

The President's Work is Never Done. He Has No Time to Call His Own, and Must Literally Live in His Office.

A separate office building for the President has been much talked of and even seriously discussed...

The Machine Both Violates and Ignores the Constitution.

"Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the senate or house of representatives, and, if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals with the yeas and nays taken thereon..."

In conformity with this provision of our constitution, in 1899, in the last legislature, an amendment to the constitution was proposed...

It was a decided step for good, honest, clean government, and in justice to the members of the last legislature it must be said that even Quay was impotent in this matter...

Quay, however, had another card up his sleeve—the knife—which represents the Quay machine in the governor's chair, and although Governor Stone had absolutely no prerogatives in the premises than any other qualified elector in the state...

Even then the Quay machine did not give up the struggle to prevent the enactment of the amendment. In their efforts to prevent any legislation which would inure to a fair vote and an honest count they stopped at nothing...

As soon as Secretary Grist had known his decision, refusing to advertise the amendment, the friends of an honest administration of the laws, and of a true interpretation of the constitution, came to its rescue...

"There will be a popular acquiescence in the demand for home rule, and a territorial form of government in Alaska and Porto Rico. Both are entitled to local self government and representation in congress..."

The money question is dragged into speeches of the Republican splinterbills as feebly as the old colored parson introduced a description of a battle into a sermon by stamping on the floor and following it up by exclaiming, "Dat sounds like er cannon. Speaking of cannon," etc.

It will be remembered that the Mark Hanna who recently said there are no trusts is the same Mark Hanna who is so loudly vociferating that there is no such thing as an imperialist issue.

The Truth

about woman's ills can be frankly told by one woman to another. Remember that Mrs. Pinkham is a woman. Remember that her advice and medicine have cured a million women of weaknesses peculiar to their sex.

Remember that no man ever sees a letter written to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, that the letter is opened, read and answered by women, and no testimonial ever published without special permission.

Remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the recognized safeguard of woman's health.

Remember these things when some other remedy is suggested, and remember them when you want advice. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.
