entirely last Thursday and there are no changes in the official staff, the department clerks remaining as they were.

Mr. Sweigard, having severed his connection with the Reading as general superintendent, has not as yet ended his work at the Terminal, but will do so in the next ten days. He left Philadelphia on Saturday on his private car for the Penobscot country, in Maine, and will be away the next three weeks on a vacation that he purposed taking last June, but the exacting demands of his office prevented his going away.

Mr. Sweigard, it is stated, has a fine offer from the New York, New Haven and Hartford Road, and may take it. He is a railroad man of wide experience.
